

OBSERVE DATE OF RULER'S BIRTH

Salt Lake Japanese Honor Emperor Mutsuhito.

HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

HOPE FOR FALL OF PORT ARTHUR VOICED BY ALL.

With speech and song and a splendid display of fireworks, the Japanese of Salt Lake, to the number of seventy-five, celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of the birth of Emperor Mutsuhito, their sovereign, last night at a reception held at Harmonie hall.

The knowledge that possibly at the very minute they were drinking to the health of their ruler their fellow countrymen in the far east might be making the struggle of struggles to accomplish the fall of Port Arthur, added to the patriotic fervor with which every allusion to Emperor Mutsuhito and to his gallant fighting subjects was greeted.

"Banzai!" "Banzai!" the Japanese "hurrah" rang through the hall time and again when the speakers alluded to the fact that on this day of days, the little empire had prayed that the Russian fortress might yield.

The addresses, the decorations, the toasts, all served to show that the hope in the hearts of the speakers was common with their Japanese and American hearers alike. The friendly bond that existed between this republic and the constitutional government in the east, it was declared, was a cause for congratulation.

At the entrance to Harmonie hall, and in the banquet room, the flags of both nations were crossed—the Stars and Stripes with the national military and naval emblems of Japan.

The evening's programme was in two parts, a banquet and a meeting. During the progress of the latter half, the guests were seated, the one end of the hall was converted for the time into a stage, and then the scene shifted to a realistic representation of the Japanese drama as it has been handed down for years in the Flower Kingdom.

As guests, the Japanese had about a dozen officers from Fort Douglas, and several business men of this city, among them D. S. Spencer, who made a speech in English appropriate to the occasion.

Praises Emperor in Speech.

The opening speech of the evening was made in English by M. Hashimoto, who said in part:

"As you know, the occasion for this reception is the fifty-second anniversary of the birth of our emperor, His Majesty Mutsuhito. In tracing the growth, the marvelous advance of our pan during his reign, we find that there are several notable events standing out before all others. These I might briefly mention as the framing of a new constitution, giving liberty to man and guaranteeing safety to property, the same as in the United States; the war with China in 1894-95, with which you are all familiar, and the more recent declaration of war against Russia on Feb. 8 of this year. It was on this date that, after a long and arduous struggle, the disputed Manchurian possessions had been ignored, the emperor declared for war. This, for the purpose of protecting our country and preserving the integrity of Korea and Manchuria."

Then followed the national hymn to His Majesty, Mutsuhito, the opening verses of which run as follows: "The reign of our emperor will last thousands of years; Jesus as long, indeed, as the tiny stone which is growing into a big rock, gathering strength with age."

Frank Ariman, who presided, delivered an address in English, in which he paid a tribute to the emperor, saying in part: "After fifty-two years, he, a leading sovereign of the world, heads the brilliant campaign against one of the most powerful nations in the world. When we observe the course of His Majesty, Mutsuhito, during his reign of thirty-seven years, we find that he has ruled with justice and honor. The Chairman Ariman followed in detail the reign of the present emperor, dwelling on the various progressive steps in constitutional government which have been achieved."

Short addresses were also given by K. Ishizuka, O. Okamoto, T. Kimura, K. Iwaka, I. Sato, D. S. Spencer and M. Satake. Toasts were proposed and responded to by many of the Americans present.

During the intermission between speech-making and the second part of the programme, a display of fireworks was given that caused many Salt Lake residents to wonder at the occasion. The pyrotechnic exhibition was given on the State street side, the balcony windows being thrown open.

Following the intermission passages from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" were rendered, and bits of Japanese drama, given by members of the Japanese colony. National dances and songs held the interest of those present and drew forth many encores.

Supper was served at two long tables, running the length of the banquet hall. Japanese and American dishes were included in the menu.

The committee in charge of the reception followed: Reception committee, M. Hashimoto, E. D. Hashimoto; programme committee, K. Nakahashi; Frank Ariman, M. Satake; refreshment committee, P. Asanuma; financial committee, A. Kasuga, T. Manani, K. Nakahashi.

Emperor Mutsuhito was born Nov. 3, 1852. He is the 123rd of the mikadoes.

POPE ALMOST WELL.

Rome, Nov. 3.—Pope Pius has almost completely recovered his health, though his foot remains swollen. He walked about his apartment during the day, but did not go out. He spent much of the time at work and in discussing affairs with Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state.

JUDGE PARKER IN CONNECTICUT

"In my own experience I can recall no stronger illustration of the truth of the saying that 'the good we do lives after us.'"

