Fearful for God's Safety.

During a recent severe storm when the thunder and the electrical display were appalling in their intensity, a terrified little girl, with an imagination truly Miltonic, rushed breathlessly to her mother at an especially severe clap. "Oh! Mamma, mamma!" the little creature cried in agony, "I'm so afraid the thunder'll break the sky and God'll tumble out!"

SPORT

Gossip as to Ability of Ketchel and Langford

Mr. S. Langford, a colored gemman from Bawton, who runs the muffs occasionally, is getting quite mussy out west and has offered to stop another gem by the name of S. Ketchel in ten rounds or lose the entire purse, says "Tad" of New York.

This Langford man recently put a Mr. Flynn to sleep with the mid-dleweight champion. Agreeing to stop Ketchel in ten rounds, sounds like a most powerful joke from this end of the country, especially when we remember that Ketchel has knocked out such scrappers as Hugo Kelly, Joe Thomas, Jack (Twin) Sullivan and Billy Papke. Ketchel is a terrific hitter and a dangerous man at all times, but then, Samuel, like Barkis, is willin'. "Frisco papers have been canning Ketchel for sidestepping the colored demon, who will do 154 pounds ringside and agree to do the stop act."

Of course, Ketchel is doing his own business, and if he thinks the side-step thing is the right sort of action, let him go ahead, but they surely want to see that pair start out west. It would be a terrific battle at that, and the chances are that the Langford person would rule favorite at 10 to 8 at least.

"The fellows with a partiality for ring sport are wondering how long it will be before Ketchel and Sam Langford are brought to the article-signing point, and echo answers—how long?" writes Bill Naughton of San Francisco.

Just at present Ketchel is back in Grand Rapids, spending the holidays with his folks, and Manager Joe O'Connor isn't talking from the house-tops by long odds.

"O'Connor has said many times in the recent past that he will not lend his countenance to a Ketchel-Langford match, but there are many instances on record of a pugilistic director having changed his views after being shown a picture."

"Meanwhile, apart from what discussions may arise as to the relative merits of Ketchel and Langford as boxers, it is pretty generally felt that in powers of assimilation Stanley compares with Sam much as a spotted fawn compares with a rhinoceros."

"If ever a man possessed head, neck and upper frame that bade defiance to the ordinary punches of pugilism, Langford is the man. In the matter of natural bulwarks' poor Ketchel is vastly inferior to the solidly built negro, and when it was all over I would understand thoroughly if someone said 'Ketchel is the greatest fighter, but Langford won'."

"It would be quite possible for a bruiser favored by nature as Langford is favored to take a record hammering and then go in and conquer."

SANTA ANITA RESULTS.

Los Angeles, Jan. 5.—The Dos Robles handicap, one mile, the feature card at Santa Anita park today, resulted in a victory for the 9 to 5 favorite, Angelus, who was making his first appearance under the colors of H. EMERYVILLE RESULTS.

Oakland, Jan. 5.—Favorites fared better at Emeryville today, but there were some surprises. The two-year-old race for fillies was won by Miss Roberts, a 30 to 1 chance. She is by General Roberts and made her first appearance. Off well, she practically led all the way and won cleverly from Balconia, the favorite. Patricia R., at 15 to 1, took the first race. The Chase handicap went to Smiley Corbett. Butler was suspended for the remainder of the week for crossing in front of Prince Nap with Estella C., in the fifth. Results:

First race, six furlongs, selling—Patricia R., 97 (Ross), 15 to 1, won; Hal, 107 (Mentry), 25 to 1, second; Barbridge, 100 (Hogg), 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:16 2/5.

Second race, two-year-olds, three furlongs, purse—Miss Roberts, 110 (Mentry), 30 to 1, won; Balconia, 105 (Butler), 7 to 2, second; Vondel, 110 (Scoville), 7 to 1, third. Time, 36 4/5.

Third race, 5 1/2 furlongs, selling—Bill Eaton, 104 (Butler), 8 to 5, won; Little Sis, 84 (Upton), 7 to 1, second; Serenade, 92 (Deverich), 16 to 1, third. Time, 1:08 3/5.

Fourth race, five furlongs, Chase handicap—Smiley Corbett, 115 (Notter), 13 to 20, won; Booger Red, 105 (Gilbert), 23 to 5, second; Collector Jesus, 106 (Sweet), 9 to 1, third. Time, 1:00 2/5.

Fifth race, mile and seventy yards, selling—Estella C., 104 (Butler), 2 to 1, won; Price Nap, 111 (Scoville), 16 to 1, second; Ak-Sar-Ben, 97 (Ross), 16 to 1, third. Time, 1:47 4/5.

Sixth race, six furlongs, selling—

Billy Myer, 109 (Keogh), 20 to 1, won; General Russell, 105 (Goldstein), 5 to 1, second; Enchequer, 109 (Scoville), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 2/5.

GOVERNMENT SUES THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Basin of Action is On Alleged Infract-ion of Twenty-Eight Hour Law

An alleged infringement of the 28-hour law forms the basis of a suit filed in the federal court, wherein the United States is the plaintiff and the Union Pacific Railroad company is the defendant. For the first time locally, swine enter into a case of the kind indicated, and it is alleged that several cars of such animals were kept penned in cars for a period of 42 hours, with no intervening chance for rest or feed. The hogs were in transit from Denver to San Francisco in the latter part of last October, and during a long ride from Rawlins, Wyo., to Ogden, and many delays, were in transit 14 hours longer than the law allows in such cases.

The papers were prepared and filed by the assistant district attorney, and prosecution will follow. The maximum penalty for breaking the twenty-eight hour law is a fine of $500, the minimum $100.

