

American Fork Locals and Personals

Misses Ida and Manda Chipman were Salt Lake City visitors Sunday.

The heavy rains last week should make the dry farmers happy.

There will be considerable building in American Fork and vicinity again next summer.

When you are down in the mouth, just think of Jonah. He came out all right.

The ice men are becoming anxious about the ice crop. They are anxious for cold weather.

Mr. Joseph Robinson of Salt Lake City, formerly of this city, spent the week here visiting his son, W. H. Robinson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Storrs and son, Lane, of Provo, and Mrs. Beulah Storrs-Lewis of Salt Lake City, spent Sunday here visiting relatives.

Mr. Bert Chadwick, who is employed at Salt Lake City, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chadwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kelly are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Saturday. Mother and baby doing nicely.

Mr. Wm. F. Bromley of Eureka, formerly of this city, who has been very ill for sometime due to ptomaine poisoning, is improving.

Bert Miller goes to Salt Lake every Tuesday to take lessons from Prof. Beasley, one of the best drummers in the state.

Attorney Geo. P. Parker of Provo was in town on business Wednesday.

Miss Ora Lynch will leave for Ogden Sunday, for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Karren spent Sunday visiting relatives at Lehi.

Angus Cunningham went to Salt Lake Thursday where he will be employed.

Mrs. Rosa Bromley returned home Tuesday after spending the past two weeks at Eureka, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bromley.

No doubt the general public have noticed that the San Pedro trains have been on time the past month, both coming and going. Cause—engineers have been furnished new engines.

Miss Anna M. Bihler, who is teaching school at Salt Lake, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Gardner.

Miss Jessie Green, who is attending school at the B. Y. U. at Provo, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Green.

Mr. James C. Healey of Alpine spent Tuesday in American Fork and while here made a pleasant call at the Alpine Publishing Company's Office.

If you are not a subscriber to this paper, now would be a good time to jump into the vehicle. Call this week and join the army of readers. You'll like it.

W. W. Southworth made a business trip to Provo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Greenwood were at Provo on court business Tuesday.

Mrs. John F. Miller is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Young were Salt Lake visitors Sunday.

Miss Vida Lynch will spend Sunday with friends at Salt Lake.

Miss Ferl Pulley will spend Sunday and Monday with friends at Eureka.

Miss Lila Whipple of Lehi spent the week here visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Wagstaff.

Miss Mary Peterson of Mt. Pleasant spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting, the guest of Mrs. T. S. Friday.

If you have anything to sell a little ad in the want column brings results. See page 2.

Misses Ethel Crompton and Sylvia Crompton were at Provo Tuesday visiting relatives.

Mr. Albert Chipman, after spending three months at the sheep herd, returned home Wednesday.

Miss Louie Ambrose left Thursday for Salt Lake, where she will take a three years nursing course at the St. Mark's hospital.

Mrs. Martha Brown of Provo, was here the latter part of the week, to attend the old folk's party and visit relatives.

Samuel Newton was before Judge Nielson Wednesday on the old offense of intoxication. He was given the usual sentence of $12 or twelve days.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Robinson were Salt Lake visitors Wednesday.

Mr. Joseph Walton will entertain the Comus Club this evening.

Mrs. T. S. Maughn is home after spending the past month visiting at Logan.

Miss Emma Greenwood spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends at Salt Lake City.

Miss Myrtle Boley has accepted the position as cashier in the American Fork Co-op.

Mr. Joseph J. Jackson of Salt Lake City, formerly of this city, spent Wednesday here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Robinson and other relatives.

Mrs. J. E. Jensen of Provo spent a few days here visiting her sister, Mrs. Sara Crookston.

Clarence Chase is home again after spending the past two years at Arco and other Idaho towns.

Miss Cosette Startup of Provo is spending a few days here visiting, the guest of Mrs. P. T. Henry.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Broadbent of Heber City spent Sunday here, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Henroid.

