More Miners' Bodies Recovered.

WILKESBORO, W. Va., January 24.—The Intelligencer Newbury special says: Since yesterday eleven more bodies have been taken from the mine, and were identified as follows: Adolph West, John Lambert, John Kenworthy, Charles Tunley, Clinton Albright, Henry Gay, Richard Bentley and Nicholas Bentley. The bodies were found in various positions, some with the arms extended, as if about to pursue their usual work, others with arms and limbs contracted, as if in awful agony.

ALL WERE TERRIBLY BURNED AND BLACKENED. And their distorted features told their terrible sufferings. It is thought all the bodies will be recovered by to-morrow evening.

CINCINNATI, January 24.—A morning paper to-day prints a singular story in the form of an interview with one Hiram Jackson, who represents himself as traveling for a New York grocery house. He says, in the course of a rambling talk, that he was in Wilkesbarre a week ago to-day, and that while he was at the air compressor of the Nanticoke mine, where a number of miners have been imprisoned for over a month,

HE NOTICED A SICKENING ODOR, Which he declared to arise from human bodies. Calling to mind that a peculiar rapping had been heard on this pipe by the rescuing party, he persuaded the engineer to draw air from the pipe, and the compressor was put to its fullest test. A bunch of sheets was thrown out, and they were found to be blank receipts for coal digging, on the back of which was a note signed by William Garver. It says that: "We have been in this place, as well as can be calculated, seventeen days."

TEN ARE DEAD AND ALL OF US DYING. We have been living on the carcass of a mule." It is said the imprisoned men fear the death of one Jackson, in telling the story, exhibited the blanks with Garver's note. Upon his being asked why this was not divulged at Wilkesbarre, he says that he was alone with the engineer who drew the letters out, and that he was afraid to say anything, because he was afraid the shock would kill the women who are interested in the unfortunate men.

That investigation of Senator Payne.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, January 24.—The following will be mailed to-morrow:

COLUMBUS, Ohio, January 24.—The following will be mailed to-morrow:

Hon. H. R. Payne, U. S. Senate, Washington, D. C.—Sir: I acknowledge the receipt of your favor of the 23rd instant, wherein you notify me that a special committee of the Ohio House of Representatives has been appointed to investigate the conduct of the Democratic caucus which, in January, 1884, nominated a candidate for the United States Senate.

I am glad to hear that you propose to give the investigation appropriate attention.

In reply, I have to say that the resolution to which you refer recites the fact that the allegations of bribery, published on the authority of S. K. Donavin, are of so grave and positive a character as to call for immediate action, in order to vindicate the reputation of members of the present General Assembly. It directs the special committee to inquire into all the facts of the alleged bribery, and to report the conclusions thereon to the House. If, in the prosecution of the inquiry, any testimony tending to incriminate you in any degree with a questionable transaction, you are desired to assume that your request to appear before the committee in such an event will be most freely and cordially acceded to.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) THOS. A. COWELL, Chairman.

China's Emperor to Marry Yum Yam.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 24.—Hong Kong advices say: A native paper prints a rumor that the Emperor of China, who is only in his tenth year, intends to form a matrimonial alliance and take the government in his own hands.

The reported outbreak in Seoul, Corea, December 14th, seems to have no foundation in fact. Early in December the Japanese government directed about thirty men, who were suspected of being engaged in a plot against the existing Korean government. This came to the ears of the Chinese Legation at Tokio, in the shape of a rumor that a number of desperadoes had embarked for Seoul. This was telegraphed to Tientsin, and in turn to the Chinese representative at Seoul.

The latter, on investigating the matter, became informed of a rumor that eighty soldiers, disguised as tradesmen, were then in Seoul awaiting an opportunity to attack the palace, and ward the rumor as a fact to the Chinese Legation at Tokio. The last telegram was communicated to the Japanese Foreign Office, which soon dispatched the rumor. The whole matter was investigated and shown to be perfectly without an iota of truth.

England's Threat to Greece.

ATHENS, January 24.—Sir Horace Rumbold, British Minister, has informed Premier De Lyonnais to-day that England was prepared to send a fleet to prevent Greece from attacking Turkey by sea. Premier De Lyonnais replied that Greece would not disarm. The Greek fleet sailed to-day with sealed orders.

ATHENS, January 24.—A demonstration was held to-day to protest against the attitude of England. The Ministry met yesterday and to-day to consider Lord Salisbury's note, which mentioned the course taken by England having been consented to by the Powers, especially by Germany.

