People of Redwood Regret Loss of Teacher Who Has Done Much for Institution

Special Dispatch to The Call.

REDWOOD CITY, June 2.—Professor F. S. Rosseter, principal of the Sequoia High School, has resigned his position to accept of principalship of the high school of Fruitvale. While the people of Redwood regret the departure of Professor Rosseter, they are free to express their gratification at a change which, financially at least, is to the advantage of the retiring principal.

During the six years Professor Rosseter taught here he advanced the standing of Sequoia, made it an accredited school to Stanford and Berkeley and has increased its standard until it is now one of the best of the best preparatory schools in California.

Miss Myrtle Rosseter, daughter of Professor Rosseter, has also resigned her position as instructor of German in the Whittier High School. She has been elected to a position in the public school department of Oakland.

REDWOOD CITY, June 2.—Considerable satisfaction is taken in the fact that this city contributed four of the brightest of this year's graduates from Stanford University. The four young people of Redwood who concluded their collegiate careers at Palo Alto institutions are Miss Hattie Nobbs, Miss Aurora Peterson, Frederick W. Nobbs and Roy W. Cloud. Miss Peterson, who graduates from the Law department, is a Phi Beta Kappa honor fraternity member. Miss Nobbs graduated from the German department. Cloud from the history department and Nobbs from the department of geology and mining.

SAN RAFAEL, June 2.—The San Rafael Emergency Hospital is about to receive a valuable addition to its equipment. This morning Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Foster of this city, informed the board of directors that they had purchased a new ambulance and had taken charge of it.

Mrs. J. C. Hoover, who has charge of a fund to be used for the benefit of the hospital, that they would present an ambulance of modern design to the Emergency Hospital.

BUILDING TRADES

PLAN LOCAL CHANGE

With Return of President McCarthy
Reorganization of Affiliated Bodies Begins.

Changes in the formation of local bodies affiliated with the Building Trades Council were discussed at the meeting last night, when President F. H. McCarthy occupied the chair for the first time since his long absence in the East. The new organization as revised will consist of local, State and national alliances.

The action of the convention was favorable to the bricklayers in the contention with the tilesetters as to which union had the right to set bricks in mantle and chimney work.

The regular weekly meeting of the Seafarers Labor Council was held last night, with Will J. wrench in the chair. W. P. McCabe was elected secretary and business agent to fill the unexpired term of Russell I. Wisler. A vote of thanks was given to the retiring officers.

The boycott was raised on Shenson's butcher shop at 59 Sixth street, as the store has complied with union conditions.

A schedule of wages and hours for coopers in breweries was referred to the committee.

The San Francisco Labor Council pressed resolutions deploring the tendency of certain courts to issue injunctions upon the simple declaration of "injury to business," without reference to the privilege of the customer to withhold patronage. It also declares the issuance of injunctions under these circumstances a misuse of the courts.