"The Strenuous Life," Judge Parker then discussed "the strenuous life," as follows:

"It has become a fashion during recent years to exhort our young men to lead what has been called 'the strenuous life.' Not content with universal activity in industry, our work in the conquest of a continent and in the effort to spread our popular ideas into all the world, and thus to make ourselves an example for other peoples who are looking toward freedom and opportunity, the conclusion seems to have been reached that somehow we had overlooked something."

"We always had an efficient army of brave soldiers well commanded. It has been sufficient for our needs that we have been able to resist the onslaught of the savage, to ward off foreign aggression and to settle our own internal troubles, but this does not seem to satisfy. We must be strenuous, not alone in all things which make for good, for safety and for permanence, but we must be strenuous in adventure, for personal glory and even in looking for a fight. It is apparently not enough that we shall be active in every moral and religious endeavor, in every thing that can promote education and the discipline of our youths. These apparently do not assure real progress. So we have tried to turn aside from these into those lines of activity and adventure which smack of the crusades and of the time when the moated castle was the only home in which human beings could be fairly said to have a right to live."

Students Always Strenuous.

"Even the students in our colleges have been invited to become strenuous. A little investigation or knowledge serves to show that the college student has always been so. But in what direction? He has been devoted to his studies, as our scholarship and our universal education amply attest. Nor has this activity been limited to his studies. You have in Yale known strong, energetic able young men who belonged to families in which this process has gone on through several generations. They have furnished to their country great jurists and lawyers, great physicians, eloquent divines, who have carried our traditions into whatever part of the world they have gone and upheld our honor. They have gone forth to found new communities, to promote new business enterprises, and to play a strong and effective part in our life. How much greater activity in this respect is demanded by our times than we now show?"

"But even if there were this greater demand, there never was a period when sports were more universally practiced or when they were more perfect. This success has not been purchased by inefficiency in scholarship. It has not made our young men weaker or less efficient in school nor after they had gone out into the world."

Then followed the national hymn to His Majesty, Mutsuhito, the opening verses of which run as follows: "The reign of our emperor will last thousands of years; Jesus as long, indeed, as the tiny stone which is growing into a big rock, gathering strength with age."

ATTACKED THE TRUSTS.

Republicans Flayed For Receiving Financial Aid.

Meriden, Conn., Nov. 3.—The only rear platform address made by the party here was when his train stopped here for five minutes on the way to Hartford. It was an impromptu address in which he flayed the Republican party because of the financial aid that party is alleged to have received from trusts.

He charged that every monopoly is doing everything in its power to bring about the election of the Republican ticket. This speech created a sensation, both in the audience that gathered at the station and among the members of the judge's party. The mention of the Standard Oil company in this connection is the first denial the Democratic candidate has made to the charge that the Standard Oil company is preparing to assist financially toward his election. Said Judge Parker:

"Of late we have been presented to our attention a question of far more importance than any issue presented by our national platform—a question that was not understood at the time, and that the party could not contemplate. That is the question whether it is possible for trusts of this country to control the elections with money."

Trusts For Roosevelt.

"When the trusts of this country united for the purpose of raising a fund that was to be large enough to control the election, it became your duty and mine, without regard to any other issue, to settle the question once and for all whether money or manhood suffrage should control."

"We met the gauge of the battle which they threw down and from one end of the country to the other men are saying to each other what you and I are saying—this country shall not pass into the hands of the trusts."

"We have had a very remarkable situation presented. After the recommendation six or eight years ago that action should be taken towards curbing the trusts, the Republican party passed a statute to that end, but when we examine the statute closely we find that it authorizes the president to appoint a cabinet officer to investigate the trusts. The information he receives may be given to the people or kept private, as the president may direct."

"The man he put at the head of that bureau was his private secretary. After the campaign opened he became chairman of the Republican national committee, and whatever information he received perfectly well understood by the heads of corporations. They knew what secrets he had that they did not care to have made public."

"I do not know that he had any information, but it is perfectly true that that entitled him to get it. From that time on there has been a gradual movement in that direction until it is believed that every trust in this country, including the Standard Oil trust, is doing what it can to elect that ticket."

GREAT OVATION.

Audience Cheered Judge Parker For Nearly Twenty Minutes.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 3.—This city became wildly enthusiastic over Judge Parker at a money rally held in the opera house tonight. Democrats from all over the state came here, and the accommodations for the audience were entirely inadequate. The candidate was warmly greeted with demonstration on the arrival at the station of the special train from New Haven, where the Hartford train was driven to the Hartford club, where dinner was served. An informal reception followed. Just before it was over a great throng had gathered outside to serve as a volunteer escort to the opera house.

