Turned in False Alarm—Last night the whole fire fighting force of Ogdens Station No. 2 was called to answer an alarm of fire which came in from box 32. They arrived at the box in good time, but there was no sign of a fire. They observed, however, a young girl who had been watching the approach of the engines, running quickly down the street away from the firemen, and came to the correct conclusion that the alarm was a false one. The girl evidently turned in the alarm merely to "see the horses run." Officials of the local fire department announce that it will go hard with the next person offending in this manner.

Valuable Collie a Suicide—Dogs from many states occupied benches at the annual meeting of the Utah Kennel club which opened in Salt Lake yesterday. The pointer and setter class has the largest representation, but dozens of breeds are to be seen on the floor. Some 325 dogs have been entered. Trampas, a fine Scotch collie owned in Salt Lake, broke his chain and jumped from a third story window and died on the pavement below. The act was characterized by some as a deliberate suicide, but this is questioned by learned dog men, who say that the animal was impelled to jump by fright. The scoring for the day had not been tabulated late last night. Canines from Denver, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Butte and other western cities are competing.

INSTANT RELIEF FROM DREAD CATARRH

Why don't you get rid of that nasty, humiliating disease catarrh?

You can do it if you really want to. But you can't cure catarrh in a few days, that's an utter impossibility, because there is no remedy known that will kill the catarrh germs in that short time.

But you can cure catarrh if you will have a little patience and breathe in Hyomel (pronounced High-o-me) three or four times a day.

Hyomel cures catarrh by killing the germs and it kills the germs because it gets where the germs are.

Hyomel is a powerful antiseptic and germ killing air. It is made from the fluid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia where catarrh is unknown.

It gives relief instantly, stops hacking in a few days and is guaranteed by S. W. Badcock to cure catarrh, asthma, croup and bronchitis or money back. A complete outfit, including inhaler costs $1.00, and extra bottles of Hyomel cost 50 cents.

"Hyomel certainly saved my life and I accord it the credit which it deserves and merits. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomel."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter Ave, Coldwater, Mich., August 22, 1908.

OLDEST NEWSPAPER EDITOR IN STATE OF KANSAS DIES

Topeka, May 27.—F. P. Baker, the oldest newspaper editor in Kansas, died to day in his 90th year. Mr. Baker founded the State Record, one of the first daily papers in Topeka, in 1867.

HOW A PREACHER BECAME A GOVERNOR

While a great many members of the church have been called to the high offices of state, the people have seldom gone to the ranks of the ministry for material. This is because but few feel that their work lies along those paths. Chancellor H. A. Buchtel of Denver, Colorado, and a Methodist Minister, has been one of the few to occupy a chair of governor. It came about in this way: The politics of Colorado were badly mixed three years ago and the candidate chosen by the Republican State convention for governor, refused to run, being dissatisfied with others on the ticket. The state committee was compelled to look for some one else. Many were mentioned, but rejected for reasons then apparent. Finally without warning the committee offered the nomination to Rev. H. A. Buchtel, chancellor of the University of Denver. Favorable support from the people was evident at once and the preacher won the election with a large majority and held his office well, it is said.

From the Denver Republican: His addresses were epoch-making, masterly, and facts of political history were presented in a clearer and more scholarly and more convincing way than ever before in any campaign in Colorado.

Chancellor Buchtel scored a great personal victory. He made a whirlwind campaign, and he gained a whirlwind victory. He grew upon the people every day. They believed in him and in his sincerity. The splendid triumph under his leadership is the biggest ever recorded in the city of Denver.

On the morning of victory, the Republican again predicts that he will make an ideal, progressive executive, worthy to stand with the greatest. Everybody is pleased and satisfied. The Buchtel motto of "Smile and Push" has become contagious.

MAY SMITH IN POLICE COURT

SHE MET A MOST CHARMING CITY DETECTIVE.

Who, after a Stroll Through the City, Invited Her to His Den—The Invitation Cost May $10.

The police court grind was a varied one today, ranging from an obstreperous miner who gave Officer Chambers a spirited tussle Thursday afternoon, to May Smith, charged with vagrancy and accused of attempting to entice Detective Pender to her picture gallery.

