"The show ran at a loss from the start because of his mismanagement. He thought he was the whole thing, but everybody knows he was the bad actor of the bunch. His jokes fell on the audience like lead pipe on pavement—with a dull thud. And his acting killed the show. He was always harping about every one else knowing their part, and it took him longer to drop to a cue than any one else in the company."

TEN THOUSAND VISITORS.

Grand Reception on Board the Flagship Kearsarge.

Kiel, June 29.—The United States squadron this morning received about 10,000 guests on board the flagship Kearsarge, principally German naval officers and visiting Americans. There will be a smoker on the Kearsarge tonight.

Mr. Meyer, the United States ambassador to Italy, lunched with Emperor William on the Hohenzollern.

The emperor today again sent to Allison V. Armour to inquire if he would not dock his yacht, which was damaged in collision with the steamer Dobrogea last Friday, at the government yard, but Mr. Armour declined for the present, as the yacht is not disabled. Mr. Armour tomorrow will accompany the emperor on the latter's yacht Metior to Eckernforde.

Emperor William was unable to be present at the reception on the Kearsarge, because he engaged long ahead to distribute prizes at a tennis match.

The Princess of Pless intended to give a garden party this afternoon and invited the emperor to be present, but he requested her not to have the party, as he wanted everybody to attend the Kearsarge reception.

Prince Henry, who had been sailing the thirty-footer Tilly all the morning, was at the reception with the princess. She danced with Lieutenant Charles L. Hussey of Chicago.

BIG REWARD FOR LOGAN.

Investigation Into the Manner of His Escape.

St. Paul, June 29.—D. S. Elliott, general manager of the Great Northern Express company, has added $500 to the reward offered for the capture of Harvey Logan, the alleged Montana train robber, who made a sensational escape from the jail at Knoxville, Tenn., Saturday.

Knoxville, Tenn., June 29.—Through United States Marshal Austin, the department of justice today added $100 to the reward offered for Harvey Logan's capture. This brings the total up to $1,100, in addition to the $5,000 outstanding for his arrest. The government officials, by osder of Judge Clark, today began an investigation, and behind closed doors at the jail they examined all the persons connected with the escape. The officials would give out no details of the investigation.

MERELY TO HOLD HIM.

Technical Charge Against President of Gold Mining Company.

New York, June 29.—Henry Alton, president of the Columbia Gold Mining company, was arrested today, charged with violation of section 363 of the penal code, which makes it a misdemeanor to neglect to file with the county clerk the names of the persons composing a company or a partnership.

Police Inspector McCluskey said that the arrest on a technical charge is due to fear that the notoriety given the case might cause the men concerned to leave the city.

All the books of the company were seized. These records will be gone over carefully and the company's customers communicated with.

The company has been advertising very largely in Italian and Yiddish newspapers. Among the names used in the advertisements were those of Samuel W. Thompson and Walter R. Eaton, employes of the custom house. It was announced in Washington last night that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Armstrong had requested a written report from those officials respecting their alleged connection with the company.

HARDSHIPS OF RUSSIAN JEWS

Those Living in Rural Districts Driven Into Towns.

MORE AND MORE COOPED UP

PETITIONS ON THE SUBJECT ARE USELESS.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The amendment to the "temporary regulations of May 15, 1882, permitting Jews to reside and to acquire real estate in 101 additional towns within the pale of Jewish settlement," is thus explained by the Jewish Journal Voskahad:

"The temporary regulations which have been in force during the last twenty-one years were hastily issued and were not brought into conformity with other laws. Their enforcement caused nearly all the Jews living in the rural districts, amounting to about 20 per cent of the Jewish population in 1882, to be driven into the towns and cities. The pale of the Jewish settlement, previously embracing fifteen provinces, suddenly shrunk to a limited number of towns. The senate was quickly overwhelmed with appeals against the illegal enforcement of the regulations, and in 1884 was petitioned, though vainly, for their repeal.

