Each of These Ten Pictures Represents the Name of a Tree---The First Is Aspen---Guess the Rest and Win a CONSOLATION PRIZE.

ARE YOU PAYING STRICT ATTENTION--EVERYBODY? Last Sunday a big surprise was promised you for to-day. The following is only a very small part of it. THE SURPRISE ITSELF HAS BEEN KEPT OVER ANOTHER WEEK IN ORDER TO ARRANGE FOR SOME NEW AND BEAUTIFUL PRIZES FROM PARIS. Just think of that. Isn't it glorious, just to hold in anticipation, such a splendid prospect? But just think what the realization will be!

In the meantime here is something for everybody. IT IS A SPECIAL CONSOLATION CONTEST, open to all those who have not already won a prize in any of the thirteen contests of the Third Series.
Each of the pictures on this page represents the name of a TREE. The first, as you will see in large type above, represents an ASPEN. You couldn't miss that. But what are the others? Ah, that is where you will find your own enjoyment in solving them.

In order to make it easier for you, however, let us help you a little. Just look at Picture No. 5.
That picture ought to appeal to every man, woman and child for the peculiar pathos contained therein. It is PALM, of course.

Picture No. 8 might be a little harder were it not for the fact that it is almost entirely spelled out for you. Just piece the particles together and you will find that you have MA-HOG-ON-E MA- HOGANY. Too easy, aren't they? But just try the others.

REMEMBER--You may send in as many answers in your name as you wish, provided only that you have a coupon to accompany each answer, and--REMEMBER--there is no age limit and young and old may compete.

THE NAMES OF THE LUCKY WINNERS WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE SUNDAY CALL
TWO WEEKS FROM TO-DAY, May 31. And as for the reward, there are TWENTY CONSOLATION PRIZES for the successful ones. You cannot fail to win one of them if you get to work early, send in your answers promptly and--get them right.

Now here are the important points for you to remember: The First Ten Boys and the First Ten Girls who send in correct solutions to these ten pictures before noon next Friday will win a prize. Don't forget that point, because it is very important. ALL ANSWERS MUST REACH THIS OFFICE
BY FRIDAY NOON. This gives all those in the country an equal chance to compete. Read everything on this page to be sure that you overlook nothing that will help you to win a prize.

This is what you must do to win a Consolation Prize: Find the name of a tree represented in each of the ten puzzle pictures and write it out in full in the space opposite the proper corresponding number provided for the purpose in the coupon on this page as per its directions--fill in your name and address and the prize you desire--if you win--and mail the coupon to the Puzzle Editor, Sunday Call, San Francisco.

FOLLOW THE RULES OR YOU WILL BE DEBARRED.

This puzzlecontest of the THIRD SERIES closed last Sunday, but those who showed cleverness and industry must keep a keen eye open for the award of the special prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 for the highest percentage of correct answers in the whole series of thirteen weeks.

Now is your chance in this Consolation Contest. Don't miss it. Every picture is as easy as those three that have been revealed to you.

THESE ARE THE PRIZES FROM WHICH YOU MAY SELECT IF YOU SOLVE ALL TEN PUZZLES CORRECTLY: Magic Lantern, Paint Box, Spalding's Tennis Racquet, King Air Gun, Game of Parchesi, Silver Shirt Waist Set, Baseball Glove, Football, Pearl Handled Knife, Extension Skates, Sil-