Stuart of Sandy, Deputy Grand Master W. J. Moore of Salt Lake, Grand Warden John Morely of Eureka, Grand Secretary P. A. Simpson of Salt Lake, Grand Treasurer J. W. If Coffee and Bilioussness INTERFERE WITH BUSINESS Quit the Business

IF YOU FEEL "HURT ABOUT IT."

One time a man thought it all over and finally decided that he would rather have his head clear and his mind keen for business than to "enjoy" the "dumps" half the time.

So he quit the Coffee, even the "one cup a day."

The bilioussness quit itself.

So did a certain sick feeling about the heart when he hurried for a car.

Being fond of a good hot drink for breakfast he took on POSTUM, the liquid food coffee. It came to his table with the colour of the strongest French drip coffee, and a little rich cream turned it to a rich golden brown. The flavor was distinct, but had the soft pleasing "tang" of mild high grade Java.

So the change was easy.

In a few days he told himself how much fun it is to be well—brisk, snappy, and keen—"the greatest fun on earth." Of course, "There's a Reason."

Coffee (with many folks) congests the liver, producing bilioussness by keeping in, instead of throwing off, the wastes of the body. They turn to poisons, and the whole body is more or less affected. When the cause, coffee, is withdrawn, Nature slowly tries to right the wrong. It helps, to drink Postum, for it contains in liquid form certain parts of wheat which Nature uses to rebuild broken down nerve centres.

These are truths to those who know dietetics. Every man can ignore the theories and yet convince himself by personal test That's the surest way to find out why

JAPANESE IN FIERCE COMBAT

INFURIATED HUSBAND STABS OPPONENT FIVE TIMES.

Built From Revolver Harms No One—Knife Wounds Not Serious—Mr. Atsu in Jail.

A scene that verged upon tragedy occurred last evening at the Japanese noodle quarters on Twenty-fourth street, between Grant and Lincoln avenues. It was the enactment of the second scene in Ogden of the drama of life in which one Etsu and wife and O. Hisayama, all of the Japanese nationality, and another Jap, Hayasi, were the principal actors. There were numerous other little brown fellows in evidence, but they played minor parts.

It will be remembered that immediately before the holidays Atsu appeared in Ogden in search of his spouse, whom he claimed had eloped from Japan with Hisayama. He stated to the officers that he had located the runaway couple in Ogden, and asked for their assistance in finding them. After a brief search on the part of the officers, assisted by some of the resident Japs of the city, he found the runaways occupying the same room in one of the rooming houses of the city, and they were arrested. Hisayama's bail for appearance before the court was fixed at $35, which was furnished in cash, the same being forfeited at a later date, and the woman was held pending investigation for deportation. It seems that sufficient evidence to warrant the deportation of the woman was not forthcoming when the wife showed signs of having found another affinity in the person of the above named Hayasi. Atsu and his wife repaired to the noodle quarters last evening for the purpose of partaking of the famous noodle soup, where they met both Hayasi, the recently acquired affinity, and the former one, Hisayama. Atsu became infuriated at the sight of the two men who crept into the confidence of his wife, which confidence threatened his home happiness, and without warning he drew a revolver in an attempt to kill Hayasi. Hisayama, who was standing near, wrenched the weapon from Atsu's hand, the deadly missile, however, going wild. At Hisayama's interference in the matter, Atsu attacked him with a pocket knife and succeeded in stabbing him five times in the body, none of the wounds inflicted being of a serious or dangerous nature. Mrs. Atsu and the new lover, Hayasi, fled from the place. Hisayama was taken to the police station, where Doctors Browning and Dickson were summoned to attend to his injuries, and Mr. Atsu made his getaway to a rooming house on Lincoln avenue, between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets.

An examination of the wounds on the body of Hisayama disclosed the fact that he had been stabbed in five different places, apparently with a pocket knife. His injuries were properly attended to and he walked to his rooming place. Atsu was afterwards arrested and taken to the city jail, where he is now being held pending investigations. It is likely that he will be charged with an assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. Mrs. Atsu and Hayasi had not been found at a late hour last night.

Neither the gun nor the knife used in the affray has yet been found, but the bullet from the revolver was picked up on the pavement just outside the building immediately after the shooting occurred. It is a .38-caliber bullet. It appears that a goodly number of the Japanese people extend their sympathies toward the wife and the two lovers, but the sentiment of the white citizens of Ogden is much in favor of Mr. Atsu, some going so far as to say it would have been well had Atsu killed both of his wife's paramours.

TWO DAMAGE SUITS ARE FILED

COREY BROS. CONSTRUCTION CO. SUED FOR LARGE SUM

Complicated Cases to Be Tried in Judge Howell's Court on Complaint of Certain Heirs

Two damage suits for personal injury were filed in Judge Howell's court yesterday against the Corey Bros. Construction company to recover alleged damages in the sums of $10,000 and $15,000 respectively. The first suit is brought by Michael Farino, administrator of the estate of Mariana Farino, deceased, in behalf of the only surviving heir at law, Giuseppe Farino, the father of the deceased. The complaint alleges that on the 23rd of February, 1907, Michael Farino lost his life by virtue of a premature explosion while he was under the employment of the Corey Brothers company on the Western Pacific railroad in California, and the accident was occasioned through the negligence of the defendant company. It is alleged that Farino was acting in the capacity of foreman for the company at the time of the accident and that the explosion was occasioned by overheated rocks at the point where the blasting was being done.

The plaintiff in the second suit is the same party except that the administrator is suing for the estate of Michael Marriotti, deceased, in behalf of the surviving heirs, a wife and two children. The allegations in this complaint have to do with the same accident as alleged in the former complaint, but claiming the death of the deceased on the ground that Michael Farino was an incompetent foreman and should not have been in charge of the work in question.
