GREAT RACING
AT SALT PALACE

Amateurs in Sensational Finish
Make One of Many Good Features.

Excitement in plenty hovered over the Salt Palace saucer track last night. There were spills in the motor races; spills in the flat races; Jack Johnson was introduced, and in fact, the bleachers had their two-bits' worth and interest at 100 per cent.

One of the spills, Samuelson in the motor race, spoiled one of the best matches of the kind seen in years. Samuelson drew the pole and was away, with Downing in striking distance all the time. A little after seven miles these Samsonson and the crowd saw the "Pride of Provo" skid up the track and then crash to the bottom, just in time to miss the onrushing Whittier and Downing. A back tire had punctured.

What the final sprint in the motor race would have developed is hard to say. The pace would have been just what was needed to split the challenge match between the two still coming, however.

Again Iver Lawson showed his old-time speed by snatching the three-mile mile untraced record of 24 1/2 to 23 4/5. His performance drew a big hand.

It was left for Jack Johnson and Wright, the leading amateurs, to figure in perhaps the most sensational finish the track has known. With two laps to go the pace had been hot throughout and the racing good. With two laps to go the final sprint started, Brodbeck turning McCormack loose in the lead, but Wright had jumped and snatched the pace and with McCormack on it looked like Wright, as seldom has he been rounded by an amateur. On the home turn into the stretch Wright swung a little high and McCormack, true to his name of "Burglar," seeing he could not go around, swung into the pole and put forth his finishing jumps.

Looked Like a Spill.

The two were sprinting like mad and the crowd gasped as Wright swung down on McCormack. The two bumped and a spill seemed inevitable, but it was not to come then. The far side McCormack on the cement, and even to the dirt at the finish line, the two were still going up pushing, and his wheel first crossed the tape. Once over he made a few convulsive wobbles and then plunged to the ground. It looked as if his head struck the cement where the south turn starts. After the bump Wright kept on holding his place on the track. McCormack was on his feet at once, and then applause, hisses and yells were heard on all sides. The crowd was divided and things were getting thicker when Manager Heagren managed to get the band to play "Gee, I Wish I Had a Horse."

Then came the announcement, McCormack was first, Wright second, Hume third and McCarty fourth. McCormack had won because he crossed the line first and had ridden within his rights. The N. C. A. had decided that a man entering the stretch must take his position and hold the same to the tape. This Wright had done and had held the pole on the home turn and in coming down had tried to regain the line he had lost, and the collision resulted. If any disqualifications were due, Wright should have been penalized.

At any rate such finishes make the bike game and the bike fan, and Salt Lake has a lot of them.

More Excitement.

Following a blanket in the half-mile open amateur, won by Wright, Jack Hume making a great ride on the band into second place, the professionals did their share in the unknown distance lap. With an evening breeze and yet a fast pace, the race went on and still the gun announcing two laps to go remained silent. After the lap men had dropped out it looked like two teams for the finish. Pye and Lawson and Hargrett and Hopper. Finally Hargrett and Hopper shot out and rode. He knew that Lawson was coming. Lawson was coming. Forced to pass three men, his was the overland route, and yet he made it. At the tape Lawson had less than a foot on Hopper, many thought Hopper had won. Walker was also up within a wheel length and everybody was on his feet. The Carls, leading the race, were held out to win the mile handicap professional, the back markers finding the pace too hot to get up.

Johnson Introduced.

Amid such a din that Dr. Fred Meakin, the announcer, could not hear himself. "What will Jeffries do to you?" "What will Jeffries have done to him?" were heard in the din about the same number of throats. Through it all Johnson grinned his "gold grin" and seemed glad to be there. As he drove off in his machine after the race the crowd had to be pushed out of the way. The summary:

Three-mile open lap, amateur—McCormack, Wright, Hume, McCarty. Time, 6:06.

Ten-mile motor-paced race—Downing first. Time, 13:41.

One-mile handicap, professional—Carls (60), Burris (50), Hume (50), Senhouse (50). Time, 1:47 3/4.

