

STANDARD TELEPHONES

EDITORIAL ROOMS—Ind. Phone, two rings. No. 53. Bell Phone, two rings. No. 56. BUSINESS OFFICE—Ind. Phone, one ring. No. 58. Bell Phone, one ring. No. 58.

RANDOM REFERENCES

Mr. and Mrs. Koons of Ogden were visitors in Pocatello Sunday, states the Pocatello 'Tribune,' under date of June 6.

Advertisers must have their copy for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication.

Judgment Entered—Judgment in favor of the defendant was entered in the district court yesterday in the suit of John W. F. Volker against William L. Russell. The action was brought to collect a bond for which Russell was acting as a surety.

Coal, call up Parker & Co. for rates on lump, nut and slack.

The employees of the United States Forest Service were the recipients of two bunches of bananas yesterday afternoon as the compliments of the H. L. Griffin Company.

Call Allen, phones 22, for carriages for funerals and operas. Private calls specialty. Also prompt delivery of baggage. 412 25th.

Lee Smith and A. Patterson were arrested by Patrolman Patterson yesterday afternoon on the charge of trespass.

Get your Union Pacific and Oregon Short Line tickets at the office in the Opera House Block. Don't force yourself to stand in line at the Depot.

Mrs. J. W. Guthrie has gone to Portland to pass the summer. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Roth of Evanston, Wyo.

COAL! Call up Parker & Co. for rates on lump, nut and slack. Parker Coal Co.

Doctor and Mrs. Wm. H. Olsten of Manti, Utah, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sionia, to Mr. Walter F. Stevens of Logan. The marriage is to take place late in June.

Kodak finishing. Tripp, 340 25th street.

(Continued on Page Seven.)

THEY ARE SELLING WOOD FOR MEAT

Dealers of June 8.—Wholesale meat dealers of this city are selling 587,622 pounds of wood a year to the retail butchers as meat, according to an estimate made by Clement D. J. Driscoll, chief of the bureau of weights and measures. The wood is in the form of skewers which are put into the carcasses.

The value of this amount of meat at an average of 15 cents a pound would be close to $100,000, which comes out of the pocket of the consumer, eventually, Mr. Driscoll says. He has arranged conferences with a number of wholesale and retail dealers in the hope of devising some remedy for this condition.

HIGH PRICES.

The highest prices paid for live or dressed poultry, Ogden Fish & Poultry company, 2526 Washington.

CHINAMAN PLACED ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE.

New York, June 8.—A Chinaman was placed on trial for his life here today. He is Choo Hen, said to be a member of the notorious 'Four Brothers' tong, which the police say has been terrorizing the inhabitants of Chinatown.

Choo Hen is charged with murder in the first degree in shooting to death On Leung tong, a member of the On Leung tong, on April 10, Frank Rooney, who lives in a bowery lodging house, identified the prisoner as the man he saw do the shooting.

CHICAGO BOARD OPPOSES TRADING IN INDEMNITIES

Chicago, June 8.—Directors of the Chicago Board of Trade went on record yesterday as opposed to trading in what are known as indemnities which formerly were known as puts and calls. The directors adopted a resolution recommending that a rule be adopted forbidding any member to engage in such transactions. The proposed rule will be posted for ballot today and after ten days the membership will vote on the proposition.

Send your guess on Ogden and Weber County's population to the Standard office. You may win as high as $45 in gold coin.

J. L. Welshans-Heating-Broom Hotel.-

Just like it was made OF MOON BEAMS. IT IS SO LIGHT BREAD MADE WITH CRESCENT FLOUR

MOHLMAN MAKES CLEVER CAPTURE

The residence of Mrs. Sam Cave, 2202 Adams avenue, was burglarized yesterday afternoon and an individual giving the name of C. Johnson has confessed the crime and is now in the city jail charged with burglary in the third degree.

Mrs. Cave had left the house for a few moments and on her return saw a stranger hurrying down the street with a suitcase in his hand. An investigation of the various rooms disclosed the fact that portions of five suits of clothes had been stolen together with a suitcase and several pieces of jewelry.

The police were notified and Patrolman Mohlman was detailed on the case with the result that Johnson was apprehended within a short time after the things were missed. The suitcase was found beside a telegraph pole near the Cave property and all of the missing articles were still contained in it with the exception of a pair of eye glasses.

