Thursday afternoon Mrs. John M. Bladen entertained a number of lady friends in her home on South Main street.

A birthday party was given Sunday at the home of William N. Corry in honor of the 70th birthday of Mr. Andrew Corry. Relatives and friends to a number that filled all available room were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Janie Wilkinson entertained a number of her pupils of the public schools one day last week by a trip up the canyon.

The young men of the Branch Normal are planning a rabbit hunt for the near future. Inasmuch as many of the students are non-residents and would not be benefitted by the killing off of the rabbits, the farmers are asked to assist in the purchase of ammunition.

It is reported that a change will be made in the county road between Cedar City and Hamilton's Fort, the plan being to designate the road west from this city by way of the Higbee farm as a state road, the road supervisor favoring this route.

Mr. and Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Olson's sister, residents of Price, passed through Cedar City Thursday on their way to visit Bishop Barton of Paragonah, father of the ladies. This is their first visit to this county in twenty-nine years.

Dr. E. L. Gower of Parowan of the firm of Drs. Gower & Rogers, was in Cedar City Monday for the purpose of making final arrangements for the installation in this city of a dental office. Offices have been secured in the Knell block and it is the intention of the doctors to have their equipment installed and the office ready for business on Monday next. The office will give the doctors two offices in Iron county. They are gentlemen in every sense of the word, pleasant, courteous and conscientious, and stand high in their profession, and will be a valuable addition to this city's growing business interests.

If your children are subject to attacks of croup, watch for the first symptom, hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off. For sale by the Palace Drug Store.

W. N. and R. E. Fletcher left this morning for a trip through the western part of the county. They will visit Newcastle, Enterprise, and other places, returning Monday.

Winter Protection of Trees.
Mulching in spring and summer is very valuable for transplanted trees, but is dangerous in winter, as the straw furnishes a hiding place for the ground mice, which would ruin the trees by eating the bark. The winter protection of the young trees should be the mound of earth, a foot or so high and eighteen inches in diameter.

The regular monthly priesthood meeting was held in the tabernacle Saturday night. A resolution was passed asking the representatives from this county to introduce a measure before the legislature that would prevent the shipment of liquor from wet counties into dry counties. A committee consisting of Jos. Fife, H. H. Lunt and S. J. Foster was appointed to cooperate with the Commercial club in the matter.

A special meeting of the city council was held Wednesday night for the purpose of passing a resolution respecting the enactment of additional legislation governing the sale of liquor. A resolution was passed asking the senator from this district and the representative from this county to work for and support such legislation as would give the officers of cities greater power in handling the liquor traffic.
