

BITTER STRUGGLE OF REPUBLICANS

Fight Between Factions For Control of the Party.

THE SALT LAKE MANAGERS

LIST OF SMOOT DEPUTIES IN THIS CITY.

According to fairly good authority, the Sutherland-Smoother-Cutler combination has got its organization into good running order and is doing business on a land office scale. Sutherland has taken charge of Salt Lake county in person, Cutler and Smoot have Utah county and the southern territory in their keeping, the Murphy-Hannagan-Glassman combination is supposed to be safe for Weber county and the north San Juan is yet to be heard from.

So far things have run quite smoothly. Glassman, like a quotation on the stock exchange, has been a steady, reliable, and the corporation combination has so far assumed that bill will "stay put." In Salt Lake county there is no doubt that the combination is doing business with more or less satisfactory results. Fred Price has been allotted the Second, Jack May and his brother-in-law, Lawrence, have the Third, Ralph Guthrie is discharging office and chief of the Fourth, and Joe Cottle, the ubiquitous, personable, and, it is said, business in the Fifth.

Federal Places Promised.
By way of putting a little ginger into operations the ward captains are said to have been promised certain federal appointments in the combination's plans go right and Sutherland reaches the United States senate, Jack Cutler in the gubernatorial chair, just how these offices are to be transferred does not yet appear, but some of the boys can almost see the salary checks now.

Fred Price, for instance, is reported to be slated for a consulate in Wales, probably on the theory that Wales is far enough away to keep him out of Salt Lake a while. May is alleged to be slated as successor to Frank Hobbs, register of the land office in the city, or Walter Griffiths is to be receiver of the land office in lieu of George A. Smith, and the workers in the out counties are to be given the offices of "something equally good," when the spoils of war are garnered for the faithful.

Better than these vague and illusory promises of office, however, is the campaign fund, vulgarly dubbed "the long haul," which is being collected by having at his disposal for preliminary round-up purposes. Rumor credits the ex-congressman with having accumulated $25,000 in the past, and candidates a fund big enough to stuff a store-front window with. Better than this rumor, however, some of the lieutenants report having actually handled layers of this fund, and in their own vernacular, it feels good to them.

Kearns Crowd Also Hustling.
Meanwhile, the Kearns segregation has been busy as a setting hen for some weeks. While Sutherland and Smoot were impressing the Chicago convention with their record in the western affairs, the senior senator was here in Utah, getting out of nights in gum shoes, just visiting around and seeing people, and the prospect for crops this year. Occasionally he talked politics and if anybody insisted on his discharging the gubernatorial look but only as an incident, and what just what plan of organization Kearns and his followers have adopted is not disclosed. The fact is, however, that one L. W. Shurtliff of Ogden could tell what the Weber county programme is and the fight in Salt Lake county has been arranged for comfortably, but outside these two jurisdictions, the hunt has not been conducted with the same vigor.

The only certainty about the Republican situation is that somebody is going to get hurt politically before the convention adjourns. Sutherland and Cutler get the legislative delegation in Salt Lake they will not expect very enthusiastic support from the Kearns camp. If Kearns wins in the convention, Sutherland and his broken shoulder will be the Democratic point of view the prospect is altogether lovely, a sort of home-made sausage, which is game in the Republican ticket, and which is sure to lose, no matter which side names the candidates.

BOTH HORSES DIE.

Team Which Participated in Pioneer
Parade Has Strange Fate.

Pioneer Day no team that took part in the long procession made a better appearance or seemed to be in better shape than the team which had the eighteenth ward emigrant wagon, driven by John Jeremy. Yet within sixty hours of being stable for the night after their hard day's tramp, both animals were dead, apparently without having suffered.

The strange fate which overtook this equine team is arousing no little interest. The first of the animals to go belonged to John Hearst, a neighbor of Mr. Jeremy, who resides at 435 South Eighth West street. Mr. Hearst found the horse lying dead in his stable when he entered the barn to feed him Tuesday morning. He was at a loss to account for the animal's death, but concluded that the unusual heat and exercise had caused it.

While in his harness Thursday afternoon, Mr. Jeremy's horse dropped dead. Now Mr. Hearst and Mr. Jeremy are trying to puzzle out what strange misfortune has befallen them.

LEWIS BULL DOG IS QUITE POPULAR

Humane Officer Mann Likes the Idea.

DOES NOT HURT OTHER DOGS

DR. T. B. BEATTY WILL TAKE PROMPT ACTION.

Humane Officer F. B. Mann objects to having the responsibility for the employment of a bull dog by the negro, John Lewis, in the catching of unlicensed canines. "I had nothing to do with employing either Lewis or the bull dog," said he, "as I am not the official dog catcher, but the humane officer." The collection of the dog license and the taking up of unlicensed dogs has been made part of the duties of the dog catcher, and all I have to do with it is to see that the dogs taken up are humanely treated.

"Did you know that Lewis was using a bulldog to catch other dogs?" he was asked.

"Yes, I knew it, but I did not suppose there was anything wrong in his doing so. In fact, I rather liked the idea, as the dog used to be highly trained. He is like an efficient policeman who never uses his club unless compelled to do so by the resistance of the man he is trying to arrest. I have seen him do it. I mean a dog fight every time Lewis picks him onto another dog."

Understand not, for the bull dog is so trained that when he goes after another dog he gets right on top of him and holds him until Lewis comes up and gets his wire around the dog's neck, and then he is taken to the pound. The other dogs which run and lie down just as soon as the bull dog gets after him. If I thought there was any cruelty in the use of the bull dog I would stop its further employment by the dog catcher."

Dr. T. B. Beatty, president of the Utah Humane society, does not object to the use of the Col. Mann, but thinks the bull dog ought to be suppressed. He said he would issue an order to have the use of the bull dog discontinued, and if the order is not obeyed he will secure a warrant for the arrest of Lewis. Knowing dog nature pretty well, Dr. Beatty does not take any account of Dr. Mann's opinion that all the dogs upon which the bull dog is set by Lewis lie down and let it stand over them until they are lassoed and taken into the pound.

In his opinion many fierce dog fights are bound to take place during the dog catcher's rounds in search of unlicensed canines.

CITY FURNISHES CUPS.

Special Vessels For the Drinking Fountains.

The city water fountains are to be supplied with tinned cast iron ladies received by Superintendent Frank Hines of the city waterworks. The new ladies, which are made of a long handle, and will be secured with a heavy chain to the public drinking fountains on the streets.

The water department has been troubled for some time past with thieves who steal the tin cups fastened to the fountains, so ladies have been secured and will be placed in the city. With the hope that they can be recognized as city property if stolen. Heretofore the cups have been taken almost as soon as they have been placed on the streets, and it is estimated that about 1,000 cups have been stolen in the last year.
