A GOOD COMPANY

To Open at the Opera House Tonight in "The Flower Girl."

The Spooner Dramatic company, which will on tonight begin a week's engagement at the opera house, has long been recognized as the strongest repertoire organization in the western country. During the engagement of the company this season at Lincoln, Neb., Davenport, Iowa, and Quincy, Ill., the press was unanimous in conceding that the company was the strongest ever seen there in repertoire; the scenery was far superior to any ever carried through the west by a cheap priced company and the costuming and staging of the plays was up to the highest standard. The company has made its reputation by giving performances that meet the public demand, it maintains its position by keeping all promises made to the public.

Note the prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents, with ladies free to the performance of "The Flower Girl" tonight. Seats can be reserved at Van Cull's book store without extra charge.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Items of Interest Relative to the Railroads and Railroad People.

W. C. A. ST. L. MILEAGE.

Judge Linn and Lawyer A. B. Lamb were in this morning on 51.

Bud Ezell, a brother of J. M. Ezell, the tobacco dealer, arrived from Mansfield, Tenn., this morning.

Conductor Byers Robertson will high ball the accommodation during the time Conductor Fulton is rusticated.

Judge Barry, J. M. Fisher, J. R. Lemon and Mr. Ferguson were all on the accommodation from Benton this a. m. when she came in.

The pay train is looked for tomorrow. When she comes the boys will feel rich for a few hours—after that the grocery man will be the fellow to feel good.

G. H. Derrington, of Murray, came in on the morning train to attend the U. S. court; also C. C. Marshall, L. A. Curd and Mr. Outlaw for the same purpose.

The cannon used at Benton Saturday night in the big jollification there came in on 51 this a. m. It is said the noise she belched forth was heard all over Marshall.

Conductor Alex Fulton stopped off at Hardin. He intends to spend some ten days or two weeks with his family on his model farm a short distance from that village.

The fine residence of Mr. R. Downs the tobaccoist of Murray, was totally destroyed by fire this morning about 1 o'clock. Nothing was saved from the dwelling. The house was insured.

"Mileage" took a long stroll with Officer Eiter this a. m. and saw more of the Southern portion of the city than ever before. Tob's beat is a monster one and it takes about a week to cover it all.

The two young men who broke into Brown's store in the western portion of Calloway county a few nights ago and robbed it of considerable goods, which they secreted in a stable and when about to be arrested set fire to the stable, were caught and jailed Saturday night in Murray.

Conductor Charlie Scott, "Old Dummy," as the boys dub him, is somewhat of a genius. He not only ranks away up in "G" as a bell-conductor, but has down to a fine point several other professions. Recently he amused himself by taking a chronometer and pieces of cleaning it in first-class order in the morning. In the afternoon he half soled and half-tapped a pair of No. fives for mileage as neatly as any knight of St. Chapin in Paducah could have done. Many thanks, Dummy.

A certain fireman on this division who now soars away up in high "C" as a humidity maker, was about as unsophisticated as they make them when he first caught the railroad fever. He had been serving as a wiper for some time and in an emergency was sent out as a coal heaver on one of the regular runs. At the eating station the engineer gave him the oil can and told him to oil the links and pins, meaning those on the engine of course, while he went to his dinner. Young Tallow Pot said "all right." Taking the can he literally dosed every link and pin in the train from the tank to the caboose with which the cars are coupled together. He used every drop of oil on the engine and borrowed a canful from the caboose brake-men to finish with. When the engine returned to the engine his left bower said "You will have to buy some oil to grease the locomotive. I did not have enough to finish oiling the train." The engineer looked at him and the remark he made had better be guessed at than expressed.
