

ALLEGED PLURAL HAS SWEETHEART

Lottie Greenwood, Mentioned by Clemenson, Said to Be Engaged to Salt Lake Man.

REED SMOOT LOCATES HER

SHE MAY BE CALLED AS WITNESS TO WASHINGTON.

Lottie Greenwood, alleged by Rev. N. E. Clemenson of Logan to be the plural wife of Senator Reed Smoot, is declared to be engaged to marry a student at the University of Utah. The student in question is highly incensed at the statement made by the Logan preacher, and an interview between the two would probably be highly exciting.

Miss Greenwood is at Colonia Dublan, Chihuahua, Mexico. In the event testimony is introduced to the effect that she is married to Senator Smoot in polygamy, she will be called to Washington as a witness to deny the charge.

Has Her Located.

As proving that Senator Smoot is not married to her, his friends say that he did not even know where she was. When the Clemenson story appeared in a New York paper, Senator Smoot wired President Brimhall of the Brigham Young University at Provo asking him to locate the young woman so that if it should become necessary, she might be placed on the witness stand. Senator Smoot was under the impression she was in Salt Lake. His friends say that if she was his plural wife he would have made it his business to have kept track of her whereabouts while he was under fire in the United States senate.

President Brimhall, after some investigation, found that Miss Greenwood was at Dublan, where she is employed in a store. Dublan has a Mormon population. The young man to whom Miss Greenwood is engaged lives there, or at least has relatives and friends living there.

Who Miss Greenwood Is.

Miss Greenwood's family lives in American Fork. She graduated from the Brigham Young University in 1900, and shortly thereafter went to Mexico, where she has been employed ever since. She is about 27 years of age.

Postmaster James E. Clove of Provo, a close friend of Senator Smoot, in discussing the matter over the long distance telephone last night, said: "I may be mistaken, but I am under the impression that Senator Smoot is not even acquainted personally with Miss Greenwood. As to the other woman mentioned by the Logan man in his interview, she is a myth so far as can be learned. Nobody but the man who told the story about her seems to know who she is."

John Henry Has Rheumatism.

All subpoenas in the Smoot case were served yesterday. Three of the witnesses from Salt Lake will go over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad and three over the Oregon Short Line.

John Henry Smith, one of those subpoenaed, is ill in bed from an attack of rheumatism. He will be excused from attending the hearing at Washington, unless he gets better soon.

SALT LAKE TRIES SUICIDE

W. Parr Grows Desperate Over Love of Chorus Girl in Los Angeles.

From Los Angeles comes the information that William Parr, a young man formerly of Salt Lake, attempted suicide in that city last week. Parr is a member of the Olympia Opera company which played at the Hotchkiss theatre in Los Angeles recently. He became infatuated with Miss Emma Ray, a chorus girl in the troupe, but his affections were not returned by the girl. He quarreled with the woman in her dressing room and cut his wrists with a nail file.

Stage hands were attracted to the room by Miss Ray's screams, and after breaking the door down found the young man lying on the floor in a pool of blood. The young man was removed to a hospital, where it is thought he will recover. W. Parr was prominent in local musical circles several years ago. He was at one time a member of the Apollo quartette of Salt Lake.

ALL COMPLETE WASATCH DRIVE

Commercial Club and Property Owners Resume Agitation for Finishing of Work.

MONEY IS ALL SUBSCRIBED

COMMITTEES WILL BE CALLED TOGETHER IN FEW DAYS.

After remaining in slumber for the winter the Wasatch drive project has again been brought to life. Action looking toward the completion of the boulevard from City Creek canyon to Fort Douglas will soon be taken by the committees of the Commercial club.

All the money necessary for the completion of the work has been subscribed. Part of this has been collected and is in bank. Estimates of the quantity of dirt to be moved on Eleventh street and in the canyon, together with the cost of moving it, have been submitted. All that now remains to be done is to let the contract for finishing the work.

Begun Thirteen Years Ago.

More than thirteen years ago, the first movement towards the building of a boulevard beginning at "Inspiration Point" and ending at the Penrose drive near Fort Douglas was made. A fund of $1,200 was raised at that time by the property-holders along Eleventh street. All of this amount was expended in grading Eleventh street. The city did not at that time agree to expend one cent for the boulevard.