Half-mile open, amateur—Wright, Hume, Diefenbacher, McCormack. Time, 58 3/4.

Many Ponies Performing Which Will Later Race on Utah
Tracks.

Reno, Nev., Aug. 17.—The fifteen-day running meeting of the Nevada Jockey club opened here today with an attendance estimated at 5,000 people. The track was in perfect condition. The Riverside handicap was won by Bardonia, who beat out John H. Sheehan in a close finish. Results:

First race, four furlongs—Port Mahone, 116 (Christie), 3 to 5; won; La Chata, 116 (Andrews), 2 to 1; second; Poppy, 109 (C. Howard), 20 to 1; third. Time, .48.

Second race, four and a half furlongs—Myles O'Connell, 112 (Peak), 1 to 2; won; Jockey Kyle, 107 (Howard), 2 to 1; second; Billy Bird, 108 (Fraschi), 12 to 1; third. Time, .56.

Third race, four and a half furlongs—Mollie Montrose, 102 (Thomas), 1 to 3; won; Daisy Frost, 107 (Peak), 4 to 1; second; Lady Adelaide, 112 (Bledsoe), 10 to 1; third. Time, .54.

Fourth race, Riverside Hotel handicap, six furlongs—Bardonia, 109 (Peak), 6 to 1; won; Mollie Montrose, 102 (Thomas), 7 to 1; second; Velma C., 115 (Otis), 3 to 2; third. Time, 1:14 1/5.

Fifth race, seven furlongs—The Mouser, 107 (Christie), 7 to 1; won; Nappa, 107 (Eisenbath), 7 to 1; second; Deneen, 109 (Cotton), 5 to 1; third. Time, 1:23.

Sixth race, mile—Bliss, 107 (Christie), 7 to 1; won; Billy Meyer, 112 (C. Williams), 6 to 5; second; Lady Kitty, 115 (Peak), 6 to 1; third. Time, 1:15.

PLAN THE BEST CARD YET

Labor Day Racing at Wandamere
Promises Good Sport for All Concerned.

The management of Wandamere is planning a big race card for Labor day. With two successful meetings this summer already run, the Wandamere people are going after the Labor day card with both feet and intend to make it the best yet. Ed McLellan, manager of the park, has already secured the entries of the Provo, Richfield and Spanish Fork horses, with O'Brien possibly coming into line and the Bingham and local horses assured.

The card will feature a free-for-all trot and pace, another harness event, a 2:30 and a 2:40 mile race, and a 2:40 mile race coming toward Salt Lake from all tracks in the west, two nicely matched races in purse will be offered.

Twice beaten by the old warrior, Alzani, the Bingham crowd is seeking an animal to "get back" at the farm. It is probable that a Colorado horse will be imported. Whoever comes, however, Henry Haker and his big team will have plenty of backers.

NATIONAL TENNIS PLAY
PREVENTED BY WEATHER

Newport, R. I., Aug. 17.—Weather conditions today were unfavorable for the opening of the twenty-ninth annual tournament of the United States Lawn Tennis association on the Casino courts.

Port Ewen won the Queen City stake of $2,000 for 2:40 trotters. He won four straight heats. The Harvester was out in the lead and the still riding. Results: The Harvester won four straight heats, 2:19; 2:18; 2:17; 2:16. The Wolverine, Fair Margaret and Gladys also started.

THE HARVESTER WINS
QUEEN CITY STAKE

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 17.—The Harvester, Ed Green's unbeaten stallion today at Port Ewen won the Queen City stake of $2,000 for 2:40 trotters. He won four straight heats. The Harvester was out in the lead and the still riding. Results: The Harvester won four straight heats, 2:19; 2:18; 2:17; 2:16. The Wolverine, Fair Margaret and Gladys also started.

KILBURN SOME PITCHER.

