During election Tuesday everything was very quiet on the streets—people were going about their business as usual—and a stranger would not have known that a great battle of the ballots was on, if he hadn't have been told. Quiet work is what counts.

Miss Hazel, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter, was hurried to a Salt Lake City hospital on Monday, accompanied by her father and mother. An operation for appendicitis was performed the same evening. Latest reports show that the operation was successful and the patient is getting along very nicely.

Patrons—There's as much difference in motion pictures today as in silk and cotton. If we advance our admission price 5 cents, rest assured that the offering is far above the average program and costing us an exorbitant sum of money to secure it. Kindly remember. Other cities are compelled to do the same. FOR REFERENCE, Broadway Theatre Salt Lake City, Princess Theatre Provo. 7-1t

SMALL POX CASE

Delbert, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Adamson is seriously ill with a bad case of small pox, and fear is expressed over his recovery. The family, who live on the bottoms near the Pleasant Grove line, have had the disease for over a month, during which time both parents have been stricken.

UNFORTUNATE MAN TAKEN IN CHARGE

Samuel Newton, who has been showing signs of falling mentality for some time, was taken in charge by City Marshal Bromley Wednesday afternoon. His peculiar actions in his blacksmith shop, observed by those living in close proximity, caused his neighbors to take the precautionary action for fear that Mr. Newton might cause himself and others harm. It is probable that with a little rest the unfortunate man will soon become normal again.

MOTHERS ATTENTION

Ladies wishing to buy house dresses, children's school aprons, outing flannel night gowns, dust caps, kitchen aprons, dainty white aprons, etc., will do well to give their orders to one of the following committee in charge of sewing—by doing so you will help yourself and at the same time assist in paying the obligations on the Tabernacle.

Mrs. Rosa Edmonds, First Ward.
Mrs. Sina Chipman, Second Ward.
Mrs. Nellie Bromley, Third Ward.
Mrs. Emma Ashton, Fourth Ward.