When the panicky times of 1893 came upon the city, the active work on the boulevard was stopped for a time. In 1894 the relief committee spent about $150 and the city about $3,500 in work on the boulevard. This action was taken in order to give some of the idle men in the city employment.

Doremus' Report Submitted.

A. F. Doremus was appointed to make a report on the boulevard project. He has made to the city and the total cost of the work. Mr. Doremus' report was submitted some three months ago. He estimated that $5,000 would be ample to do all the work and make the boulevard a reality. Mr. Doremus' report has been made to the Commercial club committees for three months, but owing to bad weather conditions no attempt has been made to ask for bids or begin the work. This will probably be taken within a few days now, as the property holders are again demanding action be taken.

To the credit of the boulevard fund in Walker Brothers' bank, there is at the present time $2,675.50. The money stands in the name of F. W. Francis, trustee. This is but a part of the money subscribed for the boulevard. The money is available for collection and use within a few days after the beginning of the work. Mr. Quigley, of the Commercial club stated yesterday that it is his intention to call a meeting of all the old subscribers at an early date. Final plans will then be discussed and bids asked for. When once the work is begun it is the purpose of the property holders to have it rushed to completion and not allowed to die for want of support.

NOVIATIE SHRINERS WILL TREAD

HOT SANDS AND RIDE CAMEL TONIGHT

The Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine will hold its ceremonial session in Masonic hall of this city today. The regular business session will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremonial session will commence at 7 o'clock this evening and terminate with banquet, oblation, and a ride on camels. The number will be initiated, and there will be "much doing" every minute.

The initiation ceremony will be unique and original. Persons who have decided to cross the burning sands are promised a sure cure for egotism, conceit and swelled head, and are warned to be sure to "hang on to everything."

Other instructions are given to the candidates who will straddle the restless camel and wander across the burning sands. Attached to the programme is a ticket on the El Kalah Hot Air railroad. This ticket is nearly two feet long and covered with good things. Among the conditions under which the ticket is issued is that the bearer's baggage be fumigated and checked with a certificate from a board of health.

A long string of coupons—ten in number—are attached to the ticket and are the route to the temple where will be torn off by those conducting the excursion. To protect themselves from investigation the directors of the road announce that no rebates are allowed by the company. When the travelers reach their destination, the ride will be over the state will attend these sessions.

A feature of the evening's entertainment will be the military movements to be executed by the Arab patrol under the command of Colonel Sam C. Park. This patrol has been organized recently and will have charge of the night programme during the evening. Besides executing military movements the patrol will participate in the execution of the candidates.

FORM MACHINERY COMPANY

Capitalists Enter the Foundry Field—J. J. Daynes, Jr., and H. A. Silver at Head.

For the purpose of carrying on a foundry and machine business, the Hyrum A. Silver Foundry & Machine company will be incorporated with a capital stock of $150,000. All of the capital stock has been subscribed. The money will be spent in building and equipping a modern foundry and machine works on a tract of seven acres recently acquired by some of those interested in the new concern on Fifth North street, between Third and Fourth West.

Plans for three large and several small brick buildings have been prepared. Work on these will begin at once. It is expected that the plant will be in full operation by June 1. The foundry department of the concern will be ready for business within thirty days. Fifty men will be employed at the plant.

The officers and incorporators of the new company are: President, Joseph J. Daynes, Jr.; vice president and manager, Hyrum A. Silver; secretary-treasurer, Seymour B. Robbins. These, with George Silver, Arthur Winter, Ernest Ruml, C. L. Olson, Edward E. Jenkins and Willard Cannon, constitute the board of directors.

Some three months ago the Messrs. Silver, who have been coming into a foundry and machine works on the west side, sold out their interests. The formation of the new company is in no manner connected with the old concern. New machinery, new buildings and new capital will be utilized in the new machine and foundry works.

REDEER LEADS TO BLOODY AFFRAY

Vengeful Italian Laborer Stabs His Enemy in Quarrel on Street.

MIKE ANGELMO MAY DIE

GEORGE GIOVANNI, THE ASSAILANT, HELD IN CITY JAIL.

