

A New and Better Year

—A New and Better Service

And now, at the beginning of another New Year, which promises greater prosperity for all, we wish to extend to everybody our most sincere wishes for a happier year than ever before.

Our idea of better service that we inaugurated the first of December—just past—that of selling shoes for cash—is for your benefit. And it indeed means better service—it means you can buy shoes of quality at real savings—it means that you will always have the satisfaction of knowing the shoes on your feet are paid for.

The savings you make here, due to the cash system, will surprise and delight you at the end of 1920. Make it a year of thrift by buying your shoes at Clark's.

HAPPY NEW YEAR! IT'S TIME TO BEGIN FIGURING OUT YOUR INCOME TAX REPORT

Happy New Year!

It may be happy but it is also the time for worrying about the annual income tax statement, for with the opening of the new year comes the first date for filing income tax returns.

Heavy penalties are imposed for those who fail to file their returns between January 1 and March 15. The full tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or, if it is desired to make the payments in four installments, the first must be paid by March 15, the second by June 15, the third by September 15 and the fourth by December 15. The period for which the income tax is assessed is the calendar year of 1919.

The ordinary taxpayer will not be obliged to pay quite as much as last year, although the rate still is far greater than pre-war rates.

The exemptions of $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons and heads of families remain the same as far as 1918. The normal rate for 1919 is 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. Last year the normal rate was 6 and 12 per cent, respectively.

Surplus Remains Same

Surplus ratios are the same as last year. They start with 1 per cent on the amount of net income between $5,000 and $6,000 and increased by steps of 1 per cent for each $2,000 of net income up to and including 48 per cent on net income in excess of $95,000 and not over $100,000. The surplus on $100,000 is 52 per cent; on net incomes over $100,000 and not over $200,000 it is 56 per cent; on net incomes over $200,000 and not over $300,000 it is 60 per cent; on net incomes over $300,000 and not over $500,000 it is 64 per cent; on net incomes over $500,000 and not over $1,000,000 it is 64 per cent, and on net incomes over $1,000,000 it is 65 per cent.

Besides the exemption of $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married, there is an additional exemption of $200 for each dependent under 18 years of age.

Every person whose income equaled or exceeded $1,000 for single persons or $2,000 for those who are married must file a return, regardless of whether the income is large enough to require the payment of the tax.

Forms for making returns will be available at offices of collectors of internal revenue and deputy collectors, postoffices and banks. What is known as form 1040, is for use of those with incomes of $5,000 or less, while form 1041 is for those with larger incomes.

Returns Available Soon
Taxpayers must report under gross income salaries, including bonuses, interest received on notes and from bank deposits, dividends or stock, profits from the sale of property, profits from stock market transactions, income from fiduciary, partnership profits and royalties from mines, oil wells, patents, copyrights and franchises.

Items which are not taxable and need not be included in the return are property received by gift or inheritance, proceeds of life insurance policies, endowments or annuities, contracts, amounts received through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts, interest on obligations of any state or any city, town, county or village, interest on Liberty bonds to the par value of $5,000, interest on securities issued under the federal farm loan act, and amounts received during the war by persons in the active military or naval forces up to $3,500 in addition to personal exemption.

As to Deductions
Deduction from gross income in determining income includes all business expenses in the conduct of business, trade or profession, and a reasonable allowance is made for depreciation of business property.

Contributions or gifts to charitable, religious or educational societies may be deducted to an amount not exceeding 15 per cent of the taxpayer's income.

The rates for the current year are to be 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemption, which is $2,000 for married persons and $1,000 for single persons, and 8 per cent on the net income in excess of $4,000, minus the exemptions. The rates paid on the 1918 income were 6 per cent and 12 per cent, respectively. Surplus ratios remain the same as last year.

NEW DEFENSE FINISHES CASE IN MURDER TRIAL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 31.—Except for expert testimony, the defense finished presentation of its case late today in the trial of Harry New, alleged murderer of his fiancée, Freda Lesser. Adjournment was taken to Friday morning.

Eight witnesses were called during the day, of whom the most important was Miss Edna Clancy, half sister of New, who testified she believed an innocent act of hers was indirectly the cause of Miss Lesser's death. In addition Miss Clancy, as did another witness of the day, testified that New was mentally unsound.

