

DESPERATE NEGRO'S DEED

Kills Three New Orleans Policemen When Brought to Bay.

Two Shooting Affairs Result From Attempting an Arrest—The Murderer Fires With Deadly Aim From Behind a Door—Bitter Race Feeling Aroused in the Crescent City.

NEW ORLEANS, July 24.—Two desperate shooting affairs following each other in rapid succession, in which three policemen, including Capt. John Day, recognized as one of the ablest men on the force, were killed by Robert Charles, a negro, have caused the profoundest sensation known here since the assassination of Chief of Police Hennessy by the Mafia. There is a strong feeling of bitterness, especially since it has been learned that Charles was a regular and has been distributing literature calling on the "crushed and trampled spirit" of the blacks to assert itself. It is this fact that makes the triple murder different from others of the same kind here, and may lead to increasing the already somewhat strained relations between the whites and negroes.

For some time past there have been frequent burglaries committed in this city, supposed to be by negroes. About midnight last night several persons were called attention to two suspicious negroes in Dryades Street, near Washington Street, as possible burglars. Sergeant Ankin, with two policemen, went after the negroes, when the negroes suddenly drew revolvers and opened fire on the officers.

One of the negroes, subsequently identified as Charles, wounded Policeman August Mora fatally. Charles, who was slightly wounded, escaped during the shooting. Another negro Leonard Pierce, was captured, but only after a desperate struggle. Pierce refused at first to betray his friend, but finally told where the captain in the street.

Captain Day, who commands the precinct, started at once for the place with Sergeant Ankin and Policemen Parrier and several men called attention to two suspicious negroes in Dryades Street, near Washington Street, as possible burglars. Sergeant Ankin, with two policemen, went after the negroes, when the negroes suddenly drew revolvers and opened fire on the officers.

Boy Falls Through a Cellar Door. Leopold Syphax, colored, eight years old, fell through a cellar door in front of house 412 O Street northeast, last night, and sustained slight injuries. An ambulance took the boy to the Emergency Hospital. He was not seriously hurt.

Wagon and Car Collide. An electric car of the Metropolitan Railway and a wagon belonging to the Consumers' Brewing Company, the latter driven by William R. Downey, of 1643 Thirty-third Street northwest, came together in a collision at the corner of Ninth and E Streets northwest last night. The shock threw Downey to the street. He sustained injuries about the head and hands, but they are not serious.

Hood's Pills Are used by thousands of the best families and are worthy your confidence. Try them today and you will prefer them to all others. Sold by all druggists, 25 cents.

Big Offering. Some merchants think it is necessary to go to sleep in July. We like to keep our employees bustling, hence we make these big reductions. You won't get such a chance soon again.

White Duck Trainers to Order, $1.88. Fancy Cassimere Trainers to Order, $2.38. Blue Cheviot Suits to Order, $7.88. Fancy Cheviot Suits to Order, $7.88.

MERTZ & MERTZ, 906 and 908 F St.

IN AND AROUND TIENSTIN.

(Continued from First Page.)

There are daily conferences between the commanders concerning an attack on Tientsin, which is likely to take place soon. A Chinese report was received tonight to the effect that Jung Lu, the Chinese generalissimo, was predicting the force of the Chinese, was predicting the force of the Chinese, was predicting the force of the Chinese.

China as a War Power. TIENTSIN, July 24.—(Via Chefoo, July 24, and thence by post to Shanghai, July 24, 1933 p. m.)—A few scattering shells were delivered by the Chinese early this morning, but otherwise there has been no resumption of the fighting. It is high time for the powers to awake to the fact that they are not fighting the Boxers alone, but a China such as the present China, equipped with plenty of modern rifles and powerful guns, and with men able to shoot.

The military situation of the allies does not promise well under present conditions, though there is the greatest harmony among the commanders, and they are on the best terms with one another. Valuable lessons have been learned through the experience of the past, and it is to be expected that the situation will be better than that of the absence of a general headquarters. After the fighting ceases, it will be absolutely necessary to ascertain what has happened, it being necessary to visit eight different headquarters, all widely scattered.

