RACE WAR'S DEAD NINE AT COLUMBER

Troops Now in Control of the Situation in Evansville.

General McKee Commands Four Companies and a Light Battery.

All Negro Residents Vanish and the Sheriff Remains in Hiding Under Military Protection.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 7.—After the carnage last night Evansville to-night is obeying the orders of the Mayor and the residents are keeping off the streets. Nine persons are dead, one is dying, three others are fatally wounded and twenty-one more or less injured.

Four died to-day—Frank Lambie, aged 28, shot through the chin and breast; Fred Kappeler, Jacob E. Beck, a barber, shot through the brain, and Charles Taylor, a wagonmaker, who was an onlooker and did not participate in the attack on the troops, and who was shot in the back.

John Barrett is dying from shot wounds received from the volley fired into the mob and his physicians say he cannot live till morning. The previously unidentified dead man has been recognized as Robert V. Beck, who was shot in the head during the volley from the Courthouse defenders last night.

Eight companies of militia and one light battery are in Evansville. The 400 soldiers are armed with rifles, and the light battery has a Gatling gun. The Terre Haute company arrived this afternoon and relieved the Vincennes and Evansville companies in guarding the jail. An hour later Brigadier General McKee, in command of the Indiana National Guard, arrived and assumed command of the troops. At 8:35 o'clock to-night a special train arrived, bearing three companies and a battery of artillery from Indianapolis; also a company from Martinsville.

NOT A NEGRO IN SIGHT.
The troops marched through a quiet, curious crowd of several thousand persons. There was not a negro in sight. In the meantime the Evansville, Terre Haute and Vincennes companies had gone into camp around the Courthouse and jail, with sentries and pickets lined out. No one was allowed to approach within 200 yards of the jail. General McKee ordered the Martinsville company to relieve the companies around the jail for a part of the night, and the Indianapolis companies and the battery went into camp in Sunset Park. At his arrival this afternoon, held a consultation with the Mayor and a committee of fifteen prominent citizens designated by the Mayor as a committee of safety. At this meeting there were some expressions of severe criticism of the course of Mayor Covert. General McKee asked for the co-operation of Sheriff Kratz, but that official telephoned from the jail that it would be death for him to leave the protection of the troops, and he is still entrenched behind the guns of the soldiers and the walls of the jail. General McKee was asked by the citizens for the troops possible, and said he could pour 3000 soldiers into the city before daylight if necessary. He said he thought the 400 rifles which had arrived would be sufficient for all contingencies.

All saloons were ordered closed at noon, and the order was obeyed to-night. The general expression heard in the streets is: "Wait until the soldiers go away. There will be trouble again. This thing is not over yet."

SINISTER THREATS HEARD.
Martial law will not be declared until there is renewed trouble. General McKee said to-night that he had reported that threats were made by leaders of the rioters when they saw the troops arriving that they "would not do a thing to those negro protectors" before daylight.

The Central Labor Union joined with the Mayor this afternoon in a proclamation urging the citizens to remain in their homes to-night and maintain order. The negro fire company has left the city under advice of the Mayor and its place in the department has been filled with white men. The fire company has been frightened that they were regarded as untitled to perform their duties and were relieved from duty at their own request. Of the ten men who were fined $100 each in the Police Court to-day for carrying concealed weapons nine were negroes.

The Grand Jury to-day returned twenty indictments against rioters. The claps have not been served and the names of the rioters have not been made public. The indicted are said to be well-known citizens.

COLORADO COURT ENJOINS THE STRIKING SMELTMEN
Forbids Them to Post Pickets or Interfere With the Men Who Have Taken Their Places.

DENVER, Colo., July 7.—The striking smelters and all others were enjoined this afternoon from interfering with operation of the Grant and Globe smelters. The injunction was issued by Judge Walter Nichols of Pueblo, sitting in the District Court here, and was made on complaint of the American Smelting and Refining Company.

BOOMING CANNON OF BRITISH NAVY WELCOME THE WARSHIPS OF AMERICA

Rear-Admiral Cotton in Command of the European Squadron of the United States Is Received at Portsmouth by Commander Milne, Who Expresses the Gratification of King Edward at the Arrival of the Fleet

COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN SQUADRON NOW AT PORTSMOUTH, HIS FLAGSHIP AND DISTINGUISHED ENGLISH NAVAL OFFICER WHO WELCOMED HIM TO THE SHORES OF ENGLAND.

