

Thanksgiving Day.

In honor of Thanksgiving Day the residents of this city and vicinity rested from their daily labors and observed the day in general holiday style by partaking of turkey dinners. Most all of our business houses closed and managers, proprietors and clerks had one day off. Our public schools closed Wednesday evening to reopen again Monday.

The hotels and restaurants all served special Thanksgiving turkey dinners to their patrons and friends.

General Thanksgiving was the order of the day and we, the residents of the Great Bear River Valley, have much to be thankful for.

The Josephine Deffry Co. drew a crowded house at the hall in the evening and presented the pleasing comedy drama, "A Grass Widow."

A good program at the hall in the afternoon would have been greatly appreciated. A number of our citizens spent the day in Ogden, Logan, Salt Lake and other cities of the state.

The sun shone out bright, but the day was a chilly November one.

JOSEPHINE DEFFRY AND HER EXCELLENT COMPANY.

Theatre goers of this city and near by towns have been treated to a number of high-class plays this week by the famous Josephine Deffry Co., and crowded houses have greeted the company each and every night. Every performance has given perfect satisfaction and merited the crowded houses. Miss Deffry is a star actress and is well supported by strong cast whose highest aim is to please and entertain the theatre going public.

It takes a good company to fill a week's engagement in a town of this size and draw crowded houses every night. Josephine Deffry Co., did it, and can do it again as soon as the company chooses. "We like your style."

Following is the list of plays presented during the week:

Monday night—"A Wicked Woman."

Tuesday night—"A Sister's Sacrifice."

Wednesday night—"A Ruined Life."

Thursday night—"A Grass Widow."

Friday night—"Fernande."

Tonight the company closes the week's engagement with the famous production, "La Belle Russe."

The company has a two night's engagement in Malad, one night in Brigham and one in Kaysville and then leaves for the coast.

Come again, you'll always find a warm welcome in Garland.

The Difference In Farms.

Did you ever drive along a country road and notice the difference in farms? Soil conditions and other essentials are identical in many places yet there is a vast difference in both growing crops and character of improvement. Why is this? Farmer Slothful don't get on, but gets poorer each year. Ten to one he has never been within speaking distance of a bank. If he had any backbone at all he would be like Farmer Thrift, who lives half a mile down the road.

Some one has said we are never too old to learn. Likewise we are never too old to save and take a new lease on life. If things have not been going right and conditions seem to have been against you, brace up—come in and talk it over with us and if we can possibly help you, we will do it. We know of many discouraged people who have regained confidence and consequently prospered just by putting a dollar into a bank account regularly.
