Judge Graham Accuses the Secretary of Jobbing Persecuted Mother
HINTS AT CONSPIRACY
Court Refuses to Permit the Schemers to Secure the Little Ones

The suppression of the attorneys on both sides of the case, the relentless boring of the staid judge by the arrival at the facts and the unusual utterances of Judge Graham of the Superior Court were important marks in the record of the trial yesterday of habeas corpus proceedings by which the wife of T. J. McCann sought to regain the possession of her children—twins and a baby.

Judge Graham, addressing E. L. Wadhams, secretary of the San Francisco Society for the Protection of Children, said:

"I think that you put up this job to take these children and that you put that house in condition before you called an officer to prove your case."

"I think that the society ought to be suppressed, too, or some of its officers."

"I feel that there has been a conspiracy between the president and secretary of this so-called society to get the children from this woman, whom I feel is an industrious and hard-working woman and one who does not drink."

Judge Graham's dictum in each instance was based upon his judicial knowledge of past matters, one of which was the divorce case of McCann against his wife, in which O'Brien, president of the discredited humane society, appeared as attorney for the husband. The wife was that person who was dragged out of bed, arrested by Wadhams, taken to jail on a charge of drunkenness and later discharged. Neighbors testified in her behalf and letters were written to the court by a physician and nearby residents to prove that the wife and mother was guiltless of bad habits or wrong doing.

Before the court awarded the custody of the children to the mother she declared that in spite of his misbehavior she would forgive her husband "for the sake of the children."

Her forgiveness appealed to Judge Graham's famous dictum as a mediator in domestic troubles, but he did not retract his strictures passed upon O'Brien, Wadhams and the purposes of the San Francisco Society for the Protection of Children.

BAIN AGAIN IN TROUBLE
In charges filed against Policeman Michael Bain, yesterday, Captain Duke of the Southern police station alleges that on St. Patrick's day Bain became intoxicated and while in that condition interfered with a street car conductor who was trying to remedy a blowout fuse on his car, striking him with his club. Bain has been on the carpet in the office of the Police Commissioners before, the occasion being when he was caught trying to get through the fire lines during the April fire. At that time he was said to have been under the influence of liquor.

WANT OFFICIALS DISMISSED
Formal notices were filed in the District Court of Appeal by Assistant District Attorney Cook and Attorney General Webb yesterday that motions to dismiss two appeals of George D. Collins would be made at 10 o'clock on April 8. The dismissal of the one appeal is asked on the ground that it was made before the judgment in the case had been entered in the minutes of the court, and of the other because another appeal was pending at the time.

MOONEY TO SUSTAIN LAW DEFIES THE MAYOR
Police Captain Swears to Warrants Against Saloon Men

Captain of Police John Mooney declared open war on the administration as represented by Mayor Schmitz yesterday and swore to warrants calling for the arrest of the proprietors of about fifteen saloons which have been violating the law under municipal protection since the earthquake. Captain Mooney declares that all saloon men who are violating the law will be arrested as long as the law continues to stand.

The offense for which the saloon men are to be arrested is violation of an ordinance providing that certain restrictions shall be placed upon the structural plans of so-called back rooms. In no case, according to Mooney, has this law been observed.

All the saloons affected by Mooney's new edict are located in the Western Addition, and not a saloon in that district where women of any type whatsoever are to be found was spared. Following the disposal of the cases of the several saloon keepers in the criminal courts, Mooney will cause his men to file complaints against the saloons with the Police Commission to secure the revocation of their licenses. The warrants for the arrest of the proprietors of the following saloons were issued yesterday:

Eddie Hanlon, 1631 Post street; George Kreppl, Buchanan and Fulton; Eppling's, 861 Ellis; Pratt & Thorne, 1560 Ellis; M. Tietz, 1549 Golden Gate; E. Lewis, 1100 O'Farrell; Glyn's, Van Ness and Elm avenues; Gem Saloon, 1200 Market street; John P. O'Connell, 1200 Market street; Leonard's, 1200 Market street; Sullivan's, 1200 Market street; Pete Everett, 1201 Post.

"NED" LANIGAN ARRESTED
"Ned" Lanigan and his partner, John Peters, were arrested yesterday with conducting a poolroom in which a craps game was run. Lanigan was at one time a prominent politician and ward boss, and was supposed to be a municipally protected gambler. At the prison he gave his occupation as a horse trader.

SIDNEY SALISBURY DIES AND THE CAUSE OF HIS SUICIDE IS NOT KNOWN
Gas Fumes Inhaled Destroy Life of the Son of Noted Horseman
NO ROMANCE SHOWN
His Relatives and Friends Say He Had No Serious Affair of the Heart

After a struggle lasting from 2 o'clock Friday afternoon till 5:30 yesterday morning Sidney J. Salisbury, son of Monroe Salisbury, died and gave no word of explanation concerning his desperate act of suicide. So carefully had he planned his death by which the fumes of gas he inhaled through the rubber tube attached to the open jet did their work, and medical skill could not avail in the fight to keep back the spread of the fluid poison. He died while his sister, Mrs. Keyes, and her husband and a physician stood silent at the bedside, the trio being powerless to stay death's hand.