Mr. L. W. Edgheill of Salt Lake was here this week visiting with the wool growers of this city.

Miss Hannah Steele of Idaho Falls, Idaho, is here visiting, the guest of Mrs. William Barratt.

First Class Dressmaking—Miss Freda Babbie will do sewing at home or go out by the day. For any reference inquire of Mrs. John W. Chipman.

Quarterly conference will be held today and Sunday at Lehi, and a large attendance is desired.

Miss Edith Hindley spent the week end at Ogden. She went to attend the Wingoff party and was the guest of Mrs. Hazel Peery.

Mrs. Hannah Dunkley and daughter Cady of Provo, formerly of this city, spent the week here visiting relatives and friends.

William A. Firmage of Ogden spent Thursday here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Firmage. He left Friday for Malad, Idaho, to take charge of the Golden Rule store.

A woman who reads the ads with the same eager interest she has in a good story of fiction, or in a dramatic review, or a news story of peculiar human interest, is not likely to make many "blunders" in her buying!

Messrs. J. J. Rooney and A. H. Mutchow of the Western Electrical company, who have been here for three weeks installing a new switchboard in our local telephone office, were called to Eureka Thursday on account of a cave-in at the telephone office there.

Choice Cut Flowers

Ferns and Floral Designs. Send to the Lehi Floral Co., Lehi, Telephone 20-J. We deliver PROMPTLY 1YR.

NOW READY

The "Aspect of the Liquor Question," by Judge Adolph Nielsen, are now finished and are carried by local dealers as well as by the author. They are concise, convincing and bristling with facts. 1YR.

ORIENT THEATRE

AMERICAN FORK CLIFTON PEIRCE, Manager.

A Picture Show of Quality.

Monday Night, January 26.

Daniel Frohman presents Mrs. Fluke, America's most distinguished artiste, in her foremost success, Thomas Hardy's Sublime Drama, "TESS OF THE D'URBERVILLES"

A soulful portrayal of a woman's sorrows in motion pictures

NOTE—The management of the Orient Theatre, under heavy expense, has undertaken to run this wonderful Famous Players five-part feature, which but a few weeks back packed the American Theatre, Salt Lake City, to its capacity for three nights. Can you afford to miss what the greatest moving picture critics of the world pronounce the height of photoplay?

Tuesday Night, January 27.

"THE LAW AND THE OUTLAW"

A romance of plains life in the west. In two thrilling reels. Presenting Tom Mix, the world's most daring cowboy, in an incidental series of sensational death-defying "stunts."

P. S.—Take a tip from the management. If you saw the "Cowboy Millionaire" and liked it, this you will say is better.

OTHER BIG FEATURES IN RAPID SUCCESSION.

Wednesday Night, January 28.

"HOME, SWEET HOME"—Parts I and II.

A beautiful story of true loving hearts, full of pathos, but not a touch of sadness.

Thursday Night, January 29.

"THE BURNING RIVET"—Parts I and II.

A municipal scheme beautifully spoiled ends in happiness.

Friday Night, January 30.

"SHIP WRECKED"

The most thrilling drama of the sea ever presented. A party of voyagers, saved from perils of the deep, experience many dangers on a desert island.

OPERA HOUSE

AMERICAN FORK, UTAH.

L. S. HARRINGTON, Mgr.

THE HOUSE WHERE YOU GET YOUR FULL MONEY'S WORTH

Our programme for next week is exceptionally strong, as will be seen in the following:

MONDAY and TUESDAY, JAN. 26 and 27.

"The Love Lute of Romany"

Parts 1 and 2

"Tommy's Conspiracy."

"Tommy's Stratagem."

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, JAN. 28 and 29.

"The Death Weight"

Parts 1 and 2

"Melita's Sacrifice."

"That Suit at Ten."

"Performing Lions."

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, JAN. 30 and 31.

"PHANTOMS."