The Garfield baseball team is very anxious to have the credit for the largest number of strike outs in the Oregon Short Line Garfield game of Sunday, given to Kilburn, the Garfield pitcher. The report sent in Sunday night gave Payworth the credit for fanning nineteen, but Garfield insists it was Kilburn. Even by their own admission, the Garfield team has as they do not give him credit for fanning four additional O. S. L. players "who reached base on the catcher dropping the third strike. There also goes the error mark. Kilburn is to be tried out by the Salt Lake Independents upon the claims of the Salt Lake town that it has a world beater.

ELKS SHOWING CLASS.

John P. Tobin, captain-manager of the Elks ball team, has issued a call for the second practice of his team at Walker's field tonight at 6:30. The practice Monday brought out some fast work from a dozen diamond stars and it looks as if the Ogdens bunch will have their hands full in the two teams meet in the memorable battle, Aug. 23, "Purple day at Lagoon."

DID NOT MAKE MONEY.

Jack Neve and his Idaho Falls team is again at home. He says that his Utah trip was not a financial success, the poorest games of all coming in at Salt Lake. The Idaho team played good ball, breaking even with the Independents, Occidentals, Park City and winning from Payson, Heber and Brigham.

TENNIS DATES ADVANCED.

In order to allow the presence of the Pacific coast tennis championships, the intermountain tennis championships have been postponed from August 22 to August 28. O. J. Salisbury yesterday telegraphed to McLaughlin and Hargrett in Newport, urging their presence at the intermountain championships.

SHRUBB BREAKS DOWN.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 17.—In last night's race Alfred Shrub, the runner, strained the tendons of one of his legs and is so seriously injured that he has cancelled all his season's engagements, principally in Seattle and along the Pacific coast.

SOX GET COAST STAR.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—The Chicago Americans have bought Rollo Zander, the star shortstop of the San Francisco Pacific league team. Two players not named and a large sum of money are said to have been given for him.

BIG EXHIBITION

TOUGHEN THE
BIG EXHIBITION

Fans on Edge for Johnson Card
at Salt Palace Saucer
Track.

MANY FEATURES OFFERED
THERE WILL BE GOOD SPORT—
CHAMPION'S BUSY DAY.

The big exhibition is on tonight. "Mistah" Jack Johnson, idol of the sons of Africa, and not a bad looking fellow, American, if the good impression he has made with the fans in Salt Lake is to be considered, will box four rounds at the Salt Palace saucer track. His opponent is Jack Price, a big and clever local boy.

From the talk heard on the streets near by everybody likes the manly art will be on hand. They can't afford to miss the treat and they know that the cards of any kind at the track are worth seeing. As well as the boxing, there will be three fast exhibitions and Manager Heagren has still others to fill in for good measure.

Johnson had a busy day yesterday. Despite the fact that his sleep was a trifle disturbed by the excitement, he was installed behind the steering wheel of a motor car. With a half-dozen delighted friends, the road was "burnt" to Murray. Then came a pasture and a hurry-up call for another car from Salt Lake. Johnson's colored friends were anxious to do the right thing in the entertainment line and they did it.

At the saucer track last night, where Johnson was introduced, an announcement was made that there will be an exhibition suitable for ladies, and it will be run in that light. Held's band and other features will be offered.

Was Glad to Get Out.

In speaking of the Orpheum hotel affair, Johnson said: "I am mighty glad to get out of that place. I have been used to good lodgings and they were not in sight there. I don't mind in the least. In fact I am glad I am in a private home and comfortable."

"No, there is nothing new today except a telegram from my manager, Little. He said he was tied up in Chicago and cannot get here until Thursday night. I will go to on with him to the coast. I like Salt Lake, fine."

The exhibition starts at 8:15 sharp. The program calls for four rounds from Pat Sullivan and Art Gardner, Andy Malloy and Jack Downey and Ern Wright and "It looks like a big time tonight."