The first mentioned individual gave the name of Ed Smith and pleaded not guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace. Thompson is a grey-bearded man of fifty and claims to be a miner. Officer Chambers testified that Thompson went into the Down coffee house on Twenty-fifth street, Thursday afternoon, and tried to sell a huge nugget pin to the proprietor's wife. Suspecting that the pin was "phony," she handed it over to Officer Chambers, who chanced to be sitting near, and the latter immediately asked the miner where he had gotten it. The man promptly informed the officer that it was none of his "blank" business and followed up the assertion with a vile epithet.

Officer Chambers revealed his identity and placed the man under arrest. Thompson, however, was not to be taken without a struggle and it required considerable assistance before the officer succeeded in subduing his powerful prisoner and handcuffing him.

Thompson told a tale of being out of money through gambling away his wages in Ogdens and stated that he was a hard-working man and innocent of using the language of which he was accused. He said he did not know that his captor was an officer until later.

The court preferred to secure the testimony of the restaurant people before passing sentence and the case was continued until the afternoon session.

James Foley, who pleaded not guilty to mendacity, Thursday, was found guilty this morning and was given a sentence of twenty days. Officer Chambers and A. D. Smith testified to the fellow's begging tactics, and in spite of the denial made by the prisoner, the court sentenced him.

May Smith pleaded not guilty to the charge of vagrancy. Detective Pender stated that he discovered the young lady trying to gain access to a business house on Twenty-fifth street where she stated she had an engagement with the proprietor.

According to the officer's story, his masculine charms must have made an immediate impression upon May as she turned her attentions upon him at once. She inquired regarding the bundle of dog meat he carried and was told that it was a lunch, whereupon she remarked that the officer and his would be charmer some very pointed questions, much to the amusement of the spectators as well as the prisoner herself. After remarking that possibly it was a case for the higher courts, the judge fined May $10 and released the officer from further responsibility in the matter.

The court pondered over the matter deeply and asked Detective Pender and his would be charmer some very pointed questions, much to the amusement of the spectators as well as the prisoner herself. After remarking that possibly it was a case for the higher courts, the judge fined May $10 and released the officer from further responsibility in the matter.

TRACK LAYING ON THE CANYON TROLLEY LINE

Condemnation proceedings have been instituted by the Rapid Transit company for a right-of-way around the big rock slide at the Lewis place in Ogdens canyon. As yet no satisfactory adjustment of the matter of placing the responsibility for the slide has been reached and it has been deemed advisable to settle it by a friendly suit in the courts.

The slide, as measured by Engineer West, is 230 feet in length, 150 feet wide, and about 70 feet deep.

Following the commencement of condemnation proceedings, a large force of men were put to work at that point today and the grade will be constructed as rapidly as possible.

It is estimated that the remaining portion of unfinished grade will be completed in about a week's time.

Track laying will begin Monday morning, an adequate supply of rails and ties having been received by the company.

Puebla, Mex., May 27.—Carrying out a vow made several years ago, Lieut. Braleio Gutierrez, last night shot and killed Adelberto Reyes while the wife and children of the victim begged for his life. PROMINENT DANISH INVENTOR IS BURIED

New York, May 27.—The funeral of Wakdemar Lund, who made a fortune through his inventions, and lost it all in fighting intriguements on his patents, was held yesterday. Lund's father was captain of the bodyguard of King Christian VIII, and he himself served in Denmark's army. He invented a collar button of gold and ivory and had factories in Paris, London and Birmingham, but rival concerns infringed on his patents, and in five years he lost nearly half a million dollars.

Apple Pie Too Good.

The superintendent of the dining-car service on one of our great railroad systems is protesting hotly against the quality of apple pie served by the baker who supplies this luxury. "It is too blamed good," he exclaimed. "We don't want it so good! It is pie, pie, pie, apple pie, all the time at every call for dinner, and with each slice of apple pie every passenger demands half a pint of cream! If the pie wasn't so good our cream bill would be about one-tenth of what it is. It's ten cents' worth of pie and a quarter's worth of cream!"

Willie's Destination.

"Willie, I'm going to heaven," she wrote, "and you will never see me again,—which was pretty hard on Willie."

HENNEY AND ROGERS AGAIN IN WORDY COMBAT

FORMER ACCUSES LATTER OF MAKING A FARCE OF TRIAL.