Johnson was examined last evening by the police and confessed to the whole affair without hesitation saying that he had seen the back door of the Cave home open and could not withstand the temptation to enter. He said that he had ransacked the house, packing the stolen articles into a suitcase, but became frightened on leaving the house and dropped his plunder on the street. The eye glasses he retained and sold them a few minutes later down town.

Johnson will be arraigned this morning in police court the charge being burglary in the third degree.

NOTICE WATER CONSUMERS

Hours for sprinkling lawns will be strictly enforced from June 1, 1910, as follows:

East of Adams Avenue—6:00 to 8:00 a. m.; 5:00 to 6:30 p. m. West of Adams Avenue—8:00 to 10:00 a. m.; 6:30 to 8:00 p. m.

Inspectors are instructed to see that sprinkling is confined to the above hours, and when water is found running to turn off without further notice. C. H. KIRCHER, Superintendent Waterworks department.

WAITRESS WORKS CLEVER GAME

Several of the waitresses of the city lunch room are reaping the harvest of misplaced confidence having trusted one of their sister employees with various articles of jewelry and a sum of money.

The waitress who negotiated the loans promised to repay yesterday afternoon but at the appointed hour she failed to appear with the result that the trusting ones paid a visit to the police station in an effort to locate her and their valuables.

It is thought that the missing girl went to Salt Lake as she had intimated her intentions of going there at an early date.

Citizens of Ogden

Boost for your city by using OGDEN MADE FLOUR—it costs you no more and every sack you use is a boost for your town.

In that way you make a Chicago of Ogden. Ogden Milling & Elevator Co.

CHARGES ASSAULT IN INFORMATION

David McCullough, a negro, must answer to the district court on a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon as a result of a free-for-all fight in which several other negroes took part at the home of a negro woman on Twenty-fourth street the evening of May 24. McCullough, with Lewis W. Strothers, was making a strong bid for the hand of the dusky damsel when another negro appeared on the scene and a general mix-up with honors about even followed, until McCullough suddenly whipped out a big revolver and began shooting. Strothers was struck in the head by one of the flying bullets, receiving a painful wound. At the report of the revolver all of the negroes scattered like flying sheep, but were later rounded up by the police and locked in the city jail.

Yesterday afternoon District Attorney Harris filed an information against McCullough, charging him with an assault with a deadly weapon.

NOTICE TO PUBLIC

OGDEN CANYON WEEK-DAY SCHEDULE—EFFECTIVE JUNE 3RD, 1910.

Leave Union Depot at 7:00 and 8:20 a. m., and every forty minutes thereafter until 10:20 p. m. Leave Hermitage at 7:40 and 9:00 a. m. and every forty minutes thereafter until 11:00 p. m. J. W. BAILEY, Superintendent.

COMMERCIAL MEN WILL HAVE SPECIAL

The annual summer meeting of the United Commercial Travelers, which will be held at Provo July 4, 5, 6, is already attracting the attention of prospective delegates.

The U. C. T. of Ogden wish to announce that they will have a special train on the Rio Grande for the occasion, and that all business men of this city are invited to attend with their families. Later announcements will be made.

FELL ON A HOOK AND WAS DISEMPOWERED

Ephraim, June 7.—A very sad death

today morning when Hyrum Bryan, aged 34 years, one of the highly respected and wealthy sheep men of the community, died at his home, leaving a wife and six children. Mr. Bryan was at his sheep herd, which was located about twelve miles from town, and Saturday while his herd was corralled he was trying to catch a mutton with a hook and in doing so he missed the sheep and stumbled, falling on the hook himself. The hook penetrated his abdomen and made a very painful wound. His son and a shepherd at once went to him and could see that his injury was of a very serious nature. They managed to get him into a buggy and took him to his home. Medical aid was summoned but he died at an early hour yesterday morning.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.

Mr. A. T. Wood, proprietor of the Oxford Cafe, has purchased the confectionery and bakery business of R. J. Erickson, 311 24th St. Mr. Wood will conduct the business on the premises as formerly run, and in connection will have furnished rooms upstairs.

RAILROAD BILL IN CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The flurry over the railroad situation became a thing of the past yesterday as the railroad presidents went home; President Taft went horseback riding and the railroad bill went to conference. Representatives of the eastern and central railroads, at a conference with the president this afternoon agreed to withhold all freight increases until the new railroad law becomes effective, and after that to submit the reasonableness of the increases to the Interstate Commerce commission.