JEFFRIES' MANAGER IS COMING THIS WAY

Chicago, Aug. 17.—Sammy Berger, the noisy and loquacious business agent of Jack Jeffries, departed tonight for the Pacific coast, whither he goes to receive bids for the proposed Johnson-Jeffries battle. Jeffries, a Denver sports editor, is back of the project to secure the bout, and it is understood he has the backing of several prominent business men. Berger will spend several weeks in San Francisco and will then return to Chicago when the big fellow comes from Europe.

HYLAND IS FAVORITE.

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—Dick Hyland and Monte Attell are the favorites with the betting fraternity for Friday night's glove contests at the Coliseum. The two are expected to meet in a 10-round match and 19 to 6 in the Cove-Attell bout. Even money is being offered that Cove will win the rounds, the limit set by the articles.

JACK JOHNSON WILL UMPIRE BALL GAME

The Occidentals and Bert Margetts' Independents will meet at Walker's field Thursday night. Jack Johnson, who is an ordinary game, for the umpire will be John Johnson. When the job was offered to Johnson yesterday the acceptance came at once. With the rivalry between the two teams to make the play good and an umpire whose decisions will not be disputed very long, the fans may look for some sport.

VETERANS DRINK
WATERED MILK

Leading Cafes in Salt Lake Are Charged With Violation of Pure Food Laws.

That watered milk was served in unlimited quantity to the veterans and others at the restaurants of Salt Lake during the G. A. R. encampment has been disclosed by an investigation made by the state food and dairy commissioner's office, and complaints have been issued against six restaurants by Heber C. Smith, deputy commissioner. It was found that samples of milk contained only 1.4 per cent of butter fat, whereas the state and city laws place 3.2 per cent as the minimum.

The complaints have been issued against the Kenyon hotel, Saddle Rock restaurant, Young's, Vienna, Star and the American. In all of these, Mr. Smith said he found that adulterated milk was being served. Samples were taken from milk served at each one. Mr. Smith said that in some cases poor cream was added, but even then the milk fell below the standard, but customers paid 10 cents a glass for it just the same.

MASSACHUSETTS CROWD
ON WAY TO SALT LAKE

Commercial Club Committee Will See
That They Have a Good Time—
Plans Made.

Word has been received by Fisher Harris, secretary of the Commercial club, that the members of the Board of Trade of Worcester, Mass., one hundred strong, will arrive in Salt Lake at 8 o'clock Thursday morning, en route from the northward to their home town. The party is in charge of Rev. J. L. Sewell, secretary of the organization, and a noted divine.

The visitors will be met by a Commercial club committee and accorded the usual reception to visitors in Salt Lake. They will be shown the city in the morning, will hear the organ in the Tabernacle and, after dining at the Commercial club, will continue on their way home at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

LAJOIE CANNOT
STAY IN THE RACE

LAJOIE CANNOT
STAY IN THE RACE

Adverse Criticism Brings Resignation of Cleveland's Leader.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 17.—Larry Lajoie, premier second baseman of the American league and manager of the Cleveland team for five years, today resigned the office, to take effect as soon as the club officials find a successor.

Vice President Somers attempted to have Lajoie reconsider his action, but the manager has brought the Cleveland team near the top of the league declared that he was through with the management, saying that he wanted to give some one else a chance with the team to see if they could do better. He promised in his letter to Somers that he would continue to give the team his best efforts at second base or anywhere it was desired to use him. Lajoie gave as his reasons the adverse comment of the public, not so much because of his own feelings, but because he declares the players are being unfairly treated and he wants to give them a chance to refuse such a charge.

It is known, despite Lajoie's declaration, that all the players have been giving him their best, that two of the team members have sworn to "show up" Lajoie and force his retirement.

CHEYENNE MOTOR RACE
MAY HAVE VICTIM

Cheyenne, Wyo., Aug. 17.—A serious accident, which will probably cause the death of Ernest Griffith, a driver of the Cheyenne Motor race track, occurred today in connection with the celebration of Frontier day. Griffith, who was driving a Ford car, was killed by a collision with a truck.