Testimony Relates to Raids Upon Offices of United Railroads Last March.

San Francisco, May 28.—Testimony relating to the raids upon offices of the United Railroads last March accounted for the greater part of today's session of the trial of Patrick Calhoun. Two police sergeants, who executed search warrants issued by a police judge, told of the resistance offered by attorneys and employees of the corporation, and testified that safes and desks were forced open.

Considerable irritation was manifested by the attorneys. Mr. Henney, upon one occasion, made reference to the conduct of Earl Rogers on the occasion of the raid, and Mr. Rogers said:

"You cannot prove that, even by your facile swearers."

"They cannot be more facile in swearing than you have been through your Luther Brown," retorted Mr. Henney.

Later, Mr. Henney objected that Rogers was attempting to make a farce of the trial by laughing and jesting with witnesses.

It was announced by the prosecution that Attorney Hugh O'Neill, one of the men who is alleged to have interviewed Detective Helms when the latter was on his way to this city, was served with a subpoena by agents of the prosecution today and will be called as a witness.

TAFT DRAWS A BARREL OF SAUER KRAUT AT ELKS' FAIR

Sandusky, O., May 27.—President Taft holds the ticket that drew a barrel of sauer kraut worth $30, at the Elks' fair here last night. It was presented to him by William Homer Reinhart, president of the Perry Victory and International Centennial Peace commission, who was in Washington recently.

LOOK FORWARD TO TOMORROW.

Always There Will Be Time Absolutely to Give Up Hope.

There will be another night. You awake this morning still tired. Your work kept you going so late and your hours for sleep were so few. You were restless besides. You tossed till almost the dawn, and then lost yourself a short hour, and found yourself with a start, and collected your dazed wits. Then the inevitable snapped its whip, and you harnessed yourself and got in the shafts for another day. The day looked long and steep—too long for patience, and too steep for strength, but you strained at the collar, and now you are tugging along at the same old gait. You would change the gait—you would speed up if you could, but you are still tired! Never mind, old thrill-horse, there will be another night. Maybe to-morrow you will step lighter, and make more miles on the ancient highway than to-day. You can still hope. They can never scale down hope, nor take it off the free list. Though everything else goes up, hope remains cheap. Do not give up, nor quit, nor fall down exhausted. Listen—there will be another night! You may rest, and to-morrow may be yours to do with as you like.

DISPUTE BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY NOW CLOSED

Paris, May 27.—The cabinet today approved a formula of reciprocal regret regarding the Casa Blanca incident, and this dispute between Germany and France is now closed.

French officials at Casa Blanca seized certain deserters from the foreign legion of the French army while the men, who were Germans, were under the protection of the German consul. The matter was taken to The Hague court of arbitration and a decision handed down a few days ago.

NEW YORK RESTAURANT INHERITS LARGE FORTUNE

New York, May 27.—Thomas Healy, a noted restaurateur, and his two brothers, have received notice from San Francisco officials that they are to inherit, as next of kin, the $1,000,000 estate left there by Thomas Fox, a California stock breeder. Fox's will left everything to his house keeper, but in the earthquake is was proven that her death antedated his and for that reason the estate reverted to his next of kin.

American Towers of Babel.

In a single block in New York there are 1,400 people of 20 distinct nationalities. There are more than two-thirds as many native-born Irish in Boston as in the capital city, Dublin. With their children, mainly of pure Irish blood, they make Boston indubitably the leading Irish city in the world. New York is a larger Italian city to-day than Rome, having 500,000 Italian colonists. It contains no less than 800,000 Jews, mainly from Russia. Thus it is also the foremost Jewish city in the world. Pittsburg, the center of our iron and steel industry, is another tower of Babel. It is said to contain more of that out-of-the-way people, the Servians, than the capital of Servia itself.—Atlantic Monthly.

Blarnsey.

Of the culprits haled before a police magistrate in New York one Monday morning there was one—an Irishman—who had caused no end of trouble to the police the Saturday night preceding.

The magistrate regarded the prisoner with mingled curiosity and indignation. "So you're the man that gave the officers so much trouble?" his honor asked. "I understand that it took seven policemen to lock you up."

"Yis, your honor," responded the Celt, with a broad grin; "but it would take only one to let me out."—Harper's Weekly.