More American Troops. American interests here urgently appeal for more American troops. It is in this belt of China where American trade is the largest, Tientsin is now practically in a state of siege. Food is scarce and prices are out of sight. The banks are shut and no money can be obtained. The merchants are not trying to secure more supplies because those that they have obtained are frequently commandeered by the enemy. The troops have been unable to get supplies.

Admiral Seymour Hit. TIENTSIN, July 24.—(Via Chefoo, July 24, and by post to Shanghai, July 24.)—At daylight this morning 1,600 Japanese, 400 Russians, 700 British, and 100 Americans, with cavalry and artillery, attacked the Chinese who had been placing a battery on the west side of the settlement. The Japanese led in the attack, part of the artillery covering their advance, while the other guns found the Chinese who were occupying the village.

While Admiral Seymour, commander of the British forces, and General Fukushima, the Japanese commander, were standing on a bridge at the West Arsenal watching the effect of the shelling on the native city, the Chinese opened with shrapnel, delivering a remarkably accurate fire. One of the shells exploded on the bridge, hitting Admiral Seymour, wounding him slightly. A captain of infantry was killed and two other officers and twenty men were wounded.

The Russian plan to attack the east side of the native city tomorrow. The Chinese have several 3.2 guns, which cannot be used in the settlement. The men from the British warship Terrible, who saw service in Natal, say that the fighting here is much worse than that in Ladysmith.

The Ninth Regiment of American infantry is expected to arrive here today. TIENTSIN, July 24.—(Via Chefoo, July 24, and by post to Shanghai, July 24.)—The British warship Terrible, which carried a heavy shell, fired three shells against the Chinese, causing a terrific explosion near the railroad fort, which it is believed that the magazines there had been blown up by the 4-inch gun, which were shot through by shrapnel.

Volunteers for China. JACKSON, Miss., July 24.—Col. R. M. Levy has tendered to President McKinley, through Adjutant General Henry, the entire First Regiment, Mississippi National Guard, for service in China. The officers met yesterday and decided unanimously to make the tender. The Battalion Guards, of Meridian, and Captain Light Guards, of Jackson, will volunteer also.

Chaffee at Nagasaki. The General Will at Once Hasten on to Taku. A cablegram was received at the Navy Department yesterday announcing the arrival of the transport Grant at Nagasaki. The vessel carried Major General Chaffee and the Sixth Cavalry, which will start at once for Taku, where General Chaffee will command American operations. The Grant made the voyage in twenty-four days.

Ordered to Taku. Capt. George Montgomery, Ordnance Department, has been relieved from duty as inspector of ordnance at the Detroit and Harvey Machine Works, Baltimore, Md., and will proceed via New York City and Rock Island Arsenal, Illinois, to Taku, China, and report to Major General Chaffee, United States Volunteers, for duty as ordnance officer on his staff.

Ordered to Taku. Lieutenant Wynne Promoted. First Lieut. Robert F. Wynne, Marine Corps, son of Robert P. Wynne, the newspaper correspondent, has been appointed second lieutenant, United States Marines, in the death of Capt. A. R. Davis at Tientsin.

MEN AND WOMEN. Kidney trouble progresses upon the mind, deprives you of your ambition, beauty, sleep, cheerfulness, and peace. The kidney is not of our disease.

CUBAN POSTAL METHODS

Witnesses at the Neely Hearing Charge Laxness.

Safe With the Funds Always Accessible to Those in the Office—The Testimony Taken at Havana Not Yet Received—The Circumstances Incident to the Prisoner's Arrest.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The hearing of the case of Charles F. W. Neely, the head of the financial department of the Cuban postal service, which is being argued before Justice Lacombe as to whether he should be extradited and stand trial in Havana for embezzlement, was continued this morning, with George Marshall, of the finance department in Cuba, on the witness stand. Mr. Marshall was on the witness stand yesterday and described in detail the management of the Cuban postal service. He also testified that the finance department in Cuba, on the witness stand, Mr. Marshall was on the witness stand.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN DISCOVERY FOR THE BLOOD, LIVER, LUNGS.

