"THE BUSY CORNER."

ALWAYS THE BEST OF EVERYTHING FOR THE LEAST MONEY.

Open Until 9 o'Clock Tonight.

MORE INTERESTING STORE NEWS.

Saturday is usually the longest day in the week at the Busy Corner. Therefore our bulletin of bargains is brought forth with more snap and vitality than some of our offerings which are made during the week. This is done to force more trade and give the twilight shoppers every chance to secure the same values as those who do their trading at day time.

MILLINERY.

The charm of our millinery doesn't only consist in its invariable becomingness, but in its extreme modest price. A few of our trimmed and untrimmed specialties:

- Children's trimmed ready-to-wear hats, in plain straw, with either square or round crown, trimmed with narrow band of ribbon and finished with soft roses on the sides—the kind selling at 75c for 48c.
- Women's trimmed ready-to-wear rough straw in popular shapes, trimmed tastefully with plain or polka dot material, draped jauntily around the crown and finished with buckle, selling everywhere at 75c, for 48c.
- 1 lot of fine hand-made chiffon hats, made of plain tucked chiffon, straw crown, and chiffon brim—all good shapes and in all colors, sold from $1.50 to $2.50, for 98c.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

A Fast Driving Case Continued.

The case of William Alexander, colored, charged with driving a horse belonging to Dennis Hicks, of 209 I Street northwest, faster than the law allows, was continued in the Police Court yesterday until Monday.

Plea of Weak-Mindedness Fails.

Wise Williams, colored, was caught begging Thursday night and yesterday he was in the Police Court charged with vagrancy. A plea was made that he was weak in mind, but Judge Kimball sent him to the workhouse for fifteen days.

Crab Shooter Gets Six Months.

William Fullison indulged in a game of crab in Sixth Street Alley northwest Thursday night, and a policeman caught him. He did not deny the charge in the Police Court yesterday, and was fined $20. He will spend sixty days in the workhouse.

A Bad Supper Induces Profanity.

The supper prepared for William Wallace by his wife on Monday evening did not suit him, and he fell into swearing. He was in the Police Court yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. Wallace lived at 644 Tenth Street northeast. Neighbors heard his profanity and testified to it, and he was fined $5, which he paid.

Noisy Youth Gets a 30-Day Rest.

William Ford, a young man, while under the influence of liquor Thursday night was very noisy in the vicinity of the Emergency Hospital and yesterday a policeman had him in court on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was fined $10, and in default will spend thirty days in the workhouse.

Hunting Trouble, She Found It.

Mary Williams started out Thursday night to buy some whisky. She got into a row with another colored woman on O Street northwest, and fell into the clutches of the police. Yesterday she was in court charged with disorderly conduct. She was fined $5, and in default will spend fifteen days in the workhouse.

Alleged Vagrant Pays a $40 Fine.

Harry Edmondson, a neatly dressed white man about twenty-four years old, was in the Police Court yesterday, charged with vagrancy. Two policemen swore that he was a constant loiterer around the Division, where there was a colored woman of bad repute with whom he was engaged. He was fined $40 and paid. Edmondson said he formerly ran a lunchroom on E Street northwest.

Religious Enthusiasts Released.

Mary Cobby and Carrie Goodrich were in the Police Court yesterday, charged with causing a disorderly assembly. They are of a religious turn, and said they were in the neighborhood of Fourth and N Streets northwest, was a field in which they might work with benefit. They held an outdoor meeting on Thursday night, and a couple of police accused them of blocking the street and sidewalk. Judge Kimball sent them to the workhouse.
