Not the least of the many varied attractions of the musical play, "Piff, Paff, Pouff," which is being enthusiastically rehearsed preparatory to a stage appearance early in the month of February, are the Pony Ballet chorus girls. There are eight graceful young ladies of Ogden in this special chorus and as their part of the performance some very attractive dances have been arranged. The girls, Miss Anna Burton, Miss Thelma Critchlow, Miss Adelaide Ashton, Miss Trena Frantzen, Miss Urida Nuttall, Miss Louise Fisher, Miss Afton Stahr and Miss Mildred Noall, are to wear the loveliest of costumes for each dance and it is hoped by the management of the play that these suits will be in Ogden within a week.

The first dance in which the pony ballet girls appear is known as the "Radium Dance" and in this the girls wear smart riding habits. In the first act the girls are to appear in the prettiest of pink dollbaby dresses in a dance called "The Umbrella Dance," "The Ghost That Never Walked" is a third attractive dance in which the girls wear weird costumes in black and white with tall hats. Yama yama suits are worn in the "Dance of the Fixies" and quite the most complete and "the cutest" (so say the girls) are the little Dutch costumes worn in the dance, "Lute." The girls are to wear wooden shoes. The dance "Cordelia Malone," is one of the prettiest of the entire play and the stage settings, as well as the costumes of the young dancers, will be especially appealing. Irish dresses will be worn. For the grand finale the Pony Ballet girls are to take a prominent part and will be dressed in white Hussar costumes draped with American flags. For their partners in this dance the Johnnies will be togged out as Uncle Sam.

The young men have been very well schooled by Bob Major for their various appearances on the stage and from now until the play is presented just a perfecting of the various parts will be the work of the directors. The two acts of the play have been gone through with fine precision and each person is doing his and her best to make the play a success.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the choruses will rehearse and at 12 noon the principals will be at the Orpheum theatre and go through their parts. Most of the scenic effects have been completed and thorough work is expected.

Girls' Association of Ogden High School Entertain at Dance

One of the finest parties ever given at the Ogden High school was presided over by the members of the Girls' Association last evening when they entertained at a Leap Year event. The girls of the school were given the opportunity and privilege of inviting the young men and seeing to their especial pleasure during the evening. This the young misses did in fine fashion and it is safe to say that no young man present was accorded the name of "wall flower."

The large auditorium of the school was very effectively decorated with streamers of vari-colored ribbons and beautiful bouquets of sweet peas. A pretty booth was arranged where fruit punch and waters with nuts were served during the evening. The Olive Reeves jazz orchestra furnished a fine program of music and the evening was delightfully spent by over 400 hundred students and a number of guests. The girls who arranged the party were: Sponsors, Miss Afton Stahr, Miss Beatrix Browning, Miss Elizabeth Browning and Miss Ruth Pingree; refreshments, Miss Louise Fisher, Miss Hope Fox, Miss Sherma Hendershot; invitations, Miss Florence Wattis, Miss Mildred Browning, Miss Bertha Fife, Miss Zola Shaw, Miss Marva McBride, Miss Elizabeth Krienes; advertising, Miss Kate Penton, Miss Louise Zeller, Miss Betty Hurst, Miss Ella McClain; decorations, Miss Blanche Barton, Miss Blanche Browning, Miss Nellie O'Keefe, Miss Barbara Sprague, Miss Florence Turner, Miss Pearl Hestmark, Miss Charlotte Davis and Miss Annette Cunningham; orchestra, Miss Mabel Reeves, Miss Zola McBride, and Miss Marian Woodbury.

Wrights' Employees Give a Delightful Party at the Berthana

Quite the merriest party given at the Berthana for some time was the event of last evening when the employees of W. H. Wright & Sons company entertained. Of course dancing was the main feature of the evening's program of entertainment, but in addition there were a number of delightful attractions. On this occasion the Berthana was made even more attractive with beautiful flowers. In one