CUBAN POSTAL METHODS

Witnesses at the Neely Hearing Charge Laxness.

Safe With the Funds Always Accessible to Those in the Office—The Testimony Taken at Havana Not Yet Received—The Circumstances Incident to the Prisoner's Arrest.

NEW YORK, July 24.—The hearing of the case of Charles F. W. Neely, the head of the financial department of the Cuban postal service, which is being argued before Justice Lacombe as to whether he should be extradited and stand trial in Havana for embezzlement, was continued this morning, with George Marshall, of the finance department in Cuba, on the witness stand.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

Major Eugene P. Sudd, Treasurer of the department of Cuba, was next sworn and took the stand. He testified that he had deposited money in the National Trust Company in New York, which was certified by the bank as being in the safe. He also testified that the money was deposited in the safe.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN DISCOVERY FOR THE BLOOD, LIVER, LUNGS.

SPOT WHERE GEBEL FELL

Witnesses Locate the Spot as Being in the Powers Building.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., July 24.—The testimony in the Powers trial today was mainly devoted to locating the exact spot where Gebel fell by witnesses who were either in the single house yard or just outside when he was shot. All who testified that they heard the shots said they sounded as if they came from the Executive Building, and a majority of them located the spot as being in the Secretary of State's office.

Miss Ellen Smith, James Platch, and George Lookhart, of Harboursville, detailed some damaging conversations with John and Cash Powers after the stationing is all in on both sides the Commonwealth will likely ask that the jury be taken to Frankfort to see the journal of Governor Taylor, and one against the Assistant Adjutant General for the muster rolls of all militia companies organized last year and up to January 30 of this year.

DEMOCRATS SELECT ROOMS. Headquarters of National Committee in the Auditorium Annex. CHICAGO, July 24.—Chairman Jones and National Committee Chairman Gahan, of Illinois, held a conference at the Auditorium Annex today at which the place of the National Democratic headquarters was definitely decided upon. The committee will occupy the rooms used by the Republican Committee in 1896 and signed a contract for fourteen apartments on the second, third, and fourth floors of the Auditorium Building. The entrance is from Washburn Avenue. The rooms are well lighted for the purpose, the only drawback being the noise of the elevated trains in Washburn Avenue.

In the selection of headquarters the Republicans and Democrats have exchanged locations. Chairman Jones left this afternoon for Washington to confer with the Democratic Congressional Committee. He said that no definite plans had been made for the headquarters. He will be back in Chicago the latter part of the week, and will make his headquarters in the building of the national headquarters in this city in August. He will be in Chicago the greater part of the time from then until the polls close in November.

DEATH MARS AN OUTING. Explosion on a Steam Launch Attended by Fatal Results. SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 24.—Seven persons were scalded by an explosion at the lock at Onondaga Street at 1 o'clock today. Two have since died and a death of a third is expected at any moment. A pleasure party of eight persons living in Oswego had been making a trip on board the steam launch Trinity, owned by Fred L. Spink, of South Scriba. The party left Oswego on Sunday and a stop was made at Millton. From there the party went to Memphis, remaining until this morning. The boat was on its way to Oswego by way of the Oswego Canal, when shortly before 1 o'clock a big blow out with disastrous results.

"HECHTS' GREATER STORES"

Remnant and odd lot sale Thursday—See Wednesday's papers.

15c for 50c and 75c silks.

This remarkable offering is made to close out a lot of odd pieces of silk, comprising 22-inch extra heavy corded bengaline, Fancy crepe silks, All-silk colored chinas, All-silk figured taffetas—in desirable shades, such as light blue, pink, heliotrope, lavender, navy, turquoise, cardinal, lemon, etc.—some pieces of good length—some containing enough only for dresses and waists. The lot is not large, and it is safe to say will not hold out all day, therefore an early response is necessary to avoid disappointment.

