TO COVER A DEFICIENCY.

dr. Tracewell Answers n Question

Concerning District Deposits. Comptroller Tracewell, complying with District, yesterday answered a question relating to section 4 of the act of Feb-ruary 28, 1901, which says "that hereafter the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and direct-ed to deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, out of receipts from fines in the Police Court and receipts from dog licenses, a sufficient amount to meet any deficiency in the policemen's fund or fire-

The Collector of Taxes asked to be directed as to the time when such deposits shall be made, to which Comptroller Tracewell replied that it being a question tentrely of administration he could not render a decision, but would give it as his opinion that since the deposits are contingent upon a deficiency occurring in the policemen's or firemen's fund the proper time to direct the deposit to be made would be after a deficiency has occurred.

Purchase of a Manufacturer's Stock of Finest $5.50

TYE HAVE just purchased at an immense sacrifice a manufacturer's stock of finest Dress Skirts, made of best imported Black Venetian and Broadcloths. They are skirts that have just been made up for spring and summer wear, therefore they are unlined except at the bottom. They are cut in the very latest flare and flounce styles and each skirt is most carefully finished in the best tailored manner. S OME of the styles are tucked all over, others have satin bands and tucking; others are made with rows of silk braid; a few styles have Taffeta bands running up or around in striking effects; still others are made with three rows of Taffeta ruffles. There are many other rich designs we have not space to describe.

Bargains like these come very seldem. You should not let this chance pass to buy such elegant Dress Skirts for $5.50.
