CONDITION OF POPE NOT SO SATISFACTORY

ROME, Feb. 28.-The Pope rose at his usual hour this morning, declaring that the precautions he had taken had been of benefit to his cold and general health. Among his first acts was the signing of the promotion of his nephew. Count Camille Decci, to be brigadier general of the Noble Guard. The Pontiff insists on carrying out his programme for holding a reception of the cardinals to-morrow.

have Fritz arrested and put under bonds to keep the peace, but her husband said he feared nothing at the hands of his partner and for a time the matter rested. About 6 o'clock Mrs. Morrison, accompanied by her two little girls, one aged 10 and another 4 years, came to the Montgomery-street office that she might join her husband, who was preparing advertisements for the morning papers. Miss Yarnell was present and busy with her work. Half an hour later Fritz walked into the room. He appeared to be excited and immediately started an argument over a bill of $10, which he claimed Morrison had not paid. Morrison produced a checkbook and exhibited a stub to his partner. The latter was not satisfled and the quarrel continued.

ANGER MAKES HIM A FIEND. Heated words were spoken and epithets were hurled from man to man. When Fritz witnessed the interference of the wife he prepared for his terrible work. "Step out of the way!" he shouted to the woman, "and let me get at him!" Mrs. Morrison released her embrace and turned to see a revolver in the hands of the man who had given the flerce command. Instantly the weapon was raised and three shots were fired. With a shriek Morrison sank to the floor. Then the murderer turned and looked at the younger of the two children, Flora. He evidently was studying whether or not the child should be made a sacrifice. The crazed mother turned her attention to the little ones. Crowding them in front of her that they might be shielded from