15c a yard while they last.

Plain organdie up to 19c for 48c

—in remnant lengths to be sure—but in desirable lengths and in such shades as light blue, pink, Nile, cadet, navy, cerise, lavender, red, and black.

HECHT & COMPANY,

513-515 Seventh Street.

ON AND AFTER AUGUST 1 I CAN BE found at the well-known establishment of CHARLES E. HODGKIN, the expert in glass. No. 913 Seventh Street northwest. All I will be pleased to do my friends. Any orders entrusted to me will receive my careful and personal attention. Thanking my friends for their former patronage, I beg to remain, Sir, Yours Most Sincerely, J. W. COMPTON.

Chautauqua Hotel, Chautauqua Beach (Bay Ridge), Maryland. Most delightful summer and family resort on Chesapeake Bay. Best bathing, boating, croquet, sailing, large airy rooms, abundance of shade trees, etc.

A WELL LAUNDERED SHIRT. In the pride of all well dressed men. We have all the most modern improvements in the art of laundry work. Our own exclusive method of washing, scouring, ironing, and pressing.

TOLMAN STEAM LAUNDRY. Corner 6th and C N.W. Phone 1557. We are acknowledged the best. Your druggist sells them. Ask for Walter's.

SCHLOER'S TONIC BITTERS, Guaranteed Cure for Dyspepsia. TO ENJOY LIFE TAKE SCHLOER'S BITTERS. SIXTY AND N. W. N.W.

NEWS FROM ALEXANDRIA. ALEXANDRIA, July 24.—The stranger brought up from Accokim marsh and carried to the Infirmary last night was somewhat improved today, but is still in a precarious condition. He is unable to give a connected account of himself, but says he is from the neighborhood of Atlanta, Ga., and that his name is John Thomas. He was last seen in the city on the morning of the 14th.

HOUSE. All the newest and most fashionable in men's shoes. Black, tan, patent leather, etc. $4.00 to $5.50. Regent Shoes. $4.00 to $5.50.

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. Notice is hereby given that in accordance with the acts approved June 23, 1872; June 10, 1873; June 17, 1879; August 11, 1884; July 8, 1898; and June 2, 1899, the following lands, to-wit: Between North Capitol and East Capitol Streets, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth Streets, city of Washington, District of Columbia, June 14, 1899; Between North Capitol and East Capitol Streets, between North Capitol and First Streets northeast, city of Washington, District of Columbia, June 14, 1899; Between North Capitol and First Streets northeast, city of Washington, District of Columbia, June 14, 1899; Between North Capitol and First Streets northeast, city of Washington, District of Columbia, June 14, 1899; Between North Capitol and First Streets northeast, city of Washington, District of Columbia, June 14, 1899.

Table with columns for lot numbers and descriptions. Includes entries like 'Square 1084, lot 1, Mary L. Hughes', 'Square 1084, lot 2, Mary L. Hughes', etc.

Walter's Headache Powders. Ask for Walter's.

SCHLOER'S TONIC BITTERS, Guaranteed Cure for Dyspepsia. TO ENJOY LIFE TAKE SCHLOER'S BITTERS. SIXTY AND N. W. N.W.

NEWS FROM ALEXANDRIA. ALEXANDRIA, July 24.—The stranger brought up from Accokim marsh and carried to the Infirmary last night was somewhat improved today, but is still in a precarious condition. He is unable to give a connected account of himself, but says he is from the neighborhood of Atlanta, Ga., and that his name is John Thomas. He was last seen in the city on the morning of the 14th.

HOUSE. All the newest and most fashionable in men's shoes. Black, tan, patent leather, etc. $4.00 to $5.50. Regent Shoes. $4.00 to $5.50.

UNDER TAKER. J. WILLIAM LEE, Undertaker and Linen. 623 Penn. Ave. N. W., Washington, D. C.