An old Calabrian family vendetta broke out again yesterday afternoon when Michael Angelmo, an Italian, living at 568 South Fifth West street, was stabbed, probably fatally, with a dirk knife in the hands of George D. Giovanni, another Italian, who lives in the rear of Angelmo's house. The stabbing took place in front of James Hegney's saloon on Fifth West and Second South streets. Giovanni made his escape, but was later arrested by Detective Joseph Burt. He will be held awaiting the outcome of his victim's injuries.

The dirk penetrated Angelmo's abdomen, inflicting a wound several inches in length and severing his intestines. Angelmo was taken to his home by friends. Soon afterward he became unconscious and was taken to St. Mark's hospital. He was placed on the operating table and according to the physicians' report will probably die.

Made Charge of Theft.

Angelmo and Giovanni met yesterday in Hegney's saloon, according to statements of a lawyer. Giovanni accused Angelmo of stealing kindling wood from his cellar. This was denied by Angelmo. Threats and angry words passed between the men, but some of their friends intervened. When Angelmo left the saloon Giovanni followed him. "Your wife stole wood from me last night," Giovanni said after they got out on the sidewalk.

"I saw her take it," Angelmo responded. "I saw her take it," Giovanni exclaimed in angry voice.

Plunges Knife In.

"You're a liar," Angelmo hurled at him and Giovanni pulled his knife. Angelmo tried to get away, according to the Italian witnesses, but Giovanni rushed at him and jabbed the knife blade into him.

Angelmo dropped to the sidewalk and Giovanni ran across the street into an Italian grocery store. From here he made his escape before the police were called. Angelmo was carried to his home, but was immediately afterward taken to the hospital.

For some time, according to the statements of Italians living in that neighborhood, these families have been quarrelling. One has accused the other of stealing from him and the members of the families have tormented each other in every possible way. The Angelmo family live in the rear of Giovanni's house and bad blood has been known to exist between the families for some time.

Angelmo is a laborer and has been employed for some time on railroad construction work about the Rio Grande Western yards. He has a family and is about 40 years of age.

For some time, according to the statements of Italians living in that neighborhood, these families have been quarrelling. One has accused the other of stealing from him and the members of the families have tormented each other in every possible way. The Angelmo family live in the rear of Giovanni's house and bad blood has been known to exist between the families for some time.

Evaded Officers for Awhile.

Giovanni evaded the officers in their search for several hours. He was seen on the street by some of his countrymen and it was learned that he had gone to a confectionery store at 61 East Third South street. Detective Joseph Burt went there and Giovanni gave himself up, and was taken to the police station.

Giovanni said that he used his knife in self defense. He exhibited a bruise on the side of his head and several marks on his throat. He says Angelmo attacked him when he accused him and his wife of stealing wood. Angelmo threatened him, he says, and attempted to choke him. Giovanni was committed to the city jail without bail to await developments in Angelmo's case.

It was reported early this morning from the St. Mark's hospital that Angelmo was resting easier and that there was some chance of his recovery.

FAMILY IS IN POVERTY.

Drunken Husband and Father Dealt With by Juvenile Court.

Isaac Wright, who has been frequently in the city jail, was up before Judge Willis Brown in the juvenile court yesterday on a charge of failing to support several minor children and of keeping them out of school. The evidence showed that Wright spends every cent he can get his hands on for liquor, and that his family is frequently left without food.

Judge Brown sentenced Wright to serve sixty days in the county jail, but suspended sentence upon the man's promise to reform and to support his family. When he fails to keep his promise he will have to go to jail.

The case of T. J. Evans vs. the Laramie Mining & Smelting company for 25,000 shares in the company, which plaintiff claims is due him for selling stock, was submitted without argument in Judge Morse's court yesterday and taken under advisement.

MEET TO MAKE BOYS BETTER

League Discusses Methods for Improving the Conditions of Juvenile Population.

SUPERVISING COMMITTEE ON CHARITIES IS NAMED.

The Juvenile Betterment League held the March meeting last evening at the Y. M. C. A., the business part being preceded by a dinner at which some thirty persons were seated. The meeting proper took place in the auditorium, and owing to the absence of the president, Benner N. Smith, Vice President J. A. Greenwald presided.

The members are making an effort to increase the membership and enlarge the scope of the organization, and the directors are pledged to canvass the city for members. The secretary, L. P. Judd, reported the selection by the directors of the following three men as a supervising committee on charities: Heber M. Wells, W. Montague Perry and Oscar L. Cox. The Manufacturers & Merchants' association and the Commercial club have already signified a willingness to work in connection with the organization.