Miss Clancy told the jury she had introduced New to Miss Lesser while the three were working for a business house. When she learned several months later they were engaged to be married, the witness said, she urged New not to marry, as he was not a fit man, mentally or physically, to be a husband and father.

New ignored her request, Miss Clancy stated, so she urged Miss Lesser to break the engagement, but to do so tactfully, deferring the wedding from time to time, and to use care not to hurt New's feelings.

It is the theory of the defense that Miss Lesser broke the engagement immediately and that New, enraged, shot his fiancée. Miss Clancy said her conversation with Miss Lesser occurred only a few hours before the latter's death.

George Gallagher, county jailer, said he thought New was "insane at times."

H. L. Anderson of Venice, a nearby beach resort, testified that New attempted to borrow $100 from him to defray the expense of marrying Miss Lesser and he lent him $10 for this supposed purpose a few hours before New's fiancée was killed. This witness said New was insane in his opinion.

Several others testified briefly they considered New mentally unbalanced. "Mildly insane," "irrational," and "irresponsible" were some of the descriptive terms used.

COUGHED DAY AND NIGHT.

John Vognue, Elberton, Ga., writes: "Last fall, when my neighbors were down with influenza, I took a severe cold and before I was aware of my condition I was down sick in bed. I coughed night and day and my throat was raw and sore. I got bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and took eight small doses in two hours. My condition began to improve and in a few days I was as well as ever. In my opinion Foley's is the best cough medicine made." A. R. McIntyre Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Gallons of Liquor Taken in Sheriff Raid

Sixty gallons of homemade wine, one gallon of brandy, three-quarters of a gallon of red whisky, two quarts of corn whiskey and nine quarts of beer were taken in a raid tonight by Sheriff H. C. Peterson at the residence of Emile Bellenbach, 2107 Lincoln avenue, the officer reported. Bellenbach is in the county jail and is charged with having possessed liquor.

The raid was conducted by Deputies Joseph Chadwick, Bert Crites and William Brown. According to Sheriff Peterson, complaints have been made to his office recently that liquor was being sold in the neighborhood of the house raided. A cider mill and a still were taken in the raid.

A great many people are collecting old magazines for the advertisements of good old Scotch whisky they contain.

SAMUEL GOMPERS PLEDGES LABOR TO THE NATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—(By The Associated Press)—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a New Year statement, pledged America's workers to do their full share in working out the country's problems of 1920. Mr. Gompers said:

"America's workers stand ready in the new year as in the past, to do their duty as American citizens. We have always placed our obligations as citizens above all else. As citizens we are true to the American ideal of equal opportunity for all."

"In the past we have found it necessary to fight for what ideal against agencies that sought to establish special privileges. Those fights have not been in defense of class advantages, but to assure to wage earners the rights and opportunities all should possess. Our struggles may have brought discomfort to others, but they prevented a greater evil—deterioration of the vitality of a part of the nation."

"The great struggle of labor in the past has been to assure to workers in their industrial relations the rights of free citizens. We have fought to give the ideal of America dominating influence in shops and factories. Our militant struggle has won general recognition for our demands. But our work is not all militant. We are in a position to contribute to the improvement of production processes and organization."

"The immediate problem of the world is to develop a production organization that will benefit directly those who are the real producers and will also serve the needs of starving nations. When assured of just dealings, America's workers are able to co-operate in freeing production from the preventing grasp of speculators and influence that manipulate industry to enrich a few who gain unfair advantage, thus preventing production, for the ruin of all."

"This is a big job, but it is essential for well grounded development in the years to come. It is essential to that ideal which is America—equal opportunity for all. America's workers will do their full share in working out all our country's problems."

"Hail to the new year, 1920. May it bring freedom, glory, and happiness to all our people."

FASTED SEVERAL DAYS AT A TIME

Emoryville Woman Lost 39 Pounds Before Health Restored by Tanlac

"I now feel perfectly splendid since Tanlac restored me after a nervous breakdown," said Mrs. Lela Pitts of 1302 Sixty-fifth street, Emoryville, Cal., recently. Mrs. Pitts has lived in Emoryville for thirteen years and is known to a wide circle of friends.

