

SPORTS OF THE TRACK, THE BEACH AND THE RING

PAT MORRISSEY, THE OLD MUDLARK, IS FIRST IN THREE JOCKEY FINISH

Favorites at the Track Across the Bay Hold Their Own---The Ladaean Downs Col. Ballantyne at Long Odds---Young Pepper Defeats H. L. Frank, a Hot Tip

As though for old time's sake, Pat Morrissey won a nose decision over Legal Maxim and Dollie Wetthoff in the first race decided yesterday at Oakland track.

The rainfall of the night before left the track moist and somewhat heavy, and the old mudlark warmed up to the going from the start. Pat was ridden by the long, lean, angular Jockey Stuart, who every now and then is aroused from one of his apathetic spells and puts a winner over the plate.

There was price enough, too, for the ring gradually bumped the opening quotation of 6 to 12. For a time after the start it looked as if Legal Maxim and Dollie Wetthoff would fight it out. When these got to wobbling down past the paddock Stuart told them with Morrissey, and the trio crossed the line noses apart, with the verdict going to Pat. The Singer, a 9 to 5 favorite, retired for rest and quittance after displaying some early speed.

TRACK IS HEAVY.

While the track was slow horses ran well to form, favorites capturing three of the six events. Besides Pat Morrissey, the Ladaean added his name to the long shot directory by winning at 10 to 1.

Bonner on Stunts in the mile selling proved a decided improvement over I. Wilson, who rode the colt at Ingleside last week. The Brown entry was backed down from 4 to 15 to 5, and under wraps most of the trip beat Greyfield a neck, with something in reserve. James F. an 8-pounder, piloted by W. Daly, took the show from Goldene by a head.

Bombardier was scratched from the two-year-old dash, and H. L. Frank, from the stable of D. Cameron, was touted as the real ride one. So steady was the play on the youngster, cutting his price from 8 to 3, that the odds about Young Pepper, the favorite, drifted from 7 to 5 to 2. At the start J. Daly, who rode H. L. Frank, did not have clear sailing, and although running a nice race fell second to the winner, which was ridden by Jimmy Boland. T. J. Cox ran third after leading almost to the paddock.

VELMA CLARK A WINNER.

Powell landed the second six and a half furlongs with Velma Clark, a 5 to 1 chance, second in demand to Bogus Bill. The last paddock horse reached the goal for the purse, and after conceding the first position to Tyrannus ran into the show. Velma Clark finished strongly, disposing of Tyrannus by more than a length. As Colonee Ballantyne has not been showing to advantage of late, Star Cotton fell in for the smart play to take the mile and a quarter selling number. Notwithstanding that the odds about Cotton dropped from 4 to 2 1/2, the Colonee still ruled 3 favorite. Tyrannus, who was against the Ladaean was cut to 6. From the start the favorite and Star Cotton alternated in cutting out the running. Minder on the Ladaean failing to get up until the paddock was reached. Then he got through on the rail and in a desperate drive led the Colonee out half a length despite Bullman's fierce efforts on the latter.

Orsina made a gallop of the concluding six-furlong run after her odds had gone from 6 to 5 to 11 to 5. She was piloted by Reed and finished first, nearly five lengths ahead of Mima. Diamante ran third.
