COLLIDES WITH ANCHORED SHIP

Schooner Solano Is Carried by Strong Tide Against Bows of Bark R. P. Rithet

REPORT HEAVY STORMS

Vessels Arriving Yesterday Bring News of Rough Experience in Fierce Gales

The schooner Solano and the bark R. P. Rithet had a lively smash-up in the bay yesterday morning. The Solano crossed in over the bar under sail and threw out her anchors abreast of Black Point. A strong flood time was running at the time and carried the Solano down on to the Rithet, which was lying at anchor just off Alcatraz Island. The two vessels got twisted up in great shape for a while, despite the efforts of their crews. The strong currents carried them apart for a moment and then would swing them together again with great force. At one period it looked as if the upper portion of both would be smashed to pieces. Finally the tugs Sea Lark, Sea King and Reliance came to their assistance and after an hour's hot tussle succeeded in dragging them apart and towing the Solano to a safe anchorage.

The Solano had the rail on her port side damaged, while her main, fore and jigger rigging were carried away.

The Rithet's fore topgallant mast was carried away, her bowsprit was smashed, catheads were damaged and her jibboom and fore skysail mast were torn out of position. It will require several thousand dollars to repair the damage.

The Solano was twenty-five days from Eleele and brings 22,131 bags of sugar to Williams, Dimond & Co.

SCHOONER SOLANO AND THE BARK R. P. RITHET IN COLLISION OFF ALCATRAZ.

Has Rough Experience.

The British ship Brodick Castle arrived in port yesterday, 94 days from Newcastle, Australia. Captain Olsen reports having encountered a storm of hurricane force that came near to sending the vessel to the lockers of Davey Jones. The Brodick Castle sailed from Newcastle on February 15. On March 9, when in latitude 28.50 south, and longitude 170.42 west, she ran into a heavy east, southeast gale, which blew with terrible force. A mountainous sea was running at the time. It filled the ship's decks to the rails, flooding cabins and deckhouses. So great was the force of the sea that it stove in doors and windows in the forward house and galley, and smashed the starboard quarter boat to kindling wood. One huge sea struck the ship with tremendous force, and tore the tarpaulins off the main and fore hatches, and washed them overboard. During this period the wind was raging with unabated fury, and in the height of the storm the two lower topsails were blown away. When the gale abated somewhat it was found that the cargo had shifted. The damage done to the deck was considerable. The storm lasted three days. From then until May 17, when she arrived off this port, the ship had light winds. Here she struck a heavy north, northwest gale. During the storm Harry Cook, a sailor, was knocked down by the sea and thrown into the scuppers. He was picked up unconscious. Yesterday he had recovered somewhat and went to the Marine Hospital for treatment. Captain Olsen reports that on May 12 in latitude 59.22 north and longitude 142 west he spoke the bark Servia, and on March 31, in latitude 12.12 south and longitude 135.04 west he sighted the ship Hutton Hall. The Brodick Castle was quoted on the reinsurance list at 8 per cent. She brings 2649 tons coal to J. & A. Brown.

Seas Sweep Decks.

The schooner W. H. Marston arrived in yesterday, seventeen days from Hilo. Captain Gove reports that on May 17 and 18, when he was just off this port, he struck a heavy north northwest gale. A high sea was running at the time, which filled the decks to the rails, and washed everything movable overboard. Two sails were blown away. She brings 36,272 bags of sugar to Welch & Co.

Mate's Arm Broken.

The schooner Mary E. Foster, which arrived yesterday reports running into a northwest gale on May 17, which carried away several sails. During the storm A. Olsen, the second mate, was washed against the rail by a heavy sea and his arm was broken. The Foster was sixteen days from Kaanapali. She brings 26,700 bags of sugar to Williams, Dimond & Co.

Minnesota Increases Speed.

Great Northern Railway people got a telegram yesterday announcing the arrival in Yokohama of the steamship Minnesota, fourteen days out from Seattle. Her best previous time on the route between Seattle and Yokohama was nineteen days.

Barcore Encounters Gales.

The British ship Barcore arrived yesterday, 155 days from Newcastle, England. She sailed from that port December 15, 1904, and from February 21 to 28 she was in a terrible gale. Captain Mackenzie says she rolled terribly, and pitched about at the mercy of the confused seas. She was thirty days rounding the horn. She brings merchandise to Meyer, Wilson & Co.

Mate's Ribs Broken.

The schooner Gamble, Captain Holmes, arrived in yesterday, eleven days from Gamble. On May 17 a terrific squall struck the vessel. A great wave broke on board, which caught Mate John Austin and threw him against a pile of lumber, breaking two of his ribs. The Gamble brings 700,000 feet of lumber and 168 piles to Pope & Talbot.

Overdues.

The reinsurance rate on the Battle Abbey was raised yesterday from 8 per cent to 15 per cent. This was due to the reports of the tough gales off the coast, which the incomers yesterday reported.