"The number of towns open to Jews has continued constantly to diminish, and the Jews, more and more cooped up, have been driven hard for a subsistence. As a result, the towns with Jewish populations have been officially appointed breeding places for physical and psychological diseases. The ministry of the interior, in view of the dangers from this hungry proletariat, has decided to open 101 new places to Jewish settlement. In the list are many former Jewish colonies which have been within recent years transformed legally into villages and thus withdrawn from the category of permissible places of abode for Jews.

"In the provinces of Chernigo, Ekaterinoslav and Polyatav the authorities have broken up Jewish colonies which had existed from time immemorial.

"Among many expedients for driving out Jewish settlers under the 'temporary regulations,' one of the most successful was to demand written charters from the towns. Those which could not produce a charter were at once pronounced villages.

"In this way the towns of Poltava were wiped out of legal existence in 1895 and all the towns of Chernigov suffered the same fate in 1899.

"In other cases old towns decayed or shifted toward newly built railroads. The Jews, however, were not allowed either in the new towns that grew up in their place or, in spite of repeated decisions of the senate, in the new streets of old towns.

"The 'temporary regulations,' it may be briefly stated, forbid Jews to move into cities and towns where they had not been living when the regulations were issued, to remove from one hamlet to another or to acquire or rent land."

USELESS TO AGITATE.

Address of London's Lord Mayor on Jewish Persecution.

London, June 29.—Lord Mayor Samuel, in a speech yesterday at the prize distribution of the religion classes at one of London's synagogues, said it was quite useless to bring agitation to bear in the hope of influencing Russia in regard to the treatment of the Jews. Their brethren in Australia, animated by the most generous feelings, had sent money and had passed a resolution which it became his duty to submit to the foreign office. In following their wishes he was aware what the result would be. Therefore, he was not surprised when assured that this was an internal matter and that the foreign office could do nothing. The Jews of this country, the lord mayor continued, desired for their brethren in Russia religious equality, and he believed he was right in saying the czar was most anxious that the boon should be extended to his Hebrew subjects. But there were other difficulties to overcome. The case was different from that of Roumania, where treaty rights were violated. Russia was under no treaty obligations and was free to manage her internal affairs as she thought best. It was only by appealing to the better side of the Russian nation—and there was a very large better side—that they could hope to awaken that sense of right which he was convinced no amount of agitation could bring about.

The lord mayor concluded with asking the Jewish community to believe he had the interest of their persecuted brethren at heart, and not to misconstrue his seeming inactivity.

In this connection it has transpired that shortly after the Kishineff outbreak the Russian embassy conveyed a personal assurance to the lord mayor that if he would discountenance anti-Russian agitation in London he could depend not only that there would be no repetition of such attacks on the Jews, but that measures would be taken to generally improve their position in Russia.

AFRAID OF RUSSIA.

Argument Which Appeals to the Chinese Mind.

London, June 29.—A Shanghai dispatch to the Times says the correspondent of a native journal there asserts that Viceroy Yuen Shai Kai, governor general of Pechili, is opposed to the opening to trade of places in Manchuria mentioned in the American and Japanese draft treaties, on the ground that it would be useless and would complicate a difficult question at the instance of powers which have failed to induce Russia to restore either their own rights or the Chinese administration of the long established treaty port of New Chwang.

This argument, says the Times correspondent, appeals powerfully to the native mind, which is becoming gradually convinced that China's safest policy is to make the best terms with Russia.

INACTION AT WASHINGTON.

Manchurian Question Is Permitted to Rest.

Washington, June 29.—It is indicated today that the Manchurian question may be permitted to rest temporarily, so far as action at this end of the line is concerned, since Secretary Hay has left the city for a two weeks' vacation and Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, is about to sail for Europe.

There are indications, too, that the Russian government has found it possible to shape her policy respecting Manchuria so as to be more acceptable to the United States. Secretary Hay and Count Cassini within the past week have conferred on this subject and it is apparent that there have been some developments which officials do not care to make public at this time.

In the negotiations with China for a commercial treaty this government has been insistent on the opening of certain ports in Manchuria and the new turn appears to have given a more hopeful feeling in that direction.

