EASY PUZZLES THIS WEEK

Beautiful Books—One Hundred and Fifty of Them—For Those Who Guess These Puzzles To-Day.

There might as well have been eighty as eight of those fruit store puzzles—our boys and girls would have guessed them just the same. They were, just as the puzzle editor prophesied, the easiest ever; as easy as rolling off the proverbial log, and as a result the list of winners published to-day is only a fraction of those who guessed the fruit store puzzles. These are only the lucky ones.

The puzzles to-day are just as easy, and—just the sweetest things in puzzles that the puzzle editor could find.

It would be the queerest sort of a boy or girl who couldn't guess them. All you have to do to-day when you look at the little pictures on this page is just squint your eye, look wise and tell the names of things seen in a candy store.

Can you do it?

Eh! What? What was that you said?

"Just watch me!"

That's just what the puzzle editor is doing, so get busy.

Remember! It's the early answer that catches the beautiful book.

Here are some particular points to bear in mind. ALWAYS BE ABSOLUTELY CERTAIN THAT YOU GIVE YOUR ADDRESS CORRECTLY AND LEGIBLY, for several dozen books have been returned because of incorrect addresses. So if your name was published and you did not receive a book please write to the Puzzle Editor.

REMEMBER THE RULES CONCERNING PICTURES. Don't send in untuned proofs or stamp photos, unless they are very plain. Those who work hard but are so unlucky as to just miss may get their pictures in as a reward for trying. Pictures never appear at the same time as the names.

THERE ARE ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY PRIZES, and this is what you must do to win one of them: Solve the names of things seen in a candy store represented above and write them out in the space opposite the proper corresponding number provided for the purpose in the coupon on this page, as per directions; fill in the coupon with your name and address and give the prize your desire—if you win—and send the coupon to the EDITOR OF THE NAME PUZZLE PAGE, Sunday Call, San Francisco, Cal.

REMEMBER—To the FIRST ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY BOYS AND GIRLS who solve the six puzzles correctly, one of these ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY BEAUTIFUL PRIZES will be awarded.

And don't forget this next point, because it is very important: ALL ANSWERS MUST REACH THIS OFFICE BY FRIDAY NOON. This gives all those in the country an equal chance to compete. Read everything on this page, to be sure that you overlook nothing that will help you to win a prize.

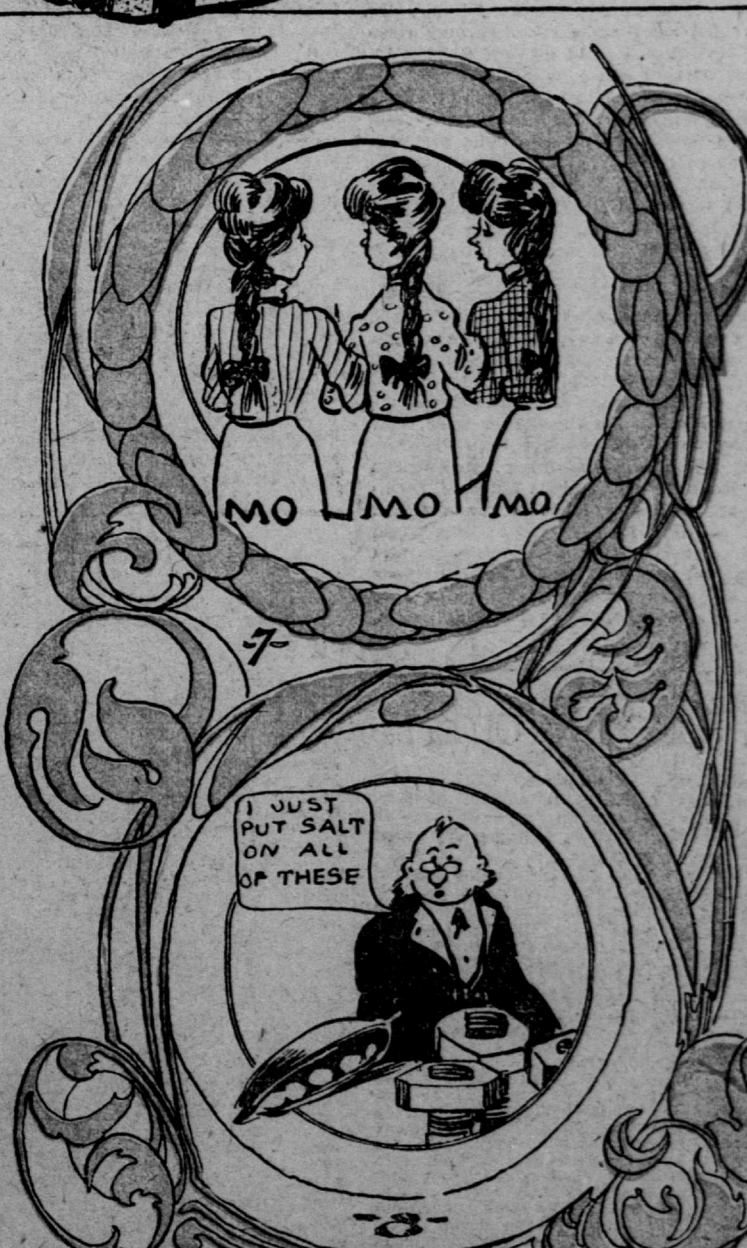

THE NAMES OF THE LUCKY WINNERS WILL BE PUBLISHED IN THE SUNDAY CALL TWO WEEKS FROM TO-DAY, NOVEMBER 26.

These are the BEAUTIFUL BOOKS from which you may choose if you solve all the puzzles correctly:

"Prue and I," by Curtis; "Plutarch's Lives," by Bunyan; "Lady of the Lake," by Scott; "Paradise Lost," by Milton; "Lucile," by Meredith; "Knickerbocker History of New York," by Irving; "Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow," by Jerome; "A Fine Story for Boys," by Horatia Alger Jr.; "Barnack Room Ballads," by Kipling; "Little Lame Prince," by Mulock; "Mosses From an Old Manse," by Hawthorne; "Paul and Virginia," by Saint Pierre; "Two Years Before the Mast," by Dana; "Treasure Island," by Stevenson; "Elizabeth and Her German Garden," Pocket Encyclopedia Britannica; Webster's School Dictionary; "Things Will Take a Turn," by Harraden; "Rab and His Friends," by Brown.

Ross Valley; Clair Nutting, San Juan; Edna Sherman, 4455 California street, San Francisco; Mildred Nidever, 31 Linden street, Santa Cruz; Florence Swan, 1872 West street, Oakland; Warren Robinson, Gridley; Marion Cheney, 900 Waverly street, Palo Alto; Martha Posmento; Willie Johnson, 94 Cedar avenue, Santa Rosa; Will Barnett, 2517 L street, Sacramento; Merle Buckley, 2240 Encinal avenue, Alameda; Florence Gates, 25 Sycamore street, Santa Cruz; Beatrice Miner, 136 1/2 Liberty street, San Francisco.
