PITTSBURG IS NOW DICKERING WOULD INDICATE THAT BOB HAS FOR HIM FOR NEXT YEAR.

William Ralph Tozer, known to every baseball fan in Utah as "Toze, old boy." Arrived in the city yesterday from Los Angeles and will spend the winter in Salt Lake. While Tozer is a native of Missouri, he has sort of claimed Salt Lake shis home ever since he branched out as a professional bageball pitcher in the Salt Lake Ozden league three years ago. Ever since that time one could not convince the average Salt Lake baseball in the Salt Lake ox without one the average Salt Lake baseball in the Salt Lake ox on the coast.

Tozer said last evening that he had been reserved by Los Angeles for next season, but that there was a strong probability that Pittsburg would purchase his release. This club has made Manager Morley of the Los Angeles team a good offer for his release, and it is now only a question of price between Barney Dreyfus of Pittsburg and James Morley of Los Angeles as to whether the Sait Lake boy will get a trial in the biggest league of them all.

Tozer says the Coast league will probably continue for another season the same as it was this year, with the substitution of Spokane for Tacoma. He does not think there is much prospect of the north breaking away from California and forming a northern league along the lines of the old Pacific National league.

Tozer has accepted a position in one of Sait Lake's furnishing goods stores, where he expects to remain for the winter. Pozer said last evening that he had

NO WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENSE

Abe Hummel's Lawyers Concluded to | Cert. Name. Take Their Chances.

ARGUMENT IS CONCLUDED

THIS MORNING.

connection with the Dodge-Morse divorce litigation, today elected to allow his case to go to the jury solely on the evidence submitted by his accusers. The prosecution finished its case yesterday, and when the trial was resumed today counsel for Hummel anoffer any evidence in defense. Hummel's counsel contended that the jury should not believe the testimony of Charles F. Dodge, building their argument for the defendant around this point. Dodge was the first husband of Mrs. C. W. Morse. He testified yesterday that Hummel gave him several thousand dollars, and that he perjured himself in giving testimony to prove illegal his original divorce from Mrs.

Argument of Defense.

"There is but one point in this case for the jury to decide," said John B. Stanchfield of Hummel's counsel, "and Stanchfield of Hummel's counsel, "and that is, do they believe that Dodge, in the privacy of a law office, told Hummel that he had been served with the summents in his wife's divorce case? summons in his wife's divorce case? Dodge has admitted that he is a perjurer, and I don't think the jury can believe a liar who becomes a witness for the prosecution so as to escape going to prison for perjury."

Delancey Nicoll of Hummel's coun-

said to the jury:

Delancey Nicoll of Hummel's counsel, said to the jury:

"Th's crime which is charged is not one punishable by state's prison, but is only a misdemeanor. The district attorney has described this transaction as a conspiracy to break up a legal marriage and a bappy home. We have the facts that Mrs. Dodge-Morse herself believed the divorce she had secured from Dodge was tainted and that she had no right to marry again.

Woman Did Not Testify.

"If a wrong had been committed against her, why was she not called statististic? The best we know of her is that she is a fugitive in New Jersey. She was not called because she well linew that she had no right to marry Morse. And as to Dodge, I thought we would see an old, infirm man broken down in health by dissipating. Instead of that, we found him to be a stead of that, we found him to be a of health and with an acute mind.

"I can say that Captain James T.

Morse is not to be condemned for his act on in the case, for as guardian of the children he had to protect them in any legal way possible," declared Mr.

Nicoll. Plea for Hummel.

Mr. Nicoll concluded his speech by

"Why should you be asked to visit one law for the poor and another for in forest reservations. If he can the rich, in the persons of little Hummel and the rich and powerful uncle to get data which will aid him in "J'm" Has the time not arrived for you to say we will not be a party to one law for the rich and another for the poor?" and I ask row to the poor?" the noor?' and I ask you to say it."

When court adjourned tonight both sides had summed up. Tomorrow morning the charge to the jury will be made.
