MINISTER WORKS ROAD.

Could Not Make Ends Meet on $100 a Month Salary.

Bakerfield, Cal., Dec. 29.—Rev. A. G. Mills, pastor of the Christian church of this city, found that he could not make ends meet with his salary of $100 a month, so he went to work as a road laborer. Now he has received notice from the church board that his services are no longer required.

"We paid him for all his time and we thought we ought to have it," is the way one of the trustees put it. Mills, who has a family of three children, says he borrowed money to pay his way here from New York and was trying to earn enough to pay the debt.

Earthquake in Greece. Athens, Greece, Dec. 29.—Immense property damage and probable loss of life are the results today of an earthquake in Ellis province. The quakes continuing for several days are unusually severe. Hundreds of buildings being wrecked and troops have been dispatched to relieve panic and suffering.

Entertains Her Friends. Miss Katie Mercer entertained last night at her home, 633 South Thirtieth street, in honor of a few friends. A pleasant evening was spent. Those present were: Misses Iva Berry, Myrtle Mayer, Dean Burrows, Clara Mayer, Katie Mercer and Messrs. Arthur Orr, Herbert Budde, Frank Fisher and Herman Yopp.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Quick and Mr. C. O. Brown Today.

The marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Owen Quick and Mr. Clarence O. Brown was quietly solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Henry Owen, 822 Jefferson street. The Rev. G. T. Sullivan, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church performed the ceremony. Only the immediate family was present.

The bride was lovely in a stylish traveling suit of dark blue tailored cloth, with a picture hat of black. The couple left at 11:25 for Louisville, Cincinnati and Eastern points.

The bride belongs to one of the prominent pioneer families of the city. She is a young woman of much charm of personality and lovable character. Mr. Brown is one of the best known young tobacco brokers of the city. He is senior member of the firm of Brown & Nagel and is popular throughout west Kentucky.

The President's Christmas Dinner.

President and Mrs. Taft sat down to a sure enough "Star Spangled Banner Dinner" Sunday at the White House, for nearly every state in the Union contributed something to the feast.

Rhode Island contributed a 30 pound turkey, the pride of that little state; Georgia sent her very best "possum and sweet 'taters;" Virginia gave Lynn Bay oysters for the turkey dressing; Idaho sent a bushel of white potatoes while California was to the fore with boxes of oranges, figs and other fruits; Oregon sent a box of her finest apples; North Carolina contributed boxes of jelly and marmalade, and nearly all the Southern States sent boxes of flowers.

Luther League With Miss Hoewischer. Miss Elsie Hoewischer is hostess to the Luther league this afternoon at her home, 527 Jefferson street. It is a pleasant social occasion.

Marries at Hickory Grove. The Mayfield Messenger announces the marriage of Mr. L. J. Green, of Paducah, and Miss Lottie Curd, of Mayfield, at Hickory Grove on Wednesday morning. The bride is a daughter of Mr. John Curd, residing east of Mayfield.

Missionary Society to Meet. The Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the pastor's study at the church.

Fulton Wedding. The following announcement will be of interest in Paducah, where both young people are known: "Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sellers announce the marriage of their daughter, Marianna Cox, to George Woodson Morris, on the evening of Sunday, December twenty-fifth, one thousand nine hundred and ten."

Reception for Out-going Missionary. The Dodd society of the First Baptist church will entertain with a reception on Friday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock at the Baptist Headquarters on North Fifth street, in honor of Miss Carrie Newman, of this city, who has offered herself as a missionary in the foreign field. Miss Newman is attending college at Clinton and is at home for the holidays. An informal musical program will be rendered during the evening in which Miss Newman will take part. Light refreshments will be served.

Popular Young Men Dance Hosts. Messrs. Chester Kerth, Alfred Legeay and Horace Fiegle are the hosts at a dance this evening at the Three Links building.

Payne-Vance Wedding at High Noon. The marriage of Miss Minnie Catherine Payne and Mr. Chester Vance, of Maxon's, was solemnized at high noon today in the parlors of the Palmer House. The Rev. T. J. Owen was the officiating minister. It was a quiet event with only a limited number of guests present. There were no attendants. The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of brown cloth with hat and gloves to harmonize. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Immediately following the ceremony an informal reception was held. The bridal party was entertained with a dinner in the dining-room of the Palmer at 12:30 o'clock. It was an attractively appointed affair with covers laid for 30. Mr. Stokes Payne, the father of the bride, was the host. The dining-room was held private for the bridal party.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance will leave at 6:15 for New Orleans and other Gulf coast cities. They will be at home after January 15 at Maxon's. The bride is an attractive young woman, the elder daughter of Mr. Stokes Payne, one of the most prominent men of McCracken county. She has a number of friends in Paducah, where she has frequently visited. Mr. Vance is a well-known young man, the popular merchant at Maxon's.

Matinee Musical Open Meeting. The Matinee Musical club's open Christmas meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Women's club was a musical event of notable interest. A beautiful song cycle program was presented by Mrs. James Gruenebaum and Mr. Emmet Bagby, with Mrs. George B. Hart as accompanist. Mr. William Reddick, of Cincinnati, who is at home for the holidays, played two piano solos which were attractive features of the program.

Song Cycle for Baritone—"In San Nazaro." (1) "In San Nazaro's Gardens." (2) "In San Nazaro's Cloisters." (3) "The Monks of San Nazaro." (4) "And in Nazaro's Gardens."—Mr. Bagby.

Piano solo (selected).—Mr. William Reddick.

Duet for contralto and baritone, "Sir Spring," from the "Love and Springtime." (Liza Lehmann)—Mrs. Gruenebaum and Mr. Bagby.

Piano solo (selected).—Mr. William Reddick.

Song cycle for contralto, "Fair Jessie," in seven songs; words and music by Alexander von Fielitz.—Mrs. Gruenebaum.

Musical Called Off.

The musical announced for this evening at the Grace church parish house has been called off on account of the weather.

Double Marriage at Lone Oak Parsonage.