AUTO CAMPAIGN THROUGH COUNTY

tions and attempted to break the force of the splendid speeches and logical arguments of Judge O. W. Powers, Democratic candidate for congress, who has just finished campaigning in Weber county. Judge J. E. Bagley was chairman and the brass band assisted in the entertainment of the crowd.

GLASSMANN EXCELS HIMSELF.

Breaks All Records for Falsehood and Demagoguery.

Plain City, Nov. 3.—The most astounding declarations ever made on a platform in Plain City were some made at the Republican rally last night in Amusement hall here by William Glassmann. His entire address was such a mixture of falsehood and demagoguery as has never before been vouchsafed to the people of Plain City to hear.

Notwithstanding repeated denials and absolute proof of falsity, he repeated the old charge that Frank Cannon, Judge Powers and The Herald are in league and had prearranged the entire American party movement. According to the speaker, Judge Powers was in consultation with the American party leaders for an entire week and made the brazen assertion that he had never denied such complicity except in certain technical and immaterial points such as to the time when certain conferences were held and the identity of certain individuals who were mentioned as being present.

Glassmann also said that Powers was telling around the state in good Mormon communities that in case of his election he would be the special representative of the Mormon people.

He pretended to read from the record of the Smoot investigating committee that Powers had testified that in his opinion the Mormon people never would become like other Americans. He viciously assailed Powers, and he claimed absolute knowledge that ten days after election in case of his defeat the judge would be the leader of the American party movement. The speaker charged Judge Powers with acting a part merely to capture the Mormon vote, while deep down in his heart the spirit of the old Liberal party was rankling and that by merely pricking through the skin you would find that every inch of flesh was filled with hatred of the Mormon people.

The writer has heard every speech made by Judge Powers during this campaign in this county, and knows positively that the charges made that Powers has not fully and frankly denied every allegation about his alleged connection with the American party. On the contrary, Judge Powers has asserted in the plainest and most positive terms that he will be anything but a Democrat even if defeated. Powers has said not only in Washington but in almost every town in Utah that he has the utmost confidence, admiration and respect for the Mormon people, and that he knows the people of this state will fully work out their own salvation. Powers' false defense of the Mormon people at Portland would be sufficient refutation of the slanders of Glassmann, even if the whole life of the man attacked which has been an open book to the people of Utah, were not a sufficient refutation.

The brazen misrepresentations so disgusted even some of the Republicans that a number left the hall and refused to remain for the barbecue, and people are doubtful whether any of the numbers quoted by Glassmann as facts can be believed.

PETER M. FALKMAN.

BEAN CASE POSTPONED.

Hearing Put Over Until Nov. 16 by His Request.

Richfield, Nov. 3.—G. T. Bean was arraigned before Precinct Justice of the Peace Peter Jensen Wednesday morning.

ing on the charge of attempted subornation of perjury and entered a plea of not guilty and asked through his attorney E. E. Hoffman, that the case be postponed until Wednesday, Nov. 16, at which time the case will be called for trial.

This postpones the hearing until after election, which is what Mr. Bean has been working for ever since his arrest, as he is making a hard fight for his election as county attorney.

Ladies at Mammoth.

Eureka, Nov. 3.—The Ladies' Democratic club at Mammoth held a successful rally and love feast at Mammoth last night, which was attended by half a hundred party workers from here. Hassell's hall was jammed with enthusiastic partisans, who enjoyed a delightful programme of speeches, songs and recitations, followed by a delectable supper. The registration for Mammoth Hollow is 556, and for Eureka a trifle over 1,100. Judge Powers will poll three-fifths of this vote, and Moyle will follow him closely.

Morris at Frisco.

Frisco, Nov. 1.—D. H. Morris of St. George, the Democratic candidate for district attorney of the Fifth judicial district, was in Frisco yesterday. Mr. Morris entertained the people of this place very well, and discussed the principles of Democracy and also Republicanism. In a very interesting manner. Although we have had Republican speakers in the town during the campaign Mr. Morris is the only man who has made a good logical speech.

OUTLOOK IN DIXIE.

Modena, Nov. 2.—Reports from interior points indicate that the coming election will see Judge O. W. Powers far ahead of his opponent. The Republican committee has sent several advocates of Howell down this way, but judging from their hasty return they evidently found things too warm in Dixie land. A great many Republicans have declared for Powers and this fact has served to chill the ardent advocates of Howell, who have so far dared to invade Iron and Washington counties.

Political Notes.

Misfortune came to both Chairman Thomas of the Democratic county committee and Chairman Eldredge of the Republican county committee. Mr. Thomas had a cold that made it almost impossible for him to speak, while Mr. Eldredge was confined to his bed all day as the result of a breakdown caused by overwork. Both expect to be in better condition today.