Secretary Hay called at the Russian embassy yesterday morning to say goodbye to Count Cassini before leaving the city for Newport. The secretary during the visit gave personal assurances to the ambassador of the real regard which both he and the president have for the ambassador. The call lasted for nearly an hour and was most friendly throughout.

The ambassador sails from New York July 7 on the Kaiser Wilhelm II for Paris, where, after a week's rest, he will go to St. Petersburg to report to his majesty, the emperor. He will return to the United States in the autumn.

BARRINGTON IS COOL AND CALM

Declares His Innocence Though Admitting a Dark Outlook.

HAS NO FEAR OF LYNCHING

POND WHERE M'CANN'S BODY WAS FOUND DRAGGED.

St. Louis, June 29.—Closely guarded in a cell of the St. Louis county jail at Clayton, eight miles west of this city, E. Seymour Barrington, charged with the murder of James P. McCann, believed to have been committed on the night of June 18, spent the greater part of the day under close questioning. He maintained a comparatively calm demeanor, and while he admitted that the future looked dark for him, he, nevertheless, stoutly declared his innocence of the alleged crime.

"No matter how much apparent evidence they collect," he said, "the truth will come out in the end."

Conductor Ike Bennett and Motorman John Oellian, street car men, identified Barrington and McCann as two men who left their car at Bonfils station on the night of June 18. It was near this point that the body of a dead man, identified as that of McCann, was found.

Damaging Admission.

According to the authorities, Barrington has made a damaging admission in that he first declared that he and McCann had fought some men in the darkness, and now he says he and McCann were alont that night and met no men.

Information was gathered today which the police consider to be of importance, that Barrington had no intention of leaving St. Louis until last Saturday afternoon, when, upon learning of the finding of a body near Bonfils, he had his trunk taken to the union station. His arrest followed soon afterward and his trunk was secured by the police.

Another Arrest.

One arrest was made today in connection with the case. Asa E. Mitchell, agent of a water company, was taken into custody on suspicion that he knows something of importance in connection with the alleged murder. He admitted that he was a friend of Barrington and that at the latter's instigation he wrote a note which was shown to Mrs. McCann for the purpose of allaying her fears regarding her husband's prolonged absence.

Will Return and Testify.

Mitchell was released from custody tonight after making a statement to the police. His home is in New York and he will go there, returning here to testify when Barrington is tried. He said he did not know that McCann was dead when the note was sent to Mrs. McCann.

Coroner Koch will reopen the inquest in Clayton Thursday, in view of the new testimony that has developed since the last inquiry. Tonight Coroner Koch swore out a new warrant charging Barrington with the murder of McCann. The former warrant was sworn out yesterday by Mrs. McCann, making the same charge.

Barrington Not Afraid.

Barrington's preliminary hearing will be held on July 8. When asked today if he did not fear being lynched, Barrington replied:

"Not a bit of it. I am a British subject and I expect to be legally tried on the charges against me. The sheriff has assured me that I will be well protected. I am innocent until you have found me guilty."

The pond in the abandoned stone quarry wherein the dead body was found was thoroughly dragged today with the expectation of finding the clothing of the victim. In this the search was unsuccessful, but a search in the vicinity revealed a blood-stained shirt and a cuff, which also bore ...ood marks. These were held, but were not identified as having been worn by McCann.

Kansas City, June 29.—Mrs. Wilhelmina Grace Barrington, who married Barrington in St. Louis some time ago and later brought suit here for divorce, was today granted an order by the local court requiring Barrington to pay $250 into court to pay the costs of the divorce proceedings.

CITY PROPERTY UNDERVALUED

Taxes Are Not in Proportion to Market Prices.

