GAMES YESTERDAY.

Boston, 8; Pittsburg, 4. Cleveland at Washington-Rain. St. Louis at Baltimore-Rain, Cincinnati at Philadelphia-Rain. Louisville at Brooklyu-Rain. Chicago at New York-Rain.

GAMES TODAY.

St. Louis at Washington. Cleveland at Baltimore. Louisville at Boston. Pittsburg at Brooklyn. Cincinnati at New York. Chicago at Philadelphia.

There was no game at National Park yesterday afternoon. The grounds were too wet and the Cleveland Indians had to be satisfied with only two victories. But there was a pleasing event among the Senators, notwithstanding the rain.

The Senators gave Mr. Schmelz a surprise as a token of their good will. Tom Brown was the spokesman, and in wellchosen words he, on behalf of the players, presented their late manager with a handsome diamond-studded Elk emblem as a token of their esteem. It was a fitting close to Mr. Schmelz's connection with the club, and it came to him in the kindest regards.

The recipient was visibly affected, but he accepted the token in his usual good style. Mr. Earl Wagner was present and be also made a few appropriate remarks This afternoon the rejuvenated St. Louis Park. They come from Paltimore, where they played a stand-off series with the Orioles, the third game being prevented Browns, will be young Harley, who played ball in Washington for many years. He will play in center field. Grady, the Yarrigan, late of the Quakers, will be on first, and Hallman, another ex-Quaker. will be on second. Hartman, a new man in this section of the League circuit, will be on third, and Donebue, the chestnut-haired twirler, will probably be on the rubber. The three games with the St Louis team will be very interesting, as the visitors are the last in the race, and the Senators the nearest club to them, and not many points away. The Washingtons are but one game in advance of the Von der Abe aggregation in games won, and the men. The visiting team is in the Senators class, and the battle will be about an equal affair, with the chances in favor of the he team. It will be the first game under the direct management of Treasurer Earl Wagner, and jurt what difference, if any, this fact will make, it will be interesting to note. The men naturally will put forth their best efforts, as they always have done. but it may be that the hoodoo was carried away in the rain, which made yesterday : iserable June day Mr. Wagner will go very slow in the selection of a manager, and if he him-self would direct the general work of the team a better showing might result. Tha he will secure one or two new men pretty well understood, and as his judgare that a few more gingery Tuckers will ar Senatorial togas in the near future Five games were postponed on accoun of rain yesterday. Boston, however, man aged to squeeze in a game, and by its viry over the Pirates crawled closer to the Baltimores. The Beancaters have the Louisvilles today, and the Clevappearancein Baltimore. Thesetwo games will be watched all over the co Sockalexis will hear a unique yell a )ystertown, and will be a great attr tion in the city of pennant winers.