It is not believed probable that the mystery of his suicide will ever be cleared. Many things conspired to render his melancholy temperament more depressed. His father, to whom he was attached with even more than a son's love, had but recently left this city, never to return. An incurable victim of a cancerous growth, Monroe Salisbury, well-known turfman, bade his son good-by several weeks ago and then journeyed to Utah, where he made his last visit to his brother, O. J. Salisbury, a Salt Lake City millionaire. From Salt Lake Salisbury, the elder, went to New York to seek some relief from the pangs of his fatal malady. He is now in that city with his daughter, Mrs. T. D. Boardman. This fact undoubtedly, says Sidney Salisbury's friends, was one of the causes of his melancholia.

The effort to attach a romantic significance to the suicide is not upheld by the dead man's relatives, who say that no serious affair of the heart had caused him mental or nervous unrest. The names of many young women, some in the exclusive circle of fashionable society and some not, were mentioned yesterday, but no one was shown to have been the particular object of Salisbury's attentions, and the romantic element was not apparent in his last days of life. That he had been drinking is certain, and also that he was depressed and unhappy when he applied at the Hammam baths for treatment, but no single reason has been suggested and accepted by his bereaved relatives and friends to explain the suicide of the popular young man of society with a wide circle of friends.

The funeral will be held today at 2 o'clock from the residence of his sister, Mrs. A. D. Keyes, 2619 Devisadero street.

EIGHT-DAY SERVICES OF PASSOVER BEGUN
Feast of Unleavened Bread Held in Memory of Israelites' Escape Out of Egypt

The celebration of the Hebrew Passover began at sundown yesterday and will last for eight days, culminating on the great Sabbath, next Saturday. It is the great religious festival of the Israelites, when they commemorate the escape of their people from the bondage of Egypt. The unleavened bread is eaten in accordance with the old custom of the Jews on that occasion.

Services were held in all the synagogues last evening and will be followed by special services every morning until the day after the great Sabbath.

PATROLMEN PLAN UNION TO DEMAND BETTER PAY
Exclusion of Office Men and Detectives Will Cause Trouble

The patrolmen of the San Francisco Police Department are to have a union, and it is to be exclusive. The detectives under Captain Colby want to join; so does the Chief of Police, and so do lieutenants and captains; but they cannot.

"We are going to run this ourselves," say the men behind the clubs, "and we will take care of our own interests."

The meeting at which organization is to be taken up will be held next Tuesday afternoon at police headquarters. Some time ago a 20 per cent increase in salaries was demanded by the patrolmen because of the advanced cost of living. Many of the captains announced that if they and other upper office men were excluded by the patrolmen trouble would result, and that the claims of the patrolmen would be blocked.

FIREMAN'S FUND COMES INTO GREAT BUSINESS
Subsidiary Corporation Turns Over All Agencies and Policies to Parent Company

The Fireman's Fund Insurance Company is about to come into the possession of $442,000,000 in business from the Fireman's Fund Insurance Corporation, which will be good news for those who took 50 per cent of their claims for fire losses in stock of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company. The Fireman's Fund Corporation will cease to do business on and after today. Monday the parent organization, the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, will have all the affairs in its own hands. The most interesting chapters of fire insurance history in the United States. "The Fireman's Fund Insurance Company," said President Dutton last evening, "now comes into the world. We have sent out instructions to 8000 agencies in all parts of the United States concerning the change."

F. W. Dohrmann says that a supplemental agreement has been made with the Hamburg under which the stockholders of the Transatlantic Fire Insurance Company will not be entitled to share in the assets of the company until after the San Francisco policy-holders have received 40 per cent of their claims. The original agreement was that the policy-holders were to receive practically 50 per cent of the net assets of the company, the stockholders retaining the balance. Recent advices from Hamburg are that the policy-holders accepting the agreement negotiated by their representatives may finally receive more than 40 per cent.

Rush of Photographs of the State's Beautiful Women
Los Angeles Sends Its Quota
Note This—
In The Sunday Call Tomorrow:
Two Full Pages of Beautiful California Women
The Story of the Great English Beauty Contest

Since it has been announced that The Sunday Call's beauty contest will close April 21 there has been a rush of photos sent to be entered. So many photos of beautiful women from the southern portion of the State have been received that a whole page will be devoted to the most beautiful women from Los Angeles. This page will be published April 7 opposite a page of beautiful San Francisco women.

As the contest draws toward the end photos of beautiful women from various portions of the State will be segregated and entered according to their city or county. The rivalry between the cities and counties has become so great as practically to demand this. The newspapers throughout the State are now taking a very active interest in this beauty contest. They also have contestants to enter.