Music, cigars, speeches and refreshments were served at the smoker given by county candidates at the Young Men's Republican club last night. The attendance was large.

J. W. Geiger, Democratic nominee for state auditor, was down from Park City yesterday.

Le Grange Young and Bernard J. Stewart will be the principal speakers at a Democratic rally in the East Mill Creek schoolhouse this evening. A. J. Weber, C. L. Olson and others will also speak. This evening and a rally of Scandinavian Democrats will be held at Union.

Mrs. Cohen will address a meeting of Democratic ladies at the home of John E. Clark, 567 Garfield avenue, S. E., this afternoon.

One of the great political meetings of the campaign is promised for tomorrow night when Judge Powers and J. M. Brinson of Colorado speak at the Salt Lake theatre. Those who have heard Judge Powers speak within the past two weeks assert he is making the greatest political speeches of his career. This will be Mr. Brinson's first address in Salt Lake. His work for the party in outside counties has been the subject of much flattering comment. B. H. Roberts will address the Democrats of Wellsville this evening. James H. Moyle will speak at Stockton, Judge King and John Dern at Mercer.

David Evans at Santaquin, Judge Henderson at Moroni, John P. Howells in Emery county, Z. L. Cobb at Richfield, George E. Blair at West Weber, J. M. Brinson in Summit county, Grant C. Bagley, H. N. Hayes and S. L. Page in Wayne county, P. S. Fernstrom at Milton, D. H. Morris and Joshua Greenwood in Iron county, Judge Powers at Morgan City at noon and at Payson in the evening. S. A. King and W. E. Rydahl in Utah county, Ferdinand Erickson and J. W. Cherry in Sanpete county, Judge Hart and F. K. Nebeker in Fox Elder county, C. A. Cailis in Summit county.

The American party will hold a rally in the Salt Lake theatre this evening. Senator Cannon and Judge Hiles will be the chief speakers. The drum corps and several vocalists will supply music.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the American party will hold a rally in the Grand theatre this afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. C. J. Crabtree will be chairman of the meeting and speeches will be made by George L. Nye, N. D. Corson, S. P. Armstrong and Frank J. Cannon. Mrs. Nelle Pinkerton Moore and the Utah Ladies' quartette will furnish music.

George Sutherland speaks at Bingham tonight, H. E. Booth at Mt. Pleasant, A. E. Irvine at Syracuse, Colonel Squires at Green River, T. C. Callister at Mona, Don C. Musser in Box Elder county, George M. Cannon and Joseph Howell in Cache county, Ben L. Rich in Wayne, M. C. Davis in Sevier, James Ingabretsen at Panguitch, Judge Reed at Logan, Judge Frick at American Fork, Judge Tanner at Mapleton, Jimmy in Weber county, Glen Miller at Huntington, George W. Moyer in Piute county, W. A. Lee in Tooele county, Harvey I. Cluff in Sevier.

James Christensen, Republican candidate for state treasurer, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Christensen expects to return to Richfield Sunday.

Colonel M. M. Kaighn returned from a speaking tour in Tooele county last night and brought news of an accident to Peter Clegg, Republican candidate for senator in the First senatorial district. While en route from Ophir to Mercer Tuesday forenoon the team belonging to Mr. Clegg was riding away down the canyon and overturned the buggy. Mr. Clegg was thrown heavily to the ground, breaking his left arm near the elbow, two or three fingers of the left hand and receiving severe bruises about the head and shoulders. He was taken to his home at Stockton.

The Democrats of the Second ward will hold a grand rally tonight, Friday, beginning at 8 o'clock in Thompson's hall on Cannon street and Seventh West near Franklin school house. There will be speaking by R. W. Sloan and George E. Blair. There will be good music and after the speaking is completed there will be dancing. Handicrafts are expected to be present. All Democrats and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

Advises to the Democratic state committee from Ephraim yesterday were to the effect that the registrar of that district had failed to keep his office open on the final day for registration, thus keeping forty-six names off the list. The committee at once arranged to forward blank affidavits to the unregistered voters of that district so that they will not lose their votes.

By request of the Democratic county committee H. C. Lund, candidate for county attorney, is preparing to bring mandamus proceedings against the registrar of the Sixteenth district. It is charged the registrar refused repeated application to register by William Thomas, a young man who resides in that district, on the ground that he is not a citizen. Mr. Thomas came to America when he was 2 years of age. His father is dead, but his stepfather, George C. Thomas, is a native-born citizen of this country. An effort will be made to force the registrar to place the name on his book.
