

RESUME WORK ON HARVESTING

Conditions Improve in North Ogden Farming District

NORTH OGDEN, Oct. 27.—After a tie-up of two weeks in the sugar beet and other harvest operations, due to the continued rain and snow, work on the crops has been resumed in the North Ogden district. Mrs. Frances Ward has been spending a few days at Preston, Ida., with her son, Julius H. Campbell, to whose wife a son was recently born. The mother was formerly Miss Hulda Lundsted of Salt Lake, and a former school teacher at North Ogden. John Q. Blacklock has been chosen head of religion class work in the Ogden stake, after serving since September 22, 1918, in the stake superintendency of Sunday schools in the stake. Mrs. Sarah Roylance, widow of Hyrum Roylance, has returned from an extended visit with a number of her children at Hancock and Emery, Ida. Arrangements are being completed for a Temple excursion to Salt Lake November 4, in connection with other visits of the Ogden stake. Eight excursions have been made this year, three to Logan and five to Salt Lake, with an average of 43 attending from this ward. Charles Leroy Orton, son of Charles E. and Zina May Chugg Orton, who sustained severe injuries in a recent accident in Ogden, is improving. Mrs. Isabel Montgomery, who recently sustained some injuries in a fall in her door yard and was temporarily confined to her bed, is now convalescing. Miss Myrtle Blavlock and brother, Gerald, left last Wednesday on the midnight train for San Francisco and will make their future home in California. Samuel Shaw is planning a modern residence on his property fronting on Washington avenue. Alma Montgomery recently made a business trip to Elko, Nevada.

B. R. T. CHIEF TALKS IN OGDEN

F. J. Speckmyer, Deputy President, Addresses Local Lodge

"Of the 20,000 switchmen, who were expelled from the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen as a direct result of the outlawed strike, 15,000 have returned to the fold and promised to be good," said F. J. Speckmyer, deputy president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, who addressed members of the local lodge last night in the Eagle hall. Mr. Speckmyer who lives in Oakland is making a tour of Trainmen lodges in his district. With him last night J. C. Davis, general chairman of the Oregon Short Line and of the Ogden Union Railway & Depot company. The "deputy president urged the trainmen to take more interest in voting and to make a study of the ballots before casting their votes. He compared the growth of the trainmen organization with other railroad lodges and said that the trainmen are growing at the rate of 250 new members monthly. The present membership is about 200,000, he said, an increase of 3000 since the outlawed strike of the switchmen. Up to July the order has paid $48,366,747.33 for death and disability of members. It was reported at the meeting. Benefits paid for members who have died of causes directly traceable to influenza amounted to $2,144,460. The order has invested in municipal bonds to the extent of $5,962,955.52, it was said, and $20,000 has been invested in Ogden city waterworks bonds. Cash on hand to the credit of the order at the close of June amounted to $5,681,223.52, the report stated.

Anita Stewart Plays At Orpheum Tonight

The most dazzling assortment of jewels and gowns ever worn by Anita Stewart will be seen in her latest First National picture, "Harriet and the Piper," at the Orpheum theatre for the last time today. In one scene she appears as a "queen of Greenwich Village," wearing a bizarre princess costume, heavily laden with gems and beads, and displaying a brilliant featured headpiece. The settings, which are true reproductions of Greenwich Village studios, were arranged by Director Bertram Bracken, who made a special trip to New York's famous Bohemian quarter to get atmosphere for the production.

REPUBLICANS PREDICT MIDDLE WEST VICTORIES

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The political situation in the middle west "now settled into its final form," indicates Republican majorities so enormous that one hesitates even to mention them. John T. Adams, vice chairman of the Republican national committee, declared today in a statement. He declared Minnesota would go for Harding more than 100,000; that the Wisconsin support of Harding was so great there was no national campaign in that state; that Illinois will show a plurality for Harding which probably will be around 350,000 and that Indiana was safe for Harding. "In Nebraska the Democratic organization is moribund," he continued. The Republican majority in that state will be unusually large, at least 50,000. "In Iowa Harding and Coolidge will gain by well over 100,000," Senator Cummings will pull through, but he will run considerably behind the national ticket. "North and South Dakota will show a vote about three to two in favor of Harding and Coolidge. The majorities will not be enormous, but they will be sure."

Need American Men in France

PARIS.—Wanted, Americans to become Frenchmen. Dr. Paul Carnot, anxious because there are 2,000,000 more women than men in France, suggests that Americans be imported as husbands. Because, he says, there is an excess of men in California, he urges Californians to emigrate. Dr. Carnot is a professor at Beaujon Hospital here.

Final Day in Ogden For Registration

Today marks the final day of registration for the general election next Tuesday and warning was sent out this morning from the county clerk's office to prospective voters that persons whose names do not appear on the books will not be entitled to cast their ballots. The registration hours today are from 8 o'clock this morning until 3 o'clock tonight, although it is probable that persons may get their names on the books after this hour. In view of the fact that more than 5000 voters did not cast ballots during the last election due to the epidemic of influenza and their names were dropped from the list, it was urged that persons check with the registration books in order that they may not be disappointed when they appear to vote next Tuesday. Registration is reported to have been unusually heavy yesterday and this morning and hundreds are expected to appear at the registration places this afternoon and tonight.