PORTSMOUTH, England, July 7.—With the boom of cannon, the British fleet, on behalf of King Edward, welcomed the United States European Squadron this morning. The gunboat Machias joined the flagship Kearsarge, the Chicago and the States European squadron to meet the British fleet. The latter, in obedience to a signal from Lord Charles Beresford, the commander of the channel squadron, formed two lines, and down this lane of huge gray warships moved the Americans, their white sides gleaming in the sunlight.

National salutes were fired by each squadron, which was followed by an exchange of salutes to Rear Admiral Cotton and Vice Admiral Beresford.

Subsequently the two admirals exchanged calls on the flagships, according to the usual honors as each came over the side.

At high tide the American warships entered the harbor, led by the Kearsarge, which was moored south of the railroad jetty and within a stone's throw of Nelson's old flagship, the Victory; King Edward's yacht, the Victoria and Albert, and the battleship Collingwood, flagship of Admiral Hotham, the commander in chief of Portsmouth.

WELCOMES THE SQUADRON.
As the Kearsarge approached the jetty "attention" was sounded on the Victoria and Albert, the Victory and the other ships in the harbor, a courtesy which was returned from the Kearsarge's deck, on which were drawn up an admiral's guard of fifty marines, under the command of Lieutenant Colly.

When the Kearsarge was berthed Sir William Duree, the Mayor of Portsmouth, boarded her and greeted Admiral Cotton, saying:

"The people of Portsmouth welcome the American squadron and extend to its officers and men all the courtesies they can offer."

Admiral Cotton replied, expressing his pleasure on behalf of the United States. Admiral Milne, commander of the royal yachts, specially detailed by King Edward to welcome the Americans, arrived on board the Kearsarge and was received by Admiral Cotton and Captain Hemphill. Admiral Milne expressed the gratification of King Edward at the arrival of the squadron, and in behalf of the King, welcomed it to England.

Subsequently Admiral Cotton, Captain Hemphill and the staff officers visited the naval officials, escorted by an admiral's guard and a band.

Admiral Cotton has designated the officers who are to attend the state ball at Buckingham Palace, London, Wednesday, in honor of President Louber. Besides Rear Admiral Cotton and all the American commanders, the list includes a number of lieutenants and ensigns and representatives of the medical and pay staffs.

MAKE OFFICIAL VISITS.
During Admiral Cotton's visit to Admiral Hotham, the latter recalled the fact that they had previously met at Esquimaux, when Admiral Hotham commanded the British Pacific squadron, and Admiral Cotton was in command of the Philadelphia. Admiral Hotham reiterated personally the warm message of welcome which he had previously transmitted to Admiral Cotton at Spithead.

The King welcomes you and your squadron to England, and is looking forward to greeting you and your brother officers in London.

Admiral Cotton immediately replied as follows:

FLAGSHIP KEARSARGE, PORTSMOUTH. Lord Knollys, Secretary to His Majesty, King Edward VII., Buckingham Palace, London: Rear Admiral Cotton acknowledges with grateful appreciation His Majesty's cordial welcome to himself and officers of the squadron under his command to England and anticipates with great pleasure the honor of meeting and paying his respects to His Majesty in London.

Admiral Cotton and the American officers, while in London, will be quartered at various hotels as the guests of the nation.

Admiral Cotton vigorously denies the report which appeared in the German newspapers that more than a hundred men deserted from his squadron at Kiel. The admiral declares that the discipline of the crews is excellent.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE, July 7.—Admiral Cotton, United States Battleship Kearsarge:

The King welcomes you and your squadron to England, and is looking forward to greeting you and your brother officers in London.

Admiral Cotton immediately replied as follows:

FLAGSHIP KEARSARGE, PORTSMOUTH. Lord Knollys, Secretary to His Majesty, King Edward VII., Buckingham Palace, London: Rear Admiral Cotton acknowledges with grateful appreciation His Majesty's cordial welcome to himself and officers of the squadron under his command to England and anticipates with great pleasure the honor of meeting and paying his respects to His Majesty in London.

SHOT DOWN BY CRAVEN ASSASSIN

Frank Purcell Seriously Wounded in the Back.

Colonel R. B. Thornton Is Arrested for the Crime.

Bullet Is Fired From Behind a Fence and Suspicion Falls Upon the Victim's Enemy.

POINT RICHMOND, July 7.—A shooting occurred here to-night that has many of the cowardly aspects of a Kentucky feud, Frank Purcell, proprietor of a transfer company, was seriously wounded in the back by an assassin, concealing himself behind a high board fence before firing the shot. A hole was found sawed in the fence at just the right height to permit a man standing behind the fence to shoot accurately and without fear of being seen. Colonel R. B. Thornton, an architect and a Southerner, is now in the Martinez County Jail, suspected of having done the shooting.

The shooting occurred at about 9 o'clock. Purcell was on his way home and had just turned from Richmond avenue into Tunnel avenue when a pistol shot rang out and Purcell dropped with a bullet in his back just under the left shoulder. When Purcell fell it is presumed that the man who fired the shot was satisfied that he had accomplished his object, and did not want to take the risk of attracting more attention by the shooting a second time.

The sound of the shot brought several people to the scene and Purcell was taken in charge by a physician. An examination failed to locate the bullet. The doctors said that the wound was extremely serious, but prognosis could not be advanced until a more complete examination was made.

An examination was at once made of the neighborhood and it was found that in the direction from which the bullet must have come there was a high board fence. In the fence at a point from which the shot must have been fired was a hole that had been recently sawed, about four inches wide and twelve inches long. This fence is built across a lot that is very near the offices of Colonel R. B. Thornton, a local architect and a Southerner of fiery disposition.

Then it was recalled that about six weeks ago Thornton and Purcell had engaged in a fight in which Thornton was pretty badly whipped. The row of six weeks ago occurred over some business differences and involved in addition to the two principals, James White, a brother-in-law of Purcell, and W. M. Richards.

The old trouble, the location of the fence near the office of Colonel Thornton, and all the circumstances seemed to point to revenge as the motive for the crime, and a search was made for Thornton. He was found in a nearby saloon, and was at once put under arrest. In his pocket was found a revolver, but all of the chambers were full. He was placed under arrest, however, and at once sent to Martinez pending the result of the examination into Purcell's condition tomorrow. He refused to make a statement.

SENATOR CLARK ASSUMES CONTROL OF ANOTHER ROAD

Oregon Short Line System South of Salt Lake Is Formally Transferred to Him.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 7.—That part of the Oregon Short Line Railroad system south of Salt Lake City was formally turned over to the Los Angeles, Salt Lake and San Pedro Railroad at midnight and became part of the system Senator W. A. Clark of Montana and associates are building in Southern California. Word was received at the headquarters of the Salt Lake road yesterday that all the details of the transfer of the road and rolling stock had been completed and notifying the officials to take charge at midnight. Since the first of the month all the business of the road south of Salt Lake had been done under separate booking, so the transfer was a formal one. The work of building the road across Southern Nevada will be pushed with all speed, both from the Utah and California ends of the Salt Lake road.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

It's Pretty Hard

For any San Francisco woman to attend to household duties with the aches and pains of a bad back. A woman's back wasn't made to ache, and it won't if the kidneys are well.

Most backache pains, most nervous headaches and other bodily troubles of womankind come from sick kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Cure every form of kidney ills; cure all urinary troubles, diabetes, down to the first stages of Bright's Disease. They are indorsed by San Francisco people.

FRISCO PROOF.

Mrs. Catherine Bartlett of 2720 Twenty-first street says: "I have used many dollars' worth of medicine guaranteed to cure kidney complaint during the last seven years, but I must confess the benefit I received from the most of it was infinitesimal. My trouble dates from overwork when nursing my late husband through his final sickness and it is very difficult to adequately express what I really endured. Knowing that trouble with the kidney secretions is always a sure indication of inward trouble with the kidneys, I had not the slightest doubt about the cause of the complications, but what to do to stop it was a mystery. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my rescue at a time when sorely required. It took three boxes to bring good sound health, but I consider the money well invested."