Pictures Show Work.

A programme had been arranged consisting of some musical numbers and a series of lantern slides from the various helping institutions of the state, which were explained by some of those interested. Pictures showing the nature of the work done in each were shown from the Kearns St. Ann's orphanage, the State street orphanage, the Infants' Home and Protective association, the Morris school, the Y. M. C. A. and the state industrial school. A few words in regard to the aims of each organization were given by Captain M. M. Woods, Mrs. F. Dickert, Mrs. C. H. Mahon, Mrs. Hugh Park, Oscar L. Cox and Harry S. Joseph.

The last-named read in connection with his explanation of the work, a brief report, and spoke especially of the increased number of inmates in the institution since the working of the juvenile court law. This was followed by the explanation both by Mr. Joseph and by Judge Willis Brown of the effort to make the larger number of boys in the state industrial school mean a smaller number of men in the penitentiary in future years, meaning a saving to the state in money and manhood both.

Paul Talks on Altitude.

Professor J. H. Paul made an earnest talk for the interest and help of all who have the betterment of youth at heart. He held that boys in this high altitude are known by physicians to be more easily influenced either for good or bad than in other parts of the world. He argued that greater results were obtainable in this work than in any other in which a like amount of time or money might be expended. Professor Paul commended the work of Judge Brown in high terms, and spoke of the great mistake of expending money on criminals and withholding it from this work of prevention. He held that the work has been done heretofore at the wrong end, and that this is a move to begin the work at the right end.

The Aeolian orchestra, consisting of four boys, Henry Oberdorfer, Archie Cohn, Ralph Desky and Guy Alexander, furnished two musical numbers, and a cornet solo by Owen MacAleer, a member of the Boys' band, was another gem. Floyd Miles, also a member of the band, played a trombone solo, and Mrs. Kate Bridwell Anderson sang two numbers.

JOHN KOOYMAN IS JAILED

Pardoned Last Saturday, He Must Return to State Industrial School.

John Kooyman, aged 18 years; who was granted a pardon from the county jail last Saturday, was rearrested by the sheriff's office yesterday afternoon, and will be sent to the state industrial school at Ogden. It was learned yesterday that Kooyman was paroled from school about four years ago. His getting into trouble again was a violation of his parole, and he will now be held at Ogden until he is 21.

Kooyman was arrested last January for stealing a fur muff. Judge J. J. Whitaker of the city court sentenced him to 120 days in the county jail. Through the supplication of his mother, who, it is claimed, concealed the fact that he had once been in the state industrial school, the pardon was granted to him.

AMUSEMENTS

Pauline Hall was a name to conjure with twenty years ago in the days of "The Black Hussars" and "Ermie." Miss Hall somehow seems to have been before the public for a good many years. Perhaps some people expected last night to see a mild-mannered old lady with white hair toddle on and off the stage, and really it was almost a shock to see that there is no indication whatever of age about Pauline Hall. Time has not dealt gently with her; it has simply forgotten all about her. Her face is still youthful, and if her figure is, well, a trifle plump, what could be more natural?

"Dorcas" is not a great production, viewed from any standpoint. It is a queer mixture of comic opera and straight comedy, of eighteenth century clothes and manners and disregard for one's neighbors. There is a lot of twelfth century language and slang, and the chorus is entirely absent. "Dorcas" is never had a chorus, so the story goes. In spite of its inconsistencies, in spite of its close approach to the sort of stuff you wouldn't care to have your daughter see and hear, "Dorcas" is far from uninteresting.

John Yoder's "Water" song is worth the price. Mr. Young, by the way, is funny nearly all the time in the part of Yubin Muggy, the jumper. The sale of Ethel Comstock looked very well, as Lady Grace, and her song, "The Birds," reminded us of the song of a bird. "Dorcas" will be seen at the Theatre next night, matinee and evening, when the engagement comes to an end.

"A Fight for Honor" closes at the Grand today with two performances, matinee and evening. "The Moonshiner's Daughter" opens tomorrow evening and runs through the balance of the week.

"The High School Girls" give a matinee at the Lyric today. The