A REMEDY IS SUGGESTED

REPORT MADE TO CITY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The committee appointed by the Salt Lake City Teachers' association to investigate the tax conditions in Salt Lake City has sent in a report in which it is claimed that not more than about 50 per cent of the tax that should be collected is collected. The report asserts that property is undervalued for purpose of taxation, that intangible personal property escapes taxation almost altogether, and that corporations are not paying their full share. In fact, it is declared that the present tax law encourages dishonesty among the citizens and makes liars of them. The remedy offered is that the property be valued properly and that the assessor be made to do his duty without fear or favor. The report is signed by E. V. Leatherwood, the attorney for the association.

In the first place, the report states that the contemplation of the tax law is that all property shall be assessed at 70 per cent of its market value and that taxes shall be paid upon it at this valuation. Calling attention to the sworn statements in regard to property valuation, the investigator states that the oath system should be abolished because, he claims, in many cases the statements are sent in not sworn to and this leads to a debauching of the moral sense and forms a school of perjury. "The tendency of our present tax law," the report says, "is to put a premium upon dishonesty."

The report goes on to state that an investigation of property in the business district convinces the investigator that taxes are not being paid on more than 50 per cent of the real value of the property. It states that in nearly every case insurance to the amount of nearly twice the assessed valuation is being carried on all this property.

A list of some blocks and the assessments for 1902 is as follows:

Description.	Lot.	Improvements.
McCornick block	$ 33,470	$ 54,000
Dooly block	21,410	81,000
Exposition grounds	25,355	5,000
Commercial block	29,000	52,200
Walker Bros.' store	44,975	52,200
Z. C. M. I. store	120,640	125,000
Freed Furniture company	23,100	15,000
Central block	.....	19,500
Atlas block	.....	29,600
News building	41,100	195,000

On Brigham street it is claimed the property is being assessed at 50 per cent of the contract price and in other districts only 33 1-3 per cent of the market price is being taxed.

In regard to corporations, the report states that they have increased rapidly, but there has been no great increase in the tax revenue from them. The Consolidated Street railway, the report says, is assessed at $469,737, which amount, it is asserted, is more than $30,000 less than the amount paid for the old Rapid Transit property alone.

"The Utah Light & Power company," says the report, "is incorporated for $3,500,000, and for assessment purposes the entire plant is valued at $256,625. The franchise of the telephone company for all of Salt Lake county is valued at $29,297. For the privileges enjoyed by this company the valuation of the franchise is ridiculous, and a valuation of $28,000 on its real estate and improvements in the county is laughable, to say the least.

"The law providing for the assessment of mining companies on the net proceeds of their mines may theoretically be a good one, but without a better method of obtaining the true net proceeds it is very easy to evade it and pay only on such sums as the owners may see fit oo return."

In regard to personal property the report states that in no case is the law so flagrantly violated. It declares that records show that each year the per cent of intangible property decreases.

The report concluded with the statement that fully one-half of the property of a modern state exists in intangible form, and that of this, all but a mere bagatelle escapes taxation.

ALWAYS TIRED NEVER RESTED

To be tired out from hard work or bodily exercise is natural and rest is the remedy, but there is an exhaustion without physical exertion and a tired, never-rested feeling—a weariness without work that is unnatural and shows some serious disorder is threatening the health. One of the chief causes of that "Always-tired, never-rested condition" is impure blood and bad circulation. Unless the body is nourished with rich, pure blood there is lack of nervous force, the muscles become weak, the digestion impaired, and general disorder occurs throughout the system. Debility, insomnia, nervousness, indigestion, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, strength and energy, and the hundreds of little ailments we often have are due directly to a bad condition of the blood and circulation, and the quickest way to get rid of them is by purifying and building up the blood, and for this purpose no remedy equals S. S. S., which contains the best ingredients for cleansing the blood and toning up the system. It is a vegetable blood purifier and tonic combined, that enriches the blood, and through it the entire system is nourished and refreshing sleep comes to the tired, never-rested, body.

For over four years I suffered with general debility, causing a thorough breaking down of my system. My cousin, who had been benefited by S. S. S., told me about it. I tried it and it cured me. I heartily recommend S. S. S. to all who may feel the need of a thoroughly good blood tonic. Yours truly,
MRS. JOSIE A. BRITTAIN.
