THE PEOPLE'S PAPER.

HERALD.

SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD.

The HERALD enters upon the new year with better hopes and brighter prospects than it ever before enjoyed. The remarkable success of the paper in the past, as manifested by its large and steadily growing subscription list, its increasing advertising patronage and the expressions of goodwill towards the journal which greet us from all quarters, convinces the publishers that they are doing what they set out to do—namely, furnish a newspaper that the people would like, and therefore support. The HERALD, as in the past, will be the people's paper. Independent in a political sense, it will always be found on the side of the people, outspoken on questions affecting the rights of the masses; battling for local self-government and the largest liberty to individuals consistent with public good; laboring for a pure, honest and economical administration of government; treating public matters dispassionately and employing language calculated to enlighten the reason of men, rather than influence their passions; and working for peace and the development of the resources of the territory, instead of trying to create strife and retard progress. With our increased facilities for gathering news, both by telegraph and mail, the employment of a larger number of correspondents in different sections of the country, and the better arrangement of all the many details of the establishment, we confidently promise to make the SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD a better paper than ever.

SALT LAKE SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD

This valuable and popular edition of the HERALD will continue to make its appearance twice a week during the year, and the same degree of progress and improvement that marks the Daily will be seen in its columns. No better newspaper can be found in the west for those people who are not blessed with daily mail facilities, than the Semi-Weekly HERALD. It contains all the news, domestic and foreign, in a condensed and readable form. The design has been to make it combine the distinguishing characteristics of a commercial and home journal, and we believe that this has been successfully carried out. The Semi-Weekly has certainly met with unexpectedly high favor at the hands of the people. It is proposed to make it even more popular than in the past by reducing the price to $3.50 per annum, making it the cheapest semi-weekly paper in the west. The reduction in price does not imply a lessening of the quantity of matter published. Its columns will continue full of news and choice literature.

SALT LAKE WEEKLY HERALD.

About the 1st of March, we will begin the publication of a Weekly Edition of the HERALD. The demand for such a paper has been very pressing during the past two or three years. The aim of the publishers will be to furnish a paper for those people who live off the main lines of travel and who are not accommodated with mail service often than once a week; to provide a newspaper for those who have only one day a week of leisure to devote to the pleasant and profitable employment of reading; to supply the missing edition of the HERALD for sending abroad—a paper that shall faithfully and honestly represent this great and growing territory, with its many and important industries and its thrifty, enterprising people; to make a paper for the home circle and family circle, one that shall contain the news, and at the same time combine the essential elements of a literary, educational and industrial journal. In fact, our aim will be to make the WEEKLY HERALD welcome visitor to the home, where it will be found a constant fund of instruction, entertainment and profit, to all members of the family. Besides the leading characteristics of the Daily, the Weekly will contain matter specially for the agriculturist, the gardener, the stock-raiser, the mechanic, the kitchen and the household generally, and an important feature of its columns will be the well-chosen, entertaining and moral light literature. Nothing will be admitted to its columns that has not first been carefully prepared and revised. The price will be only $2 a year, a figure unprecedentedly low for a first-class newspaper. We confidently predict for the WEEKLY HERALD one of the greatest successes, and the efforts of the publishers shall be to make the paper merit the popularity that it cannot fail to attain.

MAINE. A Governor Elected, but He Seems to be a Boneless Individual.

The Tribune Culminating. Augusta, Me., 15.—Acting Governor Lamson, to-day, appointed a staff, which includes Major M. M. Folsom, adjutant general and chief of staff; Geo. Charles Edwards, of Bangor, inspector general; Dr. Piper, of Thomaston, surgeon general; Maj. J. W. Channing, of Fairfield, adjutant; and Capt. R. W. Black, of Augusta, and Col. J. W. Black, of Auburn, and Maj. J. W. French, of Eastport, military secretary. The position of judge advocate general, but declined.

At 11:50 the house sent a message to the senate informing it that Joseph L. Smith and Alonzo Garcelon had been selected. If the senate receives the message and proceed to vote, Senator Strickland remarked that this was a legal proceeding. He said he believed the proposed action by the house was illegal. He wished it understood that he would bind no one. He was in favor of a peaceful solution of the difficulty, and not in favor of resistance.

A committee was appointed to receive, sort and count the votes for governor. The vote results in the unanimous choice of Joseph L. Smith, eighteen votes being cast. Smith was inaugurated at 11:30 a.m. in the grand hall of the State House. He will not resign until the 1st of March. He is not a rash man and will see to it that his position is fully supported. He will not be a candidate for action. He will await the decision of the courts on the questions before them before taking a single step that will interfere with the orders of Governor Chamberlain. Major Smith will not be recognized by Governor Chamberlain.

In the first proceedings of the senate, Hubbard presented a resolution that it is the duty of Congress to restrict the appointing power by placing the election of postmasters in the hands of the senate, and to place the appointment of other government officers with the legislature of the several states where they are located, and such other immediate action as may be necessary to prevent the use of money in elections, prevent intimidation, and secure to every person the same rights and privileges of expressing his opinion at the ballot-box without fear of molestation or bribery.

Arrangements were then being made to send engineers to the isthmus under the escort of a military detachment, who were instructed to give every aid in the prosecution of the work in hand.
