

WOMEN PLANNING EXTENSIVE WORK

Important Measures for Advancement of Y. W. C. A. Decided Upon.

TO ORGANIZE CLASSES
General Secretary Will Be Sent Out by the National Board and Improvements Made.

Important measures looking to the advancement of the work of the Young Women's Christian association were decided upon at a meeting of the board of directors held yesterday morning in the association rooms in the Brooks Arcade. Dr. Anna L. Brown, secretary of the national board, who has been in the city looking over the field, strongly advocated extending the activities of the local organization in many directions, and her suggestions were adopted in all important particulars.

A general secretary will be sent out immediately by the national board to take the place of Miss Mabel Johnson, who recently resigned. She was trained in Y. W. C. A. work will be secured, and it is expected that under her leadership the influence of the association will be widely extended. The cafeteria in the Brooks Arcade will be reopened within the next two weeks and it is proposed to add class rooms and a gymnasium to the equipment there.

Many New Classes.
Night classes will be organized and full courses will be given along the lines of culture and practical need. French will be taught by Miss Marian Cook, German by Miss Mary Critchlow, advanced English and English literature, Mrs. William T. Hartley, stenography, Miss Georgia Hartley, travel and current events, Miss Cook, first aid to the injured, Dr. Katherine Eager, a normal Bible class will be led by Dr. William Paden, two other Bible classes will be organized, and courses in millinery and sewing will be offered. It is proposed to keep the rest rooms and class rooms open until 9:30 p. m., and to make the place an attractive one where young women will want to spend their free time. The reopening of the cafeteria was urged in a petition signed by several hundred women, and the gymnasium is another project warmly favored by them.

Mrs. Porter Chosen.
Fifteen directors were in attendance at the meeting, and in addition to deciding these important details of the work of the association, the selection of Mrs. Robert Porter to fill a vacancy on the board was made. Reports from the Y. W. C. A. home on West South, which showed excellent conditions prevailing, with an average residential membership of thirty girls. The extension of the work through the office and rooms in the Brooks Arcade the association's influence will be widely felt in the city.

RUMORS DENTIFUL, OTHERS TO THEM

Police Reporters Kept Busy Running Down Sensational 'Pipe Dreams.'

The Rumorbound, said to be an ancient and honorable society of "dope" users, held its annual jollification last night, attended by Chief of Police S. M. Barlow, with the result that police reporters danced around the news ring with their tongues hanging out in the eleventh round.
Scarcely had the "they say" and "they heard" begun to spread over the city faster than lightning. The menu opened with things that would not particularly have tempted the appetite of Chief Mayor John S. Bransford had he been there. He had been true. Fake reports after the following fashion were telephoned into newspaper offices:
Two deputy sheriffs have just been shot and killed deeper than railroad ties. Send the police reporter quick.
"E. E. Driscoll, the murderer of Policeman C. C. Riley, just escaped from the penitentiary. Bloodhounds on his trail. Send a reporter."
Julius Strain, murderer of Thomas R. Karick, cut his throat at the penitentiary. They're keeping it quiet.
"Four deputy sheriffs killed in a terrible automobile accident at Twelfth South and State streets."
Chief of Police S. M. Barlow until January 1.
Then the Rumorbound adjourned.

"No one is concerned with simply doing good to such people, in a lordly and condescending way. It is a wise ruler who knows the difference between the discontent of growing pains and the discontent that is simply volcanic."

DRY FARM MEETING MAY COME TO CITY

Salt Lake Plans to Capture 1912 Congress—Secretary Will Visit Here Soon.

That there is a strong probability of the 1912 Dry Farming congress being held in Salt Lake and that strenuous efforts are going to be made to bring the congress to this city, was the effect of a statement made last night by Joseph E. Caine, secretary of the Commercial club, following a meeting of the convention committee of the Commercial club yesterday afternoon.
The matter of entertaining the delegates to the Dry Farming congress two years hence was suggested by Professor L. A. Merrill, state astronomist, who attended this year's meeting in Spokane. According to Professor Merrill, there was a general feeling among the delegates at the Spokane congress that the best convention venue held by the advocates of dry farming was in Salt Lake City three years ago.

Mr. Merrill also told the members of the convention committee that there was a pronounced desire among the delegates to come to Salt Lake again because of the fact that this city is so centrally located in the dry farming district, and because he had already secured a large number of pledges for Salt Lake in 1912.
John T. Burns, secretary of the Dry Farming congress, will be in Salt Lake next Wednesday at which time he will be the guest of the convention committee of the Commercial club at luncheon. Mr. Caine and Professor Merrill are preparing plans for his entertainment and a strong plea for Salt Lake will be made to him during his stay in the city.
Efforts are also being made by the convention committee to bring the 1911 convention of the Commercial club to Salt Lake in either July or August next. The Commercial club was asked for its support in this matter by the Utah Bar association, and will give all aid possible. The exact date and place of holding the convention have not been decided, but it is believed this city stands, at least, an equal chance with other contestants to entertain the delegates.

If your want advertising is good, and properly persistent, IT WILL WIN.