The railroads interested in the southern territory declared they had not as yet filed notices of increase but that if they did they would be ready to abide by the decision of the commission. Taft Sends Special Message. At the capital this morning, so pleasant President Taft sent a special message to congress telling of the settlement he had reached with the railroads and urging that the provision of the railroad bill that gives the Interstate Commerce commission power to investigate and suspend new rates be made effective immediately upon the signing of the act, rather than have it go into effect along with the other clause, which has a sixty day limit. The president did this as a part of the agreement with the railroad by which he promised them a square deal, and a speedy determination as to the justice of their new rates. He also did it to prevent the filing of any new rates during the sixty days between the signing of the act and its taking effect.

Bitter Fight in House. There was a bitter fight on the house as to whether the senate amendments should be accepted as a whole or the measure should go to conference. The insurgents and Democrats who were opposed to a conference declared that the president's wishes could be met by an agreement on the part of the house. The regulars, who desired to have the bill taken to conference for a "smoothing out" process declared that the only way to effect the president's wishes was to send the bill to conference. They finally won by six votes. President Taft declined to commit himself in his message or in conference with senate and house leaders, as to the necessity of a conference. He merely expressed the wish indicated in his message and left it to congress to determine the best means of meeting that wish.

Conference of Presidents. The president's conference today with President McCrear of the Pennsylvania, President Brown of the New York Central and President Finley of the Southern Railway. These men represented all the trunk lines from Chicago eastward. It was taken for granted that the conference began that there would be an amicable settlement and there was little surprise when after an hour and a half the statement was issued that there had been a complete agreement. In none of his negotiations with the railroad presidents has President Taft suggested that there was any purpose on the part of the administration to apply for a dissolution of the various trunk line associations.

At the same time there have not been intimations that any of the railroads would be granted immunity from the operations of the Sherman anti-trust law. The administration used the anti-trust law in bringing the injunction suit to stop the increased rates simply because there was no other avenue open.

During the conference the question of the ability of the Interstate Commerce commission to dispose of all the new rates within the next eleven months was freely discussed. President Taft expressed the belief that the present rates gave a basis for comparison that would not require a great amount of time. President McCrear offered the suggestion that as certain basic rates for the foundation for all the other thousands of rates, the disposition of the basic ones might not require such a great length of time. Once the basic rates are fixed, the others apply almost automatically.

House Almost Accepts Bill. When the rate bill was brought up in the house that body almost accepted it, missing the consuming vote by the slim margin of six votes. The vote came on a motion by Representative Lenroot, an "insurgent" of Wisconsin to concur in the senate amendments with an additional amendment to section 9 of the bill, requiring increases in railroad rates to be submitted to the commission in advance.

The close vote was caused by a combination of Democrats and "insurgent" Republicans and five "regular" Republicans. Had the Democrats not lost six votes on their side of the house, or had the "insurgents" been able to hold their full strength instead of losing eight, the bill would have been accepted and the session of congress shortened many days. Conferees in the House. The bill finally was ordered to conference and conferees in the house were named. These were Representatives Mann of Illinois and Wanger of Pennsylvania (Republicans) and Adamson of Georgia (Democrat). The senate conferees are Elkins of West Virginia, Aldrich of Rhode Island (Republican), and Foster of Louisiana (Democrat). Not a little surprise was occasioned by the loss of six Democrats to the conference and much speculation as to the cause resulted. It was pointed out that four of the Democrats were so-called "Tammany representatives" from New York—Representatives Fitzgerald, Harrison, Goulden and Goldfogle. The other two were Underwood and Alabama, one of the Democratic leaders, and Craig of Alabama.

The list of "insurgents" who voted with the "regulars" against the senate bill were also subjected to scrutiny and their attitude was the cause of much comment. President Recommends Changes. President Taft recommended the changes in the senate bill proposed by Mr. Lenroot in a message to congress in accordance with his agreement with western railway presidents last night.

After two hours' debate on the proposal made in the form of a motion by Lenroot, the house declined to accept it by a vote of 156 to 162. A motion of non-concurrence in the senate amendments was carried and conferees were named. The senate conferees were named soon after.

The "insurgents" who opposed the Lenroot motion were Gardner and Ames of Massachusetts, Good and Pickett of Iowa, Hayes of California, Miller and Volstead of Minnesota and Parsons of New York; the regular Republicans voting with the Democrats and "insurgents" were Crowe of Missouri, Foster of New York, Kusterman of Wisconsin, Martin of South Dakota, and Murphy of Missouri. Twenty-one "insurgents" rallied to the support of the motion. They were Carey, Cooper, Davidson, Kopp, Lenroot and Morse of Wisconsin; Davis, Lindbergh and Nelson of Wisconsin, Fish of New York, Granna of North Dakota, Hays of Nebraska, Kendall and Woods of Iowa; Kinkaid, Hinchaw and Norris of Nebraska; Polidexter of Washington and Madison and Murdock of Kansas.