Premier De Lyonnais has had several interviews with the King on the subject.

The newspapers unanimously condemn the unjustness of Lord Salisbury.

The reserves abroad are responding with alacrity to the summons to return to duty.

Smallpox in San Antonio, Texas.

GALVESTON, January 24.—A San Antonio special to the News says: Although the sanitary authorities declare that smallpox is not epidemic, there are about thirty cases in various portions of the city. The disease is confined chiefly to the Mexican population. This evening a quack, calling himself the "Diamond King," who has been selling various nostrums, was stricken down with the disease. His tent, containing twenty-eight persons, has been quarantined, and a vigilant watch will be placed to prevent people from approaching it.

Island of Jersey Failures.

LONDON, January 24.—The firms of C. Robin Coy, P. Robin Coy, and Dubasme, Gossett, Nicoll & Coy, of the Island of Jersey, have suspended. Their total liabilities amount to $300,000. Their assets consist chiefly of fishing vessels and factories in British America, which the Canadian fishermen threaten to pillage. The Ottawa government has asked the English government by cable to send troops to protect the property.

Called Him Back Again.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 24.—Calvin Pratt, who fraudulently obtained over $120,000 by means of forgeries on the Pacific Bank of this city and fled to Japan, was returned here in charge of Detective Coffey on the steamer "City of New York," which arrived to-day.

The disreputable Yokohama advices: Calvin Pratt, the Pacific Bank forger, in his final examination before the Japanese Procurator at Yokohama, before being given into the custody of the American officer who came for him, persisted to the last that his name was Philip Chetwynd, and denied all knowledge of the crime of which he was accused. His baggage was opened in the presence of the Procurator. It consisted principally of books, in which his assumed name, Philip Chetwynd, was written, but documentary evidence was also found which placed his identity beyond question. No money was recovered.

Pratt, in conversation at the city prison this evening, where he is now confined, tacitly admitted that he was really Pratt, when addressed by it, he did not contradict his interrogator.

Senate and House Business.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—The unfinished business of the Senate is the Electoral Count bill. A wide difference of opinion exists among the Senators in respect to the important features of this measure as developed when it was last under discussion, and some of them have expressed the wish that final action be delayed for a time. No definite arrangement has been made on this subject, but it is not improbable that the bill will be temporarily laid aside after the adjournment of the Senate, which will be done, the Senate will be able to take up the Dakota bill or the Bankruptcy bill as the next subject for consideration.

Senator Blair has given notice of his intention to call up the Education bill the first opportunity, but none is likely to occur during this week.

The bill to provide the Sioux Indian reservation has the first right of consideration in the morning hour under the five-minute rule, and will probably be disposed of to-morrow. On Tuesday

MEMORIALS WILL TAKE PLACE ON VICE-PRESIDENT

IN THE HOUSE TO-MORROW, after the call of States for the introduction of bills is completed, the committees will be given an opportunity to report any measures prepared by them during the week.

The most important bills now in condition to be reported are those extending the circulation of national banks, amending the shipping laws, and extending the limitation of the Arrears Pension act. It is doubtful whether any of these will be reported in season to secure action in the morning hours during the week.

The bill to take up for action under the morning hour by the committees this week are those forfeiting sundry unearned land grants to railroads in California, and those providing for the voluntary retirement of naval officers.

The Watson bill to increase widows' pensions remains unfinished business for the House after morning hours of Tuesday.

Indications are that its discussion is nearly exhausted, and that a vote will be reached early in the week.

John Doherty, a hired man, brought three lunatics down the fire escape in his arms, thus saving their lives. An imbecile boy, 19 years of age, was found in bed, and was rescued by means of a fire escape. There were only two men besides the inmates about the house when the fire broke out, and they rescued the inmates before other help arrived.

William Mills, one of the inmates, was the man who first issued the Sanders Spelling Book. At one time he was worth a quarter of a million dollars.

Crucial Murder by a Negro.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., January 24.—A special to the Journal from Henderson, Ky., says a crucial murder was committed here yesterday morning, three miles below that place. Calvin Simpson, a Union county negro, had just been released from the penitentiary, named Mrs. Graves. She and two daughters fled from the house, followed by Simpson. The old lady was overtaken and killed with a club. The girls escaped unhurt to a neighbor's house. Simpson then went to Miles Brown's house, a near neighbor, drove him out and took possession. He then fortified himself in the house, and was guarded by the Henderson officers arrived, who battered down the door and arrested Simpson, who was taken to that place and jailed. He feigned insanity and is quite violent. There is talk of lynching, but all is quiet to-night.

Ohio's Divided Legislature.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, January 25.—The Republican caucus convened at 10 a. m., with the members present, and the Democrats absent, as well as Clerk Vallandigham. President Kennedy directed the reading of the Journal of Saturday, after which nothing was done for want of a quorum. The President retained the chair, waiting for the arrival of the Democratic members. It is expected that this will be the last program till 4 p. m., the hour to which the Democratic Senate adjourned on Friday. A good-sized lobby is present, but everything is quiet and the best feeling prevails.

In Oregon, Too.

PORTLAND, Or., January 25.—Snowdrifts on the O. R. & N. line between The Dalles and Multnomah Falls are much heavier than at first supposed, as earth, trees and rocks are brought down with the snow. The plows cannot break through it, and it must be removed with picks and shovels. It is reasonably certain that the track will not be cleared for three days.

Death of Representative Hankins.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Representative Joseph Hankins, of Marquette, Wis., died in this city this afternoon, of Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was elected to the Forty-eighth Congress, and re-elected to the Forty-ninth. He has been ill for over a year. His remains will be taken to Manitowish for burial on Tuesday morning. The Speaker of the House will appoint a committee of Representatives to accompany them.

Clearing House Report.

BOZON, January 24.—Special dispatches to the Post from managers of the leading clearing houses in the United States show a gross bank exchange for the week of $295,219,672, the same being an increase of $1.7 per cent. over the corresponding week of last year.

Wales Out Visiting.

LONDON, January 24.—The excitement in Chester in connection with the Prince of Wales' visit to the Duke of Westminster has subsided. The Prince and party paid a short official visit to Chester to-day. Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone are also guests at Eaton Hall.

The Texas & Pacific Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, January 24.—Governor Brown, receiver of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, in

And if Anybody Gets Whipped Greece Asserts It Will Be Turkey.

Greece Means to Fight.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—Consolos were three-sixteenths lower owing to the war-like position taken by Greece. The Greek Minister in an interview to-day said: "The Greek King's government and people will fight to the bitter end before they will allow Greece to absorb 100,000 people belonging to the Greek race, which are still certain to do if the union of Bulgaria and Eastern Rometia is recognized. Greece is fully entitled to the whole of Epirus. England is interfering with the rights and liberties of Greece. I am confident that the Greeks can whip the Turks at sea. As to land defenses some further work must be done. The Macedonia and Thessaly will be in danger through cutting off the land communication of the Turks and their attacks on seaports."

London, January 24.—Turkey is making the greatest naval preparations, fearing action by Greece.

Athens, January 24.—The army will soon be ordered to march to the frontier.

London, January 24.—The Greek government in reply to a note of the Marquis of Salisbury, says the representatives of England infringe on international and diplomatic observances, and declares that Greece reserves perfect freedom of action. The answer further says

GREECE HAS NOT DECLARED WAR, Nor has she given cause for England to interfere regarding her attitude. Bulgaria having violated the rights of Greece, under the aegis of England, Greece is justified in using every means in her power, and even to resort to arms, if necessary, to obtain the shipping laws, and extending the limitation of the Arrears Pension act. It is doubtful whether any of these will be reported in season to secure action in the morning hours during the week.

PREPARED TO TAKE THE FIELD At the earliest moment, and fight to the bitter end in support of her rights. She is confident of success.

The first movement of Turkish troops against Greece will be the signal for a revolt in Greece, and Europe will not look placidly on.

London, January 25.—In the Commons this afternoon, Burke, political secretary to Foreign Affairs, in answer to inquiries regarding the recent warlike news from Greece, said that at the instance of England, the six great Powers had notified Greece yesterday that a naval attack by Greece upon Turkey would not be permitted.

Shocking Fate of Insane Paupers.

JACKSON, Michigan, January 24.—The county poor house was almost entirely destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning. There were forty inmates, and all escaped but five, who perished in the flames. The remains of the victims were brought to this city to-day. The dead are as follows: Dolly Martin, aged 60, insane, an inmate for twelve years; Kate Avery, aged 70, insane, inmate for ten years; Jane Atkins, aged 70, insane, inmate for ten years; Zena Boynton, aged 62, deaf, and Charles Elliott, aged 72, blind.

The building is situated in a lonely spot about four miles from the city. It was recently built at a cost of $12,000. The fire broke out at 12:30 a. m., and in five minutes the kitchen, and the whole interior was destroyed. The thermometer at the time registered ten degrees below zero. All the inmates had their clothing, including the snow in a naked condition. Thirty of the papers were brought to the city and housed. Some of these will die from the effects of the exposure they were subjected to.

John Doherty, a hired man, brought three lunatics down the fire escape in his arms, thus saving their lives. An imbecile boy, 19 years of age, was found in bed, and was rescued by means of a fire escape. There were only two men besides the inmates about the house when the fire broke out, and they rescued the inmates before other help arrived.

The Texas & Pacific Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, January 24.—Governor Brown, receiver of the Texas & Pacific Railroad, in speaking of that road yesterday, said the work of improving the condition of the line will be prosecuted as vigorously as possible, and that all surplus earnings will be spent in that direction. The receiver has already purchased 1,000 tons of steel rails, and expects to be able to purchase at the rate of 1,000 tons per month. An order for 300,000 ties has also been given. The earnings of the road are holding up well, and the outlook for increased business is very encouraging. The country which the Texas & Pacific runs through is improving, and Governor Brown predicts that El Paso must become a second Denver.

Italy Short on the Budget.

LONDON, January 24.—Signor Magliani, Italian Minister of Finance, has announced in the Italian Chamber of Deputies that there is a deficit in the budget of 50,000,000 francs. The deficit is attributed to cholera and the expenses attending the expedition to Massowah. He stated that there would be a reduction in the land tax and an increase in the duties on sugar, coffee and spirits, which he assured the Chamber would establish an equilibrium.

Inquiring About the Carson Mint.

WASHINGTON, January 24.—Representative Woodburn, of Nevada, will to-morrow introduce a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury to report to the House his reasons and his authority for closing the mint at Carson, Nevada.

Went to the New Jerusalem.

KANSAS CITY, January 24.—Rev. Joseph G. Wilson, of the Fort Madison Plain Dealer, Consul at Jerusalem from 1877 to 1883, died here this evening of Syrian fever. He was born March 19th, 1812.

The Red River Delta Pacified.

HAIPHONG, January 24.—Advices from Haiphong say that the whole of the Red River delta is completely pacified. General De Courcy has left Haiphong for Hong Kong, en route for France.

Parnell's Instructions.

LONDON, January 24.—Parnell has instructed the Nationalist electors of Armagh to vote for the Liberal candidate in the coming Parliamentary election in that division.

A California Town Inundated.

FERRIS, Cal., January 25.—Incessant rains the past week have caused the streams to overflow, and half the town is inundated. The damage is already estimated at $20,000.

Not So Much from Germany.

BERLIN, January 24.—The value of exports to America during 1885 was $1,250,000 less than the value of the exports in 1884.

An Eminent Actor Dead.

LONDON, January 24.—The death is announced of Jean Baptiste Prosper Bressant, the distinguished French actor.

The Czar and Alexander.

SOVA, January 24.—A messenger has arrived here with a courteous letter from the Czar to Prince Alexander.

Poor Mike Reagan.

About 5 o'clock, says the Hayden Times of Friday, the relief party arrived with the remains of the late Michael Reagan, and some thirty of his former comrades. They left Bullion at 7 o'clock this morning with the corpse in a box mounted on runners. At first a team was hitched on, but the horses having become quite unable to make any progress through the snow, it was unhitched and twenty men took hold of the ropes, while about forty followed behind. When the men at the ropes would tire out, they would fall behind, and fresh ones would take their places. In this way they reached Gilman—only about two miles from Bullion—after 2 o'clock this afternoon. There they were met by Hank Lukinius, Morrill's and Braze's teams, and about thirty returned to Bullion, the remainder coming on to Hailey. The deceased's remains will be held at Schwamb's undertaking rooms until his relatives are heard from. He was about 50 years of age.

The Jones-Treseder Bribery.

At a little after 3 o'clock this afternoon Nathaniel V. Jones fled into the Commissioner's Court in company with Le Grande Young, his attorney. Jones surveyed the room hastily, as if expecting to find some trusty friend present, but, alas, Treseder was not there. A preliminary examination had been arranged for and a host of witnesses
