Ignatius Donnelly Sends His Letter of Acceptance to the Populists.

Declares That Freedom No Longer Exists, but That Everything Is Tending Toward a Despotism of Wealth.

PREPARATORY WORK FOR STOCKTON FAIR BEGINS

THE COUNTRY Interest in the Balloting Continues and the Contest Now Lies Between the Misses Sievers and Peters.

NO RIOTING AT ST. LOUIS

Police and Deputies Succeed in Maintaining Temporary Order.

Governor Stephens Scores Mayor Zeigenheim, Who, He Says, Is Neglecting His Duty for Political Purposes.

ST. LOUIS, June 11.—The Sabbath's scenes of disorder and bloodshed were followed to-day by comparative quiet throughout the city. Last night's riot was the all-absorbing topic, especially among the police force and the officers and men of the Sheriff's posse comitatus. They discussed it in all its bearings, the opinion being expressed that the posse men had done their full duty and no more. The strikers and their sympathizers, naturally, viewed the occurrence in a light diametrically opposite to that of the Sheriff's posse, the officials of the former making the claim that the men were shot down in cold blood. down in cold blood.

Cars were operated until midnight tonight on the following lines: Laclede avenue, Market street, Olive street,
Washington avenue, Compton Heights and Park avenue. Up to a late hour no reports of disorders had been received by the board of police. The surveillance of the Police Department was not relayed. the Police Department was not relaxed in the least as compared with the preceding days of the strike. If anything their efforts were redoubled in maintaining peace and order, as in some quarters it was feared the lawless element of the community might possibly take measures. community might possibly take measures to even up yesterday's score, when three striking employes were killed and nine striking employes were killed and nine persons injured by the posse. In the same degree the two regiments of the posse were on their mettle.

In answer to a letter directed by Chief of Police Campbeil this evening to Mayor Zeigenhein, the following proclamation was issued by the latter:

Whereas, During the pendency of the present railway strike and the crisis through which the city is now passing, it is of the utmost importance that all excitement be suppressed and that no acts of any kind be done which may tend to produce or create excitement in public places, such as the assembling of crowds or groups of persons upon the streets, the discussion of the situation in boisterous language or the discharge of firearms or freworks.

THE PART OF THE PA

ADVERTISEMENTS.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A VACATION.

Build Up the Nerves at Home.

Professor Wm. C. Webster, principal of Webster's Music School, 600 Steinway Hall, 17 East Van Buren street, Chicago, Ill., in a recent letter says:

"I have used your medicine and cannot say too much for it. I will recommend it to anybody. I keep it in my school in case of need."

medicine and have so improved that I feel like a new person. I am very thankful that I got hold of your wonderful remedy. I cannot say too much in your behalf. I had doctored for two years until I felt there was no relief.

"My wife has taken one bottle of your grand medicine and it has helped her so

A New Man. N. C. May, Oak Ridge Station, Pa., writes:

"Mr. L. P. Bailey, whose health was impaired and who always felt tired and haggard, by my persuasion, began to use Feruna about a month ago, and now he looks like a different man. He says he feels 100 per cent

"My wife has taken one bottle of your grand medicine and it has helped her so much. I find it has improved her health so much that I will recommend it to any

Yours gratefully. CHARLES NEWMAN.

Nervous Depression.

The month of July is peculiarly the month of nervous diseases, especially nervous prostration and other depressed states of the nervous system. People who

POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE TO WED AT WOODLAND

W. L. Woods and Miss Bertha Gaddis Will Be Made Man and Wife at High Noon.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

Woods is now serving his second term as Treasurer of the county. Miss and Miss Bertha Gaddis will be married at the residence of the mother of the bride. Mrs.

Barnes, on College street. The wedding is of more than ordinary interest on account of the political prominence of the prospective groom, the prominence in ed-

KILLED FOUR AND SET FIRE TO THE HOUSE MOB WREAKS VENGEANCE

Maine Murderer Attempts Prisoner Is Taken From the Jail, to Conceal a Terrible Hanged to a Tree and Riddled to Conceal a Terrible retary of State, warmly protesting against a recent statement by the Journal de Geneve, which he characterizes as "rubbish"—that he wrote to the Duke of Norfolk denouncing the doctrine of the temporal power of the Pope and the methods of the congregations and the Roman Curia.

WEST NEWFIELD, Me., June 11.—
George W. Goodwin and three members of his household were murdered last night and the house in which they lived set on fire by the murderer, whose motive was presumably robbery. The dead are:
George W. Goodwin, his mother, Mrs.
Curia.

Curia.

WEST NEWFIELD, Me., June 11.—
George W. Goodwin and three members of his household were murdered last night and the house in which they lived set on fire by the murderer, whose motive was presumably robbery. The dead are:
George W. Goodwin, his mother, Mrs.
Curia.

Curi

reached it. In the case of Bertsch, not only was the skull crushed in in a similar manner to that of Mrs. Horne, but there were deep wounds on other parts of the body.

Suspicion regis of the body.

Suspicion rests upon a farmhand named Champion, who had been in the neighborhood. Goodwin sold a piece of woodland recently for $2300. Neighbors say he did not put the money in the bank and they think this induced the murder.

ON A FIENDISH NEGRO

With Bullets.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., June 11 .- Senny

Suspicion Rests on a Farm Hand Who Has Been Loitering in the Neighborhood and Robbery Is Assigned as the Motive.

WEST NEWFIELD, Me., June 11.—
George W. Goodwin and three members of his household were murdered last night

THOMASVILLE, Ga., June 11.—Senny Jefferson, a negro, twenty-two years of age, was lynched near Metcalf, about ten miles from Thomasville, by unknown parties this morning. Jefferson had been working for Emery Stringer, a white farmer, and Saturday night attempted to assault one of Mr. Stringer's daughters. Sunday morning he was caught and confined in the jail at Metcalf. Soon after midnight he was taken to the outskirts of the village, hanged to a tree and riddled with bullets.

Of Interest to the Coast

temporal power of the Pope and the methods of the congregations and the Roman Curia.

Mgr. Ireland declares that he speaks and thinks with the Pope on such a serious matter, and he reserves to himself the right to repeat these declarations by word of mouth to Cardinal Rampolla when next he visits Rome, in order to avail himself of his Grace's jubilee and to receive the Papal benediction.

Killed by a Harvester.

Special Dispatch to The Call.

WOODLAND, June II.—Late Saturday afternoon Samuel Wallace, a separator tender employed on the Hayes harvester near Madison, in some unaccountable manner fell feet first into the cylinder, and his legs were mangled as far as the knees in a horrible manner. Young Wallace, never railled from the shock and, after lingering for three hours, died.

The dead are:
George W. Goodwin, his mother, Mrs.
Glise R. Horne, 76 years of age; his adopted son, Scott Goodwin, 20 years, and a hired man, Fred Bertsch.
The bodies of all four were recovered this morning from the ruins of the house, and two of them, those of Mrs. Horne and Bertsch, gave every indication that they had been foully murdered.

The Goodwin home is two miles out of town. Early this morning neighbors found the house in embers and no trace of the occupants. Search in the ruins resulted in the finding of the bodies. The colless of Mr. Goodwin and his son were hardly recognizable, that of the latter besides of Mr. Goodwin and his son were hardly recognizable; that of the latter besides of Mr. Goodwin and his son were hardly recognizable, that of the latter besides of Mr. Goodwin and his son were hardly recognizable, that of the latter besides of Mrs. Horne had been crushed in by some blunt instrument and that death probably ensued before the fire