Declared Bill Full of Errors. In opposing the adoption of the senate amendments and favoring the sending of the railroad bill to conference, Mr. Mann of Illinois, who had submitted the measure in the house, declared that the senate bill was full of errors. He said there was strong objection to the amendment giving shippers the right to recover damages from the roads for misquoting rates, asserting that it would permit the granting of rebates. Announcing that he did not favor the senate bill in its entirety Minority Leader Clark said he thought it was a better bill than would be given the country if the measure went to conference and therefore he favored accepting the senate amendments.

HIGH PRICES.

The highest prices paid for live or dressed poultry, Ogden Fish & Poultry company, 2526 Washington.

WANT CHANGE OF CON'S MANAGERS

SALT LAKE, June 7.—The Deseret News says: Another bitter fight is being waged against the present management of the Columbus Consolidated this year at the annual meeting, which is being held late this afternoon. It is a renewed effort to oust the forces backing General Manager Tony Jacobson. The annual meeting was called for 3 o'clock this afternoon, when it was shown that new forces had entered the fight. This year it is declared that Duncan MacVichie and James A. Pollock and their associates are behind the fight. A credentials committee was appointed this morning and up to the time of the meeting they were busy crediting up the proxies.

Although there is a fight on it is not as acute as it was a year ago, and it is merely a matter of testing the strength of the two forces. The real matters behind the affair have not been disclosed and it is probable that they will not be. Tony Jacobson, who has guided the company for ten years, is not unwilling to have some one else shoulder the responsibility, but it is declared he is unwilling that some inexperienced

Read these Names

Every writer here named has something to say, in either the form or FACT or FICTION, that you want to read about. President Diaz and General Miles can tell you more about the history of North America, as they were actively engaged in the making of it, than any two living men—and they can tell it as only a man can tell a story who has lived it. You cannot find one of these names of big men in whose work you are not deeply interested. Every one is big enough to compel attention. Remember all these writers' best work will appear in the Cosmopolitan Magazine.

- PRESIDENT DIAZ OF MEXICO
LIEUTENANT GENERAL MILES
CHARLES EDWARD RUSSELL
ALFRED HENRY LEWIS
WINIFRED BLACK
DR. WOODS HUTCHISON
UPTON SINCLAIR
WILLIS J. ABBOTT
ROBERT W. CHAMBERS
JACQUES FUTRELLE
GEORGE RANDOLPH CHESTER
O. HENRY
SIR GILBERT PARKER
JACK LONDON
AGNES & EDGERTON CASTLE
BRUNO LESSING

AND SCORES OF OTHERS. They all Write for Cosmopolitan Magazine

All News-stands 15 Cents BUY IT NOW! TAKE IT HOME!

praising the fighting ability of the American. McFarland was about town Tuesday and showed no signs of being in a fight. The battle has won McFarland thousands of friends, and he was busy accepting congratulations. He has won many backers and it is said the National Sporting club will endeavor to get Wolgast or Nelson abroad. Welsh is not anxious for a return match, but the pressure is so great he cannot decline. All who witnessed say McFarland won by a big margin. Two out of three who had money upon the Welshman admitted they thought they were mighty lucky to get back their money.

WELSH AND M'FARLAND WILL MEET AGAIN

London, June 7.—Packey McFarland and Freddie Welsh will be re-matcher and the pair will meet to sign articles for a second meeting. The bitter attack on Referee Scott's decision, which was very unfair to the American fighter, has caused the fans here to cry for a second battle between these two boys on this side, and the editor of Boxing, a periodical here, devoted to sports exclusively, came to the front with an offer of a $7,500 purse.

It is believed that the same conditions that prevailed in the first encounter will rule in the second should the match go through, but Packey is anxious to make it winner take all. Eugene Corri is spoken of as referee. The press here has criticized Scott severely for his verdict, and the sporting circles generally are busy

Advertisement for Shredded Wheat Biscuits and Berries. Includes text: 'Time for Biscuit and Berries', 'Heat a Shredded Wheat Biscuit in the oven to restore crispness...', and an illustration of a bowl of biscuits with berries.