"I have fallen off so much I was almost a shadow of my former self," she continued, "and I was so nervous the striking of a clock would sometimes upset me so I would tremble and shake like a leaf. Night after night I would get no rest at all and would have to lie down for several hours every day. I had no appetite and the sight or smell of anything to eat was so unpleasant to me I would go for days at a time without touching a bite. I lost thirty-nine pounds and got so weak I could hardly get about the house. My head ached terribly and almost continually, and sometimes I would be so dizzy I thought I would faint. I also had rheumatism and my hands at times were as stiff as boards. For the last year every joint in my fingers ached and throbbled so I could hardly stand it. I took medicine and treatments nearly all the time but nothing gave me any relief and I got worse instead of better."

"One day a friend made me promise to get some Tanlac and the very first bottle made me a lot better. After taking four bottles I am in splendid health. My nerves are so steady nothing ever startles me and I sleep soundly for nine hours every night. When I get up I feel so refreshed and strong I never have to rest in the day any more. I am hungry nearly all the time and eat heartily of everything without any bad effects afterward. My rheumatism is gone and my hands are as supple as they ever were."

"I feel so grateful to my friend and to Tanlac I shall never be able to repay them for what they have done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Ogden by A. R. McIntyre Drug Co. Two busy stores.—Advertisement.

RICHARD W. YOUNG IS LAID TO REST IN SALT LAKE

SALT LAKE, Jan. 1.—Bowing their heads in reverent sorrow, more than 10,000 citizens of Salt Lake and Utah yesterday afternoon assembled in the tabernacle to pay a last tribute to the memory of Brig. Gen. Richard W. Young, Utah's scholar, jurist, churchman, educator and "soldier-citizen."

Thousands having crowded into the immense auditorium some time before the scheduled hour of the services, the program was begun promptly at 2 o'clock with the "March Funere" from the "Sonata Pathétique" by Beethoven played by Prof. J. J. McChellan at the organ. A hymn by the augmented tabernacle choir preceded the opening prayer by Apostle Orson F. Whitney, who extended the sympathy of the L. D. S. church to the bereaved widow and the members of the late general's family.

After a musical number by the Eighteenth ward quartet, composed of Will G. Patrick, George D. Pyper, H. G. Whitney and John B. Spencer, an address was made by W. W. Ray, former United States district attorney, on behalf of the Utah Bar association, members of which were coworkers and friends of the late general in his civilian profession in Utah.

Further tributes were paid by Maj. Wesley E. King, who characterized the death of General Young as a national loss, and by President John M. Knight of Ensign stake, who told of the activities of the general in charity work. A ringing encomium spoken by Apostle Melvin J. Ballard, who, citing the life of the soldier-citizen as a example of self-sacrifice to high ideals, said that the general had died with the words, "God is merciful."

Apostle Ballard was followed by President Heber J. Grant, who presided. President Grant told of his lifelong intimacy with the Utah man. The program, carried out simply at the instance of Bishop C. Clarence Nelsen who had charge of the funeral arrangements, concluded with a solo, "Oh, Dry Those Tears," by Mrs. Emma Lucy Gates Bowen, and a number by the choir, "Rest, Rest For the Weary Soul." After the benediction had been pronounced by Bishop George Romney, Professor McChellan played Chopin's "Funeral March."

HE FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN.
Rheumatic pains, backache, pains in sides, sore muscles, stiff joints or an "always tired" feeling are usually symptoms of disordered kidneys. W. W. Wells, Toquim, Mich., writes: "I am on my feet most of the time and get tired. But after taking Foley Kidney Pills I feel like a new man. I recommend them to my customers and have never heard of any case where they did not give satisfaction." Prompt in action to relieve kidney troubles and bladder ailments. A. R. That's like listening to your own funeral dirge.

ENTRIES BEING MADE FOR BIG LIVESTOCK SHOW IN OGDEN

Entries for the Ogden Livestock Show are being received daily, according to Secretary R. C. Evans. The list of entries is increasing each day. Cattle have already been entered from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Nebraska. In Utah cattle from Provo, Logan, Lehi, Ogden valley and numerous other points have been entered. With the last day of entry but a few days away it is expected that Utah owners will be well represented at the show which will open here Thursday, January 8, for a period of three days. Cattle men from all points in the west are arriving daily for the big show, according to Secretary Evans. The entertainment program is now complete and the officers on the entertainment committee expect to show the visitors a real time.

Some horses may be safe for women to drive—but we'd never say that about a man.
