AIRMAN FLIES OVER ROCKIES

Cromwell Dixon Makes Trip From State Fair Grounds at Helena.

Cromwell Dixon, the youngest aviator in this country, entered by the Aero club only Aug. 31, crossed the continental divide in a Curtiss biplane and achieved a world's record, being the first airman to succeed in soaring over the Rocky mountains.

The feat was made on Dixon's last flight at the Montana state fair. He was presented on his return with a purse of $10,000, given by Louis W. Hill, John Ringling, Lewis Penwell and the state fair association.

Dixon covered a total distance of more than fifty miles in the round trip and was gone from the grounds just 1 hour and 50 minutes. He started at 2 o'clock and landed at Blossburg at 2:34, whence he delivered a letter to Governor Norris. He crossed the Rockies at Mullen pass, the elevation of which is 6,200 feet. To escape treacherous winds he flew at a height of 7,100 feet.

PLAN FOR MONTANA SYNOD

Seventy Presbyterian Churches Will Send Representatives.

The synod of Montana, the organized body of Presbyterian churches of the state, will convene for its annual session at Bozeman, Oct. 5 to 8. There are about seventy Presbyterian churches in the state, many newly organized. Of these probably one-half will be represented by their pastors, and a somewhat smaller number by one or more of the elders. In connection with the meeting of the synod, there will also be a meeting of the women's missionary society of the synod.

Rev. B. Z. McCullough, formerly of Billings, but now of Santa Fe, N. M., is the moderator of the synod, and Rev. George Edwards of Helena, is the stated clerk. The presbytery of Great Falls convenes on Wednesday, Oct. 4.

LIVES WITH BULLET IN BRAIN

Twitching of Child's Eyes Only Sign of Serious Injury.

The little daughter of Oliver Barnes of Jordan was shot through the head recently, according to Dr. Baker, who attended the case and who is in Miles City, and though the bullet passed through the brain, the child is now alive. The only difference the accident has made in her actions that is observable is that she now has an affliction of the optic nerve which makes her eyes twitch.

The girl was shot by her little brother, nine years old, accidentally, while the children were playing.

GERMANY MAY BE MEDIATOR

Effort to End Hostilities Between Italy and Turkey.

CENSORSHIP VERY STRICT

Little News of a Reliable Nature Concerning Recent Happenings Permitted to Leak Through—Repeated Rumors of the Destruction of the Turkish Fleet Denied as Fast as They Appear.

London, Oct. 3.—The outstanding feature of the Turko-Italian war news is the attempted mediation of Germany, the success of which appears more probable in the light of the statement made at the German foreign office that a report that the German ambassador at Constantinople had presented Italian proposals for peace was "premature," indicating that such proposals were expected.

A dispatch from Constantinople says that Fethi Pasha, formerly Turkish minister to Serbia, has been named commander of the troops mobilizing to defend the coast of the Adriatic.

A dispatch from the Island of Corfu, off the Albanian coast, says two Turkish torpedo boats were sunk and a third captured off Gumenitza by the Italian patrolling fleet. A semi-official statement from Athens says that Greece has been notified by Constantinople that the Turkish military movements on the frontier are not directed against Greece.

It is reported from Malta that a British cruiser received a wireless dispatch saying that Tripoli had been occupied by the Italians.

CENSORSHIP VERY STRICT

Little Known of Developments in Turko-Italian War.

London, Oct. 3.—Both the Italian and the Turkish governments are exercising a rigid censorship over all news concerning the war and no absolutely reliable account of the developments of the last twenty-four hours has been obtained from any source.

Rumors are flying thick, but are being officially denied almost as fast as they appear. Several news agencies have telegraphed that the Turkish fleet has been all but wiped out in an engagement near the Dardanelles, but the Ottoman authorities concede the loss of only one vessel, maintaining that the rest of the fleet has reached Constantinople in safety. It is certain, however, that there was an engagement and that the Italian fleet was victorious.

So strict is the censorship at Italian ports that all messages are being held, sometimes for as long as twenty-four hours, although most of them have no connection whatever with the hostilities.

It is certain that Tripoli has been occupied by an Italian detachment, but whether the occupation was resisted or not is not known. A message from Malta says that the British cruiser Aboukir has received a wireless message to the effect that Tripoli is now being held by the Italians.

WAR UPON TURKEY IS DECLARED

Italy Announces Rupture of Peaceful Relations With Ottoman Empire.

ASKS FURTHER DELAY

Porte's Reply to Ultimatum From Rome Not Considered Satisfactory.

Rome, Sept. 30.—Italy has declared war on Turkey. It declared that the two countries were in a state of war beginning at 2:30 on the afternoon of Friday, Sept. 29.

This is the hour at which the Italian ultimatum to Turkey expired and followed a session of the cabinet at which the Turkish reply was considered and found unsatisfactory.

Though every indication pointed to this action by the royal government there was always a possibility that the good offices of other governments would be successful in avoiding hostilities and when the final decision of the cabinet was announced the excitement throughout the city was intense.

Throughout the earlier hours of the day the papers had issued special editions announcing that the Italian fleet was moving in plain sight of the coast of Tripoli and intimating that war might be declared at any moment.

Turkey Suggested Delay.

The minister of foreign affairs, Signor di San Giullano, received the Turkish reply from the Turkish ambassador during the morning and immediately went into conference with his associates in the ministry.

It is understood the Ottoman government completely conceded Italy's economic claims in Tripoli, but evaded a direct answer demanded by this government which had set forth in its ultimatum that Turkey must say that she would not resist the proposed occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene. Instead the porte sent a conciliatory note suggesting further delay.

It was known that at the same time Turkey transmitted a note to the powers in which it is assumed that she represented herself as the injured party and by inference at least, sought their intervention.

The royal government decided to stand absolutely by their ultimatum and in the absence of the reply called for to declare Italy and Turkey in a state of war from the hour that the ultimatum of twenty-four hours expired.