LEAGUE ACCEPTS ROOT WORLD COURT PLANS

BRUSSELS, Oct. 27.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of the League of Nations approved today the plan for a permanent court of international justice as adopted by The Hague committee of jurists with the exception of the provision for obligatory jurisdiction and some minor matters. Those parts of the plan generally attributed to Elihu Root, were accepted in their entirety. The government has 2,000,000 pairs of handcuffs for sale, left over from the A. E. F. equipment. Somebody evidently must have thought we were going to capture more of the German army alive.—Tacoma Ledger.

COURAGE

The lack of it in Senator Harding is turning a great wave of Republican sentiment to Governor James M. Cox. The League of Nations cannot be a reality if Harding is elected unless--

"SOMEONE SUPPLIES HIM WITH THE LOGIC AND COURAGE WHICH HE NOW SO NOTORIOUSLY LACKS."

"IF COX IS ELECTED THE TREATY WILL BE RESUBMITTED TO THE SENATE AND HE WILL SEEK AGREEMENT ON ANY REASONABLE AND SINCERE BASIS."

"IF HARDING IS ELECTED HE WILL HAVE TO VIOLATE ONE-HALF OF HIS PRONOUNCEMENTS AND FIGHT THE VERY MEN HE IS AFRAID TO FIGHT NOW TO RESUBMIT IT AT ALL ON ANY BASIS."

"WITHOUT SUCH RESUBMISSION EVEN A UNANIMOUS SENATE COULD NOT PUT US INTO A LEAGUE OF NATIONS, EVEN WITH UNANIMOUSLY SATISFACTORY RESERVATIONS."

THE BEGINNING OF A LANDSLIDE

The above are excerpts from a telegram sent to Senator Key Pittman, manager of the western headquarters of the Democratic National Committee, by

CHESTER H. ROWELL

Former Republican State Chairman of California
A Member Four Years Ago of the Republican National Committee

"I Consider It My Republican Duty to Support Governor Cox"

THE TELEGRAM

"In view of the frankness and courage with which Governor Cox has demolished Elihu Root's attempt to put him in an impossible position on the League of Nations, I can no longer refrain from authorizing you to announce me definitely a supporter of Cox. I have not become a Democrat. I am still a Republican.

"I agree that the course outlined for Senator Harding by Root, Taft, Hoover and others is the logical one, and if he is elected I shall be glad to support them in urging him to carry it out; but, while their logic is clear, there is no indication that Harding understands it, and it is still uncertain which group of leaders will intimidate him after election.

"The irreconcilable opponents of any League are intimidating him now.

"In either case, I would rather support a living man than a passive object for president.

"Cox has boldly met the attempt to jockey him into one impossible position on the League.

"Harding has weakly allowed himself to be intimidated into the opposite impossibility.

"If Cox is elected the treaty will be resubmitted to the senate and he will seek agreement on ANY reasonable and sincere basis.

"If Harding is elected he will have to violate one-half of his pronouncements and fight the very men he is afraid to fight now, to resubmit it AT ALL ON ANY BASIS. Without such resubmission even a unanimous senate could not put us into the League of Nations, even with unanimously satisfactory reservations.

"I, therefore, disagree with my Republican pro-League friends, who argue that the election of Cox would continue the present deadlock, while the election of Harding would reopen negotiations.

"The election of Cox would reopen the question automatically on a basis promising practical agreement.

"The election of Harding could reopen it only if someone would then supply him with the logic and courage which he now so notoriously lacks.

"If he is elected I will give my support to those who are trying to furnish that courage, but I cannot take the responsibility of contributing even my personal vote to his election.

"Whatever was the case earlier in the campaign, the League of Nations is now the issue. As former Republican State Chairman and member four years ago of the Republican National Campaign Committee, I consider it my Republican duty to support Governor Cox."

(Signed.)
"CHESTER H. ROWELL."

DOROTHY GISH NOW HAS A LITTLE GREY HOME IN THE EAST

Picture Star Is Great "Homebody"—Coming Here in Latest Comedy

The greatest "home-body" in the film world is lively little Dorothy Gish. She has lived all her life with her mother and her elder and famous sister, Lillian, and simply will not stand being separated from them. They tried going it apart in 1917. Mrs. Gish and Lillian went abroad and Dorothy stayed behind. But the next boat, Dorothy came tumbling after. Then, some time later, Dorothy came to New York alone from California to make a series of "personal appearances." The further east the train speeded, the more home-sick she became. She spent just two days in New York, then took the fastest train she could find headed west.

As soon as it was settled that the Gishes were to make their abode permanently in the east, they started looking for a house near the Griffith studio at Mamoroneck, about twenty miles out of New York. A large old-fashioned country home, with gravelled drives, rose hedges, and flower beds, was selected. So Dorothy, who had faced being transplanted from California to New York with fear and trembling, is very happy now. Her lively spirits are reflected in her new Paramount picture, "Little Miss Rebellious," which will be the attraction of the Alhambra theatre today and tomorrow.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts and Flush Kidneys And Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes some times with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.
