LOCAL JOBS.

The contract for the plumbing and gas-fitting of Callen's new hotel has been let to Mr. J. J. Farrell, and he expects to have the work all done at an early date.

Mr. F. L. Munn, the photographic artist, has a beautiful painting on exhibition in Amerasia's window.

The efficiency of the choir of St. Mark's Cathedral is shown in the recent rendition of "Evening." The devout responses of the church liturgy are chanted in the solemn Gregorian tone.

Urbah, Rushton, a short time since, was preaching in the Sixth Ward meeting house. During his remarks he shouted out to the young people: "Live your religion. You young men, marry up these young sisters of Israel."

Mr. B. S. Fitch, of New York, President of the Utah Midland Railway Company, is spending a few days at the Walker House.

Sam Hannell, whose face was so familiar about the Salt Lake Theatre in years gone by, has returned to the city after an absence of three years in Texas.

Mr. George R. Caldwell, formerly of the Laraine Homeing, arrived in this city last evening, having come here to accept the associate editorship of The Democrat.

THE THREATEN TO CLEAN OUT HARVEY HARVEY'S HOME.

The hoodlums are still on the rampage, and night before last at about 4 o'clock another party of this distinguished element of Salt Lake visited the residence of Mr. Harvey Harve.

THE HOODLUMS. They threaten to clean out Harvey Harvey's home.
