Mrs. Windsor V. Rice was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a bridge tea, given at her East South Temple street home. Eight tables of bridge were played, with other invited guests coming in for the tea that followed.

Pink and white were the decorations of the drawing room, library and hall. In the dining room Madame Chatman roses were used, a cut glass bowl of the pink blossoms forming the centerpiece of the table, where Mrs. J. R. Walker and Mrs. Robert B. Harkness poured tea and coffee. Assisting the hostess in entertaining during the afternoon were Miss Marguerite Rice, the Misses Hanauer and Miss Rookledge.

Another social affair of yesterday afternoon was a bridge tea given by Mrs. George W. Lambourne at her home in C street. The decorations were carried out in pink and white cosmos in pretty effect throughout the rooms.

The tea table, where Miss Selma Wall and Miss Annie Adams poured, was covered with a shiny lace cloth over pink. A cut glass bowl of cosmos occupied the center, from which bands of pink ribbon extended to the corners, terminating in bows.

Six tables of bridge were played, and the hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Ruby Lambourne, and Miss Calla Crane. Mrs. Lambourne entertains again this afternoon with a similar affair.

Miss Stella Ivey, whose marriage to Darrell C. Brough takes place this evening, has been the recipient of much social attention at the hands of her friends. Saturday afternoon Miss Helen Boes gave an Orpheum party followed by a supper at Franklin's, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanson entertained at cards for Miss Ivey and Mr. Brough. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. C. L. Westlake gave a five hundred party in honor of the bride-elect.

The Los Angeles Herald of October 25 contained the following description of a wedding, which will be of interest to the friends of Mr. Bally in Salt Lake.

A pretty wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Vincina Hart when Miss Harriet Hart became the bride of Emerson Roberts Bally of Salt Lake City. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. Warren F. Day of the First Congregational church in the presence of fifty guests. The house was decorated with white and gold, the colors of Mills college, where the bride was graduated. In one corner of the drawing room was erected a bower of yellow and white tulle and asparagus ferns, from the center of which were suspended three doves, under which the bride and groom stood during the service. The bride wore a becoming gown of white liberty satin covered with embroidered chiffon after the style of valenciennes was held in place by a spray of lilies of the valley, and she carried a shower of the same delicate flowers and white rose buds. Miss Martha Hunt, who assisted as maid of honor, was attired in white embroidered silk over pale yellow satin, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Misses Laura Gysin and Katherine Wells, who served as ribbon bearers, forming the aisles, were gowned alike in yellow and white, and Miss Katherine Wise in white lingerie frock with gold ribbons carried a basket with golden rose petals, which she scattered in the pathway of the bride. George Bradley served Mr. Bally as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Bally left for the east on their wedding trip, and will visit in Newton, Mass., before returning to Salt Lake City, where they will make their home.

The Rev. E. B. Short officiated at two weddings, when Miss Alta B. Richardson of Grand Junction, and Benjamin W. Blakeman of Salt Lake, were married at 629 Fifth avenue at 7:30 o'clock, and Miss Florence M. Hodgkins of San Francisco, and Henry C. Chausse, of Chicago, were married at 3 p. m. at the home of Dr. Short, 931 Third avenue.

Interest in the forthcoming Free Kindergarten vaudeville, which will be given for the benefit of the association on the evening of Thursday, November 10, is increasing as the plans are unfolded. Aside from the cast already published, which will appear under the direction of Mrs. C. E. Richards, the following names have been added: Mrs. John F. Cowan, Mrs. Elbridge L. Thomas and the Misses B. P. Allen Maclean, Mildred McMillan, Aurais Ellerbeck, Alice Wall, Loreen Leary, Lucille Franke and Louise Clawson.

Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey, whose voice is much appreciated in musical circles, will give the aria with full orchestra, which she sang with the Thomas orchestra in Chicago during her last visit in that city.

Miss Sarah Jane Cannon entertained the Daughters of Utah Pioneers yesterday at her suburban home. The rooms were attractive with a profusion of fall flowers and foliage, and the afternoon was spent in music and a general good time, followed by refreshments.

Miss Cannon was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Mamie S. Cannon, Mrs. Phoebe W. Snow, Mrs. Joseph J. Cannon and Miss Emily C. Wiley. Miss Lillie Hardy and Miss Mabel H. Cannon. Those present were Mrs. Z. Y. Card, president of the society; Mrs. Flora Horne, Mrs. Victoria C. McCune, Mrs. Libbie Rich Pratt, Mrs. Martha M. Gray, Mrs. Lillie Wolstenholme, Mrs. Effie E. Merrill, Mrs. Elizabeth R. Wright, Miss Kate West, Mrs. Ann C. Brown, Mrs. Minnie H. James, Mrs. L. J. Roundy, Mrs. N. W. Williams, Mrs. Louise Decker, Mrs. Margaret C. Mrs. C. W. Silvers, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Hines, entertained at a luncheon last Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. Clark of Aspen, Colo., and Mrs. Cramm of Meeker, Colo., who leave shortly for California. Covers were laid for nine.

Miss Sidney Howard, president of the L. T. C. club of the Granite high school, entertained the club and the senior and junior classes Saturday evening at the home of her aunt, Mrs. K. A. Brockbank. Green and white were the colors used in the decoration, and many beautiful flowers were seen. An important feature was a "Lovers' Lane." Games were played, and prizes were won by Miss Bertha Shepherd, Maggie Brasto, Grant Miller and Fred Fairbanks. Toasts were