The quest has taken on the excitement of a game, and the keen rivalry between various sections of the State is productive of many beautiful photographs.

Each day the city that is ahead in the number of beautiful photographs sent in to the beauty contest changes. San Francisco, San Jose, Stockton and Sacramento were well in the lead until yesterday, when Los Angeles was productive of an unusual number of photographs, which places it in rank along with the others.

Judging by comparison with the photos of beautiful women entered in the beauty contest now being carried on in all parts of the East, California will be so far ahead that there will be no doubt at all of its winning the national beauty contest. That means that the most beautiful woman in California will be chosen as the most beautiful woman in America.

Even though The Sunday Call has received photos of many beautiful women, there is always the chance that the most beautiful woman in California has not yet been found. The time is getting short now. Do not delay in sending that photo. If the photographer is busy, tell him it is for The Sunday Call's great beauty contest, and he will hurry it. Address photos to Beauty Editor, The Call. Inclose postage for return.

GENERAL COMBA PASSES AWAY AT THE PRESIDIO
Soldier of Distinguished Service to Be Buried With Due Honors

Richard Comba, retired brigadier general of the United States army, died at the General Hospital at the Presidio yesterday, and the funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral, which will be at the Presidio, will be with all the military honors due his long service and his high rank.

Many years of distinguished service were his. General Comba was in the service during the Civil War, and later on the American frontier, was credited. He became a captain of the Seventh Infantry in 1865, major of the Ninth Infantry in 1885, lieutenant colonel of the Twelfth Infantry in 1892, colonel of the Fifth Infantry in 1898, and was retired from service in 1901, after being made brigadier general of volunteers.

General Comba was highly complimented for the manner in which he handled his regiment in the Santiago campaign, under General Chaffee. He leaves a wife and three children, one of whom is the wife of Captain Swezey of the cavalry. He was a member of the Loyal Legion.

LAST DAYS OF GRAND OPERA
"La Boheme" was repeated last night by the San Carlo Opera Company at the Chutes Theater, and the audience was smaller than the merit of the performance deserved.

A double bill, consisting of "Don Pasquale" and "Cavalleria Rusticana," promises to attract a large attendance this afternoon, and "Carmen," with Deyre in the title part, is the opera for tonight. Continino, Nordica and Nielsen will appear at the farewell performance tomorrow afternoon, when "Les Huguenots" will be sung.

The company will open a three nights' engagement in Portland next Tuesday and will round out the week in Seattle.

BOY FINDS HUMAN LEG
While playing in a vacant lot in the rear of his home at 1324 Hampshire street yesterday afternoon, Jerry Doney, 8 years old, found a leg of a human body. The limb was taken to the morgue and was there identified as that of a young woman. Detectives Graham and Harrison of the Mission station were detailed to investigate the matter. The gruesome bundle is supposed to have been cast aside by some medical student and to have been buried in the lot where it was probably uncovered by dogs.

HUMBOLDT RANCHER KILLED
EUREKA, March 29.—Alfred Augustus Hadley, forty-nine and rancher near Petrolia, Humboldt County, fell into a washout on the county road in Mattole Valley this afternoon and was buried under tons of debris and killed. He was a native of Ohio, 87 years old. His son, T. S. Hadley, is a well known lawyer here.

WORTH AND HARVEY TO LEAVE HEALTH BOARD OF SCHMITZ REGIME
Medicos Prepare to Follow Example Set by Dr. J. W. Ward
RESIGNATIONS READY
Simon's Election as President the Cause of Jealousy

Doctors Sidney Worth and W. H. Harvey are planning to sever their connection with the Schmitz-Ruef Board of Health and in all likelihood their resignations will be presented to the Mayor before many days have elapsed. In point of fact Worth has his resignation already prepared and he intended to file it with Schmitz either yesterday or today.

The retirement of Dr. J. W. Ward from the board marks the beginning of the breaking up of that body and the example set by Ward, who, as president, at all times abjectly carried out the orders of Schmitz and Ruef, will be followed by his former colleagues.

Harvey is the senior member of the board after Ward and his desire to retire is the result of his failure to be elected president to succeed Ward. Harvey felt that he should have been selected to preside over health affairs and was supremely disgusted when Dr. Simon was slated for the place.

Harvey expressed his disgust in rather violent terms to Simon himself and threatened to file his resignation then and there. Simon, however, prevailed upon Harvey to wait awhile and he promised to do so with a view to giving Simon a half-hearted support in his administration of the Health Department. It is said that Harvey registered a strong objection to the one-man power inaugurated by Ward and Harvey will remain on the board temporarily with the understanding that he is to have some say in the Health Department.

Dr. Worth is a warm friend of Dr. Ward, having graduated from the same school of medicine. It was at Ward's request that Worth was appointed a member of the Health Board and the latter thinks that he should accompany his friend to private life again. Worth wanted to resign several months ago, as he was displeased with the disclