

A JOLLY SURPRISE.

Miss Ada Barrett Taken by Storm on Friday Evening.

On Friday night there was a gathering of Ogden's brave sons and the city's fair daughters at the hospitable residence of Percival J. Barratt on the bench, for the purpose of greeting our fellow citizen's daughter, Miss Ada, with a surprise which they successfully did. It is rarely on any such an assemblage of juvenile beauty, health and happiness as was presented, of Utah's future magnates—and judging by the way the young ladies attracted their squire's admiration—already the lode stone's virtue asserts its power. The party consisted of some of the young lady's friends and school fellows who determined to try her an unannounced visit and spend an evening with her. Aided by loving traitors in the camp she was carried by storm and surrendered the remainder of the night to the giddy waltz and the merry music.

General Notes.

Mr. John A. Jast is making great preparations for innocent summer recreations for young and old at his place on Second street, above Main. Thus he has completed a pleasure boat on his pool.

The idea of opening a new thoroughfare through the middle of the central business block, that block bounded by Young, Fifth, Main and Sixth, is a good one, as it is too large for commercial convenience. But considering that the property on Main street alone could not be obtained for less than $20,000, it renders the probability of that roadway, like unto the leading to the good place beyond, extremely difficult.

After some squalls and clouds the weather is again delightfully spring like, although the nights are still cool.

Important business will be done in the City Council next Friday, and the City Fathers can (and we hope will) demonstrate their desire to promote the material welfare of Ogden in a substantial manner.

Giesy & Spargo have all the magazines and weeklies of the season.

There seems to be a fatality attached to restaurants in this city. Somehow or other they are all short-lived, or at least never long under the same management.

What with the occasional sessions of court, the numerous transients and travelers, this sounds strange, the more so as several of these gastronomic establishments (such as the Brunswick, which recently passed into the possession of Mr. E. W. Ekman) have striven diligently to give the best satisfaction. But think of the many shipwrecks of the "Gem," the "Home" and others to numerous to mention. There is only one (Morley's) that has weathered it for a long series of years.

Considerable excitement was occasioned on Monday and Tuesday last Saturday afternoon by a team belonging to a furniture firm on the former street tearing down their moorings. They did not dash very far, but exceedingly lively, to the imminent peril of life or limb of the multitude that at a certain juncture with more curiosity than caution. One of the horses, worth about $100, dashed against an old block in front of Greenwell & Son's meat market, knocked it over and smashed its own head almost to a jelly. It is next to a miracle that no people were injured. There is almost criminal neglect indulged in by some people in the matter of hitching their teams, notwithstanding the city ordinance.

Baird's Mammoth Minstrels are sure to have a rousing audience in Union Opera House this evening, and also to-morrow. They promise an excellent programme.

Indications of the positive swelling of a grand boom in Ogden this season are daily multiplying. What with the new depot, the gas works, the incandescent light plant, a new opera house, more mills and manufactories, the junction city is near attaining its manifest destiny, in the pushing of which the local papers evince a most commendable unanimity of encouragement. And why should Salt Lake begrudge her best neighbor and true friend? There is room and plenty for all who labor bravely.

Mr. Levi Wild, formerly of the Western Union office in this town and a very popular society man, has been spending a few days in town, but returned this forenoon to Butte where he has been located for several months. He received his friends' congratulations on his recent marriage to a most estimable young lady with becoming and dignified smiles of matrimonial dignity and happiness.

The outcome of the Tattle lynchers trial at Provo is awaited here with considerable interest.

The closing of Fourth street, as requested by the U. P. for depot purposes is generally favored by the heaviest business men, especially as the granting of the petition appears to be almost a conditio sine qua non for the erection of the new buildings.

A ludicrous mistake has occurred to the generally so correct cablegram editor of the New York Herald's issue of the 22d, in the account of the birthday anniversary of Kaiser Wilhelm in Berlin. Your many German readers will smile at it. The Herald says that at one of the receptions there was given "an opera in one act, 'Guten Morgen,' by Herr Fischer." The opera is not by a "Herr Fischer," but it's title is "Guten Morgen, Herr Fischer," for long years the matrimonial salutation in the halls of Munich, and then spread elsewhere. It is a piece full of the hilarity and jocundity of German student life.

The leaders of the Church, here called the P. P., are flogging themselves to think that they did not order the election of a few Gentiles at the last city round-up (election) so they could have asked for the same favor next time. They all freely admit now this is the last time they will have the handling of the city's affairs; in fact we should not be surprised to hear of the city starting some great improvements so as to feed some of its pap-pussers.

Judge Henderson will have to work night and day at the next term of the District Court in this city, to rid the calendar of divorce and unlawful cohab. cases alone. Never was it more thoroughly demonstrated that an extra judge is required. Had it been in the past for suitors in civil cases to wait term after term like the Chancery suits so ably set forth by Dickens. Since the Probate Court has lost its judicial powers in matrimonial affairs, extra business is forced upon the court by the divorce suits, and it will be almost impossible to get up with the work. Of course, the cases for breaches of Hymen's bonds are pretty fairly legitimate ones now, when they have to bear the light of day. But it shows already what a soft thing in the way of fees the judges and the clerks of the Probate courts had, and no wonder they always wanted to retain power.

There is some talk of celebration by our English-born citizens of the Queen's jubilee next July, for which end, it is reported, a meeting will soon be called. While our citizens by adoption from Albion enjoy an undisputed reputation for loyalty, it is quite commendable that they retain their respect for the venerable sovereign of the land of their birth. Blood is thicker than water.

Dr. Ed. Ulrich has returned from his trip to California, where he has been satisfactorily successful in his search for the choicest of all treasures—health. He will resume his extensive medical and surgical practice.
