ARMY TEST PILOT IN ALTITUDE FLIGHT

Discovers Trade Winds Sweep East at 100 to 300 Miles an Hour at 30,000 Feet

NEW YORK, March 12.—Trade winds sweeping from west to east at 100 to 300 miles an hour were discovered at 30,000 feet by Major Rudolph Schroeder, army test pilot at Dayton, Ohio, before he fell approximately five miles and landed without crashing after establishing an altitude record of 35,020 feet in a recent flight. He reported the discovery on his arrival here to attend the national aircraft show.
"At the peak of my climb, where I hung with slightly upward progress for fifteen minutes I found the winds blowing toward the east at the rate of 220 miles an hour," he said. "I had started 30 miles west of Dayton, my machine had a speed of 100 miles per hour and as I steered westward I was literally traveling backward 120 miles an hour, or two miles a minute."
"I have not been able to figure out exactly what the roof of the world really is. I think it possible to go

SAN CARLO OPERA CO. DELIGHTS ORPHEUM AUDIENCE

The tragic story of Carmen, the passionate and faithless cigarette maker of Seville, was sung in a splendid manner last night at the Orpheum theatre by the San Carlo Grand Opera company. Manuel Salazar, a young Spanish tenor, was Don Jose; Stella de Mette was Carmen, and Vincente Ballester was Camillo, the torreador. These three were ably assisted by other principals and a strong chorus but the work of the trio was clearly the outstanding feature of last night's production.
Stella de Mette has a contralto voice of great range, strength and sweetness and in addition is a clever actress. Her depiction of the character of the unscrupulous flirt brought her many favorable comments.
Salazar has a tenor voice of brilliance and strength and its expressive qualities, particularly in the love song with Carmen in the second act, were demonstrated in a manner which brought him great applause.
Easily sharing the honors with the other two was Ballester, the baritone, whose fine voice is surpassed by very few who have sung in Ogdem. He has a likeable personality and a splendid stage presence. He sang the old favorite, "Torreador's Song," in a manner which gave the stirring number a decidedly fresh and vigorous aspect. The tumultuous applause which greeted the conclusion of this song necessitated his repeating one verse and the chorus.
Among the other strong members of the cast were the basso, who sang the role of the captain, the two who played the roles of the smugglers and Rosina Zotti, who sang the role of Micaela in a sweet and flexible soprano voice.
The chorus was not large but was capable of magnificent tone production and harmony.
In the afternoon the San Carlo company presented the melodious "Tales of Hoffman" before a fairly large audience.
The San Carlo company includes an excellent orchestra to which several of the local Orpheum theatre musicians were added for the local engagement. Gaetano Merola, the conductor, is the same conductor who was with the opera company last year and whose work was so much admired.

Former Soldiers Apply to Red Cross For Aid

Two former soldiers, injured during the world war, by gas poisoning which has affected their hearts, applied at the Red Cross rooms for work. LONDON GLOBE MAKES ATTACK ON WILSON

Editorial Writer Declares President Totally Unfit to Deal With Great Measures

LONDON, March 12.—The Globe is the first newspaper in this country to break the editorial silence regarding President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock. It says:
"President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock raises the query as to whether it is indicative of his being so far restored to health that he must need speak plainly and vigorously or whether it shows his condition to be such that he cannot restrain himself from manifesting his private petulance by public indiscretions. Be that as it may, the president's true friends will deplore an unworthy and almost unmanly outburst which lay him open to pointed retorts on the part of our French allies."
Reviewing the position of President Wilson in peacemaking, the Globe declares that he "is temperamentally unfitted to deal successfully with a position demanding a certain measure of give and take. . . . The world has suffered and is suffering."
"We won't enter into any detailed discussion of the president's conduct in writing publicly that the French militarist party is now in control, for we know that our friends across the channel will deal faithfully with that egregious statement. But we cannot help wondering what would be said in the United States should De-schanel write to Millerand asserting that the money-making element is in control of the United States. We fancy that the shrill American outcry would be distinctly heard across the Atlantic."
"It is no exaggeration to say that the illness of President Wilson has provoked the sincere sympathy of the whole civilized world. But his recent ebullitions elicit a certain degree of sympathy for the United States."

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole
When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.
Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.