The race was won by Martin Fletcher of Denver, in an Oldsmobile. His time was three hours, forty-nine minutes and forty seven seconds, a world's record. Charles Base, in a Renault, was second, and Harry Hall, in a Marmon, third.

FIRST ACCIDENT ON
INDIANAPOLIS TRACK

Indianapolis, Aug. 17.—Clifford Littell of Dayton, O., a mechanic attached to the Stoddard-Dayton Automobile crew, was probably fatally injured late today in a fall under the wheels of one of his group of cars, while going to the motor track to prepare for this week's races.

The cars were proceeding in file at a rapid rate of speed when Littell, who was driving a Ford, jumped out of his car and returned to the garage for a tool. He stumbled and fell in front of a car following him. It passed over him, crushing his chest.

All of the drivers and their assistants were notified of the accident. They hurried to the scene and arrived within minutes and established quarters at the Speedway.

ODGEN CRACK LEADS IN BLUE ROCK SHOOT

Butte, Mont., Aug. 17.—Western Boosters' three days' trap shooting tournament opened today with a bang. The contest is being held on the grounds this morning with 125 marksmen engaging in ten events of twenty birds apiece. The professional shoot for targets only and do not participate in the money division. Ridley of Watcher, Ia., was the only one to jump out of the lead, today led in the score with 197 eases, out of a possible 200.

AMUSEMENTS

ADVANCE MAN FOR "GIRLS"

B. R. Clawson, Jr., Arrives in City and Learns Shubert's Attractions
Are Canceled at Grand.

B. R. Clawson, Jr., in advance of the Shubert production of "Girls," scheduled to be produced at the Grand theatre, was here today and learned that the production was cancelled with the rest of the Shubert bookings by the Grand theatre management, arrived in Salt Lake last evening. Mr. Clawson was unaware that the dates for "Girls" had been cancelled, and was surprised to find the theatre in the hands of the decorators.

After some trouble he located A. B. Jensen, manager of the Grand, and learned for the first time that his attraction had been cancelled. He is now endeavoring to induce the management to reconsider his action in cancelling these dates and hopes to put on "Girls" at the Grand the first half of next week as originally planned.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

The Orpheum theatre is doing record business this week, and this no doubt owing to the fact that Laddie Cliff, who has made almost as big a hit in this country as Harry Lauder, is the headline attraction. Laddie Cliff is a Scotchman, acts to support him and Cooper and Robinson are great favorites, the comedians of the theatre. The play is a most graceful and easy ragtime dancers in the country, and he also gives a side-splitting imitation of an automobile having a fit, which convulses the house. There are daily matinees at 2:15.

BUNGALOW THEATRE.

Miss Anna Cleveland, at the Bungalow, in "The New Magdalen," is creating the strongest kind of an impression. She has a lot to say for herself. The play is a most graceful and easy ragtime dancers in the country, and he also gives a side-splitting imitation of an automobile having a fit, which convulses the house. There are daily matinees at 2:15.

OLD FOLKS AT CORANTON.

One thousand old folks were the guests of the Corantion management yesterday afternoon at the matinee performance of the spectacular Mormon drama at the Corantion theatre. The matinee was free to all of the old people of the city and the theatre was well filled with gray-haired men and women. The play had in its original production six years ago and the opportunity to see it produced again was a decided treat.

IN TENNIS AND GOLF

MUCH INTEREST SEEN
IN TENNIS AND GOLF

Interest in golf and tennis at the Country club is on the ebb with the approach of the annual championships in golf and the intermountain tennis championships, calling out old and new talent in both lines.

The play-off in the August leg for the directors' cup stands at present with J. F. Judge winner over H. D. Niles, Will Browne over L. L. Savage, and J. T. Gilman victor over R. C. Gemmill. The F. E. McGurrin and J. C. Taylor match will be played Monday.

The tennis game has been further boosted by the presentation of a handsome challenge cup by D. C. Jackling, the trophy to be played for annually until won three times by the same player.

R. W. Salisbury this week lowered his 18-hole record from 78 to 76, and is playing in as good form seen on the links.