Parts 1 and 2

"Where's the Baby."

"In the Hands of the Black Hand."

"A Daughter of the Wilderness."

Our picture programmes continue to draw the crowds, for the reason we show only the very best pictures obtainable. Our pictures are not overdrawn with advertising in order to make some inferior picture appear strong. But all are the very best.

APOLLO HALL

AMERICAN FORK

MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 26TH

ODEON ORCHESTRA

THIS ORCHESTRA NEEDS NO INTRODUCTION TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS STATE, AS MOST ALL ARE IMPRESSED WITH THE SWEET MUSIC THAT FILLS THE BALL ROOM TO THE DELIGHT OF ALL, BOTH OLD AND YOUNG.

TICKETS 50 CENTS

EXTRA LADY AND GALLERY 15 CENTS

RENO VANCE, Manager

The hoodoo year of 1913 being numbered with the past, there will not be another friek year until 1923, skidoo number.

Clarence Greenwood and Aaron Greenwood will leave this evening for Logan, where they will attend the A. C. the balance of the winter.

It is freely predicted by some students of politics that Roosevelt will be the republican nominee for president in 1916. He would be a bitter pill for some of the hard shell republicans to swallow.

Word was received here this week that Miss Ethel Millar, who is taking a business course at the Utah Business College at Salt Lake, is taking part in the drama, "Home Ties." The same play was presented here by members of the Third Ward about one year ago. They have played at several wards in Salt Lake County to large audiences and expect to play at East Mill Creek this week, the proceeds will go for the benefit of a family stricken with typhoid fever, six of a family of eight are ill with this fever.

Misses Mae Walker, Sadie Chipman, Millie Thornton, Messrs H. H. Hurt, F. R. Newell and J. J. Rooney attended the banquet and ball given by the district telephone manager at Provo Saturday evening.

Mrs. Melissa Boley entertained the officers and teachers of the First Ward Primary Association at her home Monday evening, providing an excellent time for the guests. After an evening of social chat and parlor games, choice refreshments were served.

Mr. George Conder was given a pleasant surprise party by about fifty of his friends and neighbors at his home Friday evening. A most enjoyable time was had in playing games, music and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Architect Jas. H. Pulley is now preparing the plans for the seating of the stake tabernacle. He also informs us, that with the exception of a few minor parts and the plastering of the big arch, work on the interior of the tabernacle will be completed this week.

Mrs. Ed Robinson returned home on Tuesday after spending a few weeks at Eureka.

Mrs. William Gebhardt of Blingham was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Pierce the fore part of the week.

J. A. P. Jensen, William Chipman and Thomas Broadbent were at Salt Lake on business Wednesday and Thursday.

Provo, Jan. 16.—The Provo high school basketball team defeated the American Fork athletes here tonight by the score of 47 to 31 in one of the fastest games ever played in this city. The league is now tied up between Pleasant Grove, American Fork, Lehi and Provo, with the Heber boys in the cellar position.

Postmaster and Mrs. L. S. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Friday, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kirkman, Mrs. James Chipman, Jr., Mrs. William Chipman, Mr. Heber Robinson, Mr. W. S. Robinson, Mr. T. F. Trane went to Provo Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Roger Farrer, who died there Saturday of general debility.

YES, OF COURSE WE GUARANTEE THEM

It Matters Not, Whether you Have $15 or $35 to Spend on Your Next Suit, WE PLEDGE OURSELVES TO GIVE YOU for your money.

BEST VALUE

We transact our business with the biggest house in America and we know POSITIVELY that PRICE for PRICE we give the finest Fabrics, the finest Tailoring and the finest Service in town for $15---$18---$20. We offer a wide selection of fine

HIGH GRADE ALL WOOL FABRICS—Made to measure and GUARANTEED by THE INTERNATIONAL TAYLORS AND SOLD BY

AMERICAN FORK CO-OP. INSTITUTION "The People's Store"