

THE DEMOCRAT PUBLISHING COMPANY, WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CONTENTS...

RATES FOR ADVERTISING IN THE DEMOCRAT.

For Sale, Help Wanted, etc., in Special Column, first lines of less, 25c for first insertion...

ARRIVAL AND CLOSING OF MAILS.

Table with columns for Arrival and Closing of Mails, listing times for various routes.

LOCAL JOBS.

Walter, New York, 94 1/2; Lead, New York 94 1/2...

THE COCAINE HABIT.

Its Terrible Growth in This City—Over Three Hundred Grains Consumed in a Single Day.

The Drug Store Trade a Heavy Business in It—The Trade Growing Heavier Daily.

Chippies and Tin Horn Gamblers the Principal Consumers—Slaves in the Higher Walks of Life.

The most horrible evil to which a community could be subjected, that of the cocaine habit, is reported to be growing in this city at an alarming rate.

AN ENSLAVED CUFFY.

The night clerk of one of our leading drug stores who has been reported to be a customer who literally lives on the drug.

LOCAL JOBS.

Walter, New York, 94 1/2; Lead, New York 94 1/2...

THE JOS. DEAN TRIAL.

He Married the Fair Florence in March, 1884, Without Her Father's Consent.

A Marriage of Pure Love—A Copy of Dean's Letter to His Girl's Father's Friend.

Telling About the Ceremonies of the Endowment House—Dean's First Wife's Consent.

From Our Ogden Correspondent.

The polygamy case against Joseph H. Dean was again the leading feature of the First District Court proceedings yesterday and to-day.

CHAMPION PICTURES.

Some Tips for Inexperienced Patrons. The case of Danbur W. Morgan which was tried in the District Court this week...

MISS FIELD'S LECTURE.

Tuesday Evening Next at the Walker Opera House. Miss Kate Field, who is to lecture at the Walker Opera House on Tuesday evening...

FULLER'S HILL.

The Excellent Pleasure Resort on the East Beach. After some years of care and energy, William Fuller has succeeded in giving to our citizens a place where pleasure and enjoyment can be indulged in without any of the annoyances generally found at such resorts.

CHURCH NOTES.

METHODIST CHURCH.—Sacred Song service Sunday evening. Professor Vane and his company will conduct a praise service...

A NITRE COMPANY.

An Organization Formed to Work Saltpetre Deposits. The Utah Nitre Company filed articles of incorporation with the state of Utah...

PARK POINTERS.

Weekly Budget from the Bannock. General McClelland, A. B. Carleton, Chas. C. Carlton and Henry Page were in the Park yesterday.

AMUSEMENT WORLD.

Footlight Flashes and Sporting Sparks—The Artistic Performances of the Thalia Opera Company.

Coming Events at the Theatre—Langtry and Bernhard on the List—Janussek's Wealth.

The Coulecock Testimonial—Talks About Raers, Sparring, Base Ball and Every Other Sport.

Our German citizens are under lasting obligations to Manager Clawson, who in San Francisco had the good taste to secure the Thalia Opera Company...

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

AMUSEMENT WORLD.

Footlight Flashes and Sporting Sparks—The Artistic Performances of the Thalia Opera Company.

Coming Events at the Theatre—Langtry and Bernhard on the List—Janussek's Wealth.

The Coulecock Testimonial—Talks About Raers, Sparring, Base Ball and Every Other Sport.

Our German citizens are under lasting obligations to Manager Clawson, who in San Francisco had the good taste to secure the Thalia Opera Company...

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

AMUSEMENT WORLD.

Footlight Flashes and Sporting Sparks—The Artistic Performances of the Thalia Opera Company.

Coming Events at the Theatre—Langtry and Bernhard on the List—Janussek's Wealth.

The Coulecock Testimonial—Talks About Raers, Sparring, Base Ball and Every Other Sport.

Our German citizens are under lasting obligations to Manager Clawson, who in San Francisco had the good taste to secure the Thalia Opera Company...

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

ARTISTS.

The Studio of Mr. George M. Ottinger, Utah's Oldest and Most Successful Artist.

A Graduate of the Academy of Art at Philadelphia—His Studies of Mexican Life.

His Experience in Trying to Sell His Pictures for What They Are Worth.

A DEMOCRAT representative spent about two hours very pleasantly the other day in the studio of Mr. George M. Ottinger, viewing his fine collection of paintings and listening to the instructive conversation of the artist.

GENERAL SPORTING MATTERS.

Edward Hanlan writes from Boston that he is in the best possible health and is rowing well. He is probably thirty seconds better than he was last year.

In Making the Sail Plan for the new steel sloop that Gen. C. J. Paine intends for this year's defender of the America's Cup...

Ed. Harrigan is in luck. The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

AMUSEMENT WORLD.

Footlight Flashes and Sporting Sparks—The Artistic Performances of the Thalia Opera Company.

Coming Events at the Theatre—Langtry and Bernhard on the List—Janussek's Wealth.

The Coulecock Testimonial—Talks About Raers, Sparring, Base Ball and Every Other Sport.

Our German citizens are under lasting obligations to Manager Clawson, who in San Francisco had the good taste to secure the Thalia Opera Company...

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

Something About the Rich Men of the City.

The millionaires of Buffalo are given to stock investments, and a flurry in the market has caused some of them to sell their holdings.

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.

AMUSEMENT WORLD.

Footlight Flashes and Sporting Sparks—The Artistic Performances of the Thalia Opera Company.

Coming Events at the Theatre—Langtry and Bernhard on the List—Janussek's Wealth.

The Coulecock Testimonial—Talks About Raers, Sparring, Base Ball and Every Other Sport.

Our German citizens are under lasting obligations to Manager Clawson, who in San Francisco had the good taste to secure the Thalia Opera Company...

Ed. Harrigan is in Luck.

The tickets to San Francisco were bought before the showman's name was known to the public. He is in luck, and he is therefore happy.