Others on the list are: British ship Kincossshire, 77 days from Newcastle to Valparaiso, 15 per cent; Alcinous, 156 days from Peru to Antwerp, 90 per cent; Agnes, 190 days from Shields to Valparaiso, 90 per cent; Glenburn, 206 days from San Francisco to Liverpool, 90 per cent.

A. J. Fuller Shifts Cargo.

The American ship A. J. Fuller arrived in yesterday, twenty-two days from Honolulu. Captain Haskell reports that on May 18 they ran into a heavy northwest gale, with high cross sea, which caused the cargo to shift to starboard. The Fuller brings 48,189 bags of sugar to Welch & Co.

Will Leave Drydock To-Day.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company's steamer Siberia will leave the drydock at noon to-day and return to her wharf at the Mail Dock.

NEWS OF THE OCEAN.

Matters of Interest to Mariners and Shipping Merchants.

The German ship Siam (on Puget Sound) was chartered prior to arrival for lumber, thence to a direct nitrate port at 37s 6d. According to the terms of the charter the vessel will carry 1,150,000 feet.

A Cargo for Japan.

The British steamer Heathdene was cleared yesterday for Yokohama with 8715 bales cotton and 315 cs pulp board, valued at $436,036.

Exports by the Enterprise.

The steamer Enterprise sailed yesterday for Honolulu, via Hilo, with cargo consigned to Hilo, valued at $43,879 and including the following: 60 bbls flour, 1876 ctls barley, 122 ctls wheat, 25 ctls oats, 68 ctls corn, 930 bales hay, 76,895 lbs bran, 26,168 lbs middlings, 2216 lbs meals, 3850 lbs beans, 608 pkgs potatoes, 45 pkgs onions, 210 pkgs fresh fruits, 2535 lbs 15 cs cheese, 2667 lbs 5 cs butter, 3240 lbs oleomargarine, 1300 lbs sugar, 30 cs millstuffs, 1391 lbs ham and bacon, 7192 lbs codfish, 12,300 lbs salt, 78,200 lbs rice, 6720 lbs lard, 9536 lbs 34 cs bread, 220 pkgs groceries and provisions, 503 cs canned goods, 26 pkgs paste, 3551 lbs 2 bxs candy, 2370 lbs dressed meat, 1553 lbs dried fish, 8 cs dressed poultry, 640 lbs 12 bxs dried fruit, 12 cs 23 pkgs salmon, 2666 gals wine, 253 gals 25 cs whisky, 1 bbl 10 cs gin, 10 cs liquors, 5802 lbs tobacco, 8 cs cigars, 221,125 lbs fertilizer, 109 cs boots and shoes, 79 pkgs dry goods, 22 pkgs leather, 2 cs cartridges, 51 pkgs paper, 91 pkgs paints, 7 pkgs electrical goods, 120 cs soap, 33 bales paper bags, 43 pkgs drugs and sundries, 16 carboys acid, 4 cs plows, 25 pkgs nails, 14 bdls 26 bars iron, 59 sks coal, 76 pcs machinery.

The steamer also carried 12,600 lbs soda, 36 carboys acid, 150 cs coal oil and 1 cs cement, valued at $544, for Honolulu.

NOTE—In the above exposition of the tides the early morning tides are given in the left hand column and the successive tides of the day in the order of occurrence as to time; the fourth time column gives the last tide of the day, except when there are but three tides, as sometimes occurs. The heights given are in addition to the soundings of the United States Coast Survey Charts, except when a minus (—) sign precedes the height, and then the number given is subtracted from the depth given by the charts. The plane of reference is the mean of the lower low waters.

RETAIL TRADE RATHER QUIET

Demand for Spring and Summer Wearing Apparel Is Not as Good as Expected

DEALERS ARE CAUTIOUS

Adverse Weather Conditions Furnish Cause for Complaint Among Merchants

NEW YORK, May 19.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade to-morrow will say: Unseasonable weather is the chief cause of complaint, both as to distribution of merchandise and agricultural developments. In many leading cities retail trade in spring and summer wearing apparel is falling behind expectations, and there is less than the customary reorder business in wholesale and jobbing departments. Although no actual reduction in the crops is yet assured, sufficient uncertainty has appeared to render dealers in the farming districts somewhat cautious regarding the accumulation of supplies beyond current requirements. Otherwise the trade situation is satisfactory. Manufacturing activity is fully maintained, the percentage of idle machinery being smaller than at any recent date and the textile industries making notable progress under the stimulus of advancing raw materials. The few strikes now in progress cause little interruption, and some of the July 1 wage scales have been adjusted, but others are still under discussion. Railway earnings thus far available for May show an average gain of 8 per cent over last year, and foreign commerce at this port for the last week increased $3,967,199 in value of exports, while imports declined $592,312 in comparison with the same week in 1904.

Failures this week numbered 234 in the United States, against 236 last year, and 11 in Canada, compared with 12 a year ago.

Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: Adverse weather conditions are a leading source of complaint this week, but clearing skies, now reported throughout a large area of the country, bid fair to reinforce existing optimistic views as to late summer and fall trade.

Exports are close to the record mark for the season, and some gain is noted in corn, which may presage a turn in the tide of the grain trade.

Railway earnings continue exceptionally good despite the smaller cereal movement, the first quarter of 1905 showing a gain of 7 per cent in net on a gross gain of 5 per cent. Nine months of the fiscal year the returns have increased 7 per cent on a gross gain of 3 per cent.

New business in lumber is reported rather quiet at New York, but shipments on orders already booked are very large. The Pacific Coast lumber trade reports continued improvement.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending May 18 number 191, against 158 last week, 215 in the like week in 1904, 155 in 1903, 152 in 1902 and 192 in 1901. In Canada failures number 17, as against 18 last week and 11 in this week a year ago.

Wheat (including flour) exports for the week ending May 18 are 1,512,550 bushels, against 899,355 last week, 1,225,763 this week last year, 5,293,373 in 1903 and 5,184,839 in 1902. From July 1 to date the exports are 55,999,999 bushels, against 124,877,064 last year, 149,683,031 in 1903 and 224,999,109 in 1902.

UDELL STILL SEEKS TO CONTROL ESTATE

Defeated in His Effort to Remove Aged Juana Marshall's Guardian.

Alva Udell has again been defeated in an effort to gain control of the estate of aged Juana Marshall, who recently startled the police with a tale that unknown enemies had attempted to poison her. After a hearing in Judge Graham's court, at the conclusion of which the old woman was declared incompetent and the Union Trust Company named her guardian, Udell presented a petition to revoke the letters of guardianship, claiming that he held a deed of trust to Mrs. Marshall's estate, in which one W. J. Gray was named with him as co-trustee.

Yesterday Udell's petition came up for hearing before Judge Kerrigan, and, to the astonishment of the petitioner, Gray appeared and testified that the allegation that he was named in any deed of trust with Udell was not based upon fact. He had met Udell but once, he said, and had never authorized any one to use his name as a trustee of Juana Marshall's estate.

The result was that the court promptly denied Udell's petition. Udell still has one card left in the nature of a petition to revoke the letters of guardianship over the person of the aged woman. He says she is of sound mind and body and anxious to take up the active management of her estate, and this in the face of the fact that when she comes to court the old woman is supported between two friends, for her 80 years have deprived her of the power to stand alone. This last petition will come up next week.

SUED FOR DIVORCE IN HIS DECLINING YEARS

Aged Man Makes Pathetic Defense to Charges of His Spouse.

After forty-three years of married life, aged Daniel Harris, ill and without funds, has come into court to defend the suit for divorce brought against him by his wife, Hannah, who charges him with failure to provide, willful neglect and cruelty. The suit is remarkable in the fact that the litigants have grown from youth to tottering age together and have six children, who are now men and women well along in years.

Harris expresses astonishment that his wife should have sued him for divorce, for, he says, she well knows that he has been ill and unable to work for six years and that long ago he retired from business and since then he and his wife have been dependent upon their children for maintenance. During the almost half a century of their married life, the aged man says, he never once treated his wife cruelly nor did he neglect her, his only offense being that age and weakness compelled him to cease in his efforts to accumulate worldly goods. He asks that her petition for divorce be denied, believing that she soon will repent of her act and take him back to live with her during the few years that remain on earth for them.

A divorce was granted yesterday to May F. Monsch from Wallace T. Monsch for willful neglect. John J. Lavaff secured a decree from Alta M. Lavaff for desertion. May Johnson has sued Harry M. Johnston for divorce on the ground of desertion. Josephine Arndt asks for a divorce from Charles W. Arndt on the grounds of desertion and cruelty.

CITY ATTORNEY'S OPINION AGAINST APPROPRIATION

Long Holds That City Cannot Supplement State's Allowance for Normal School.

City Attorney Long filed an opinion with the Board of Supervisors yesterday in which he holds that the board has no right to appropriate $50,000 to supplement an appropriation of $150,000 by the Legislature for the new State Normal School building and site. The opinion says:

In the absence of any State or local law empowering the municipal authorities, much less obligating them, to contribute to the support of the State Normal School, I am firmly of the opinion that no such contribution can be made. Putting aside the matter of location, which I consider a false equation, no one would conceive it possible for this city to contribute from the revenues to any such purpose. Certainly no such contribution could be made to the support of the State Normal School in San Jose, in Los Angeles, in San Diego or in Chico. No one would have the hardihood to suggest it, and yet those schools owe their establishment and maintenance to the same authority, the laws governing them are the same, their courses of study and purposes are the same; and no doubt they contribute as competent teachers to the State's corps of instructors as the school located in San Francisco.

The maintenance of a State Normal School existing under the direction and control of the State, as is a State asylum or a State fair, is not related to the public business of the city and county of San Francisco, nor a probable expenditure of the city and county government. Not being such it cannot be provided for in the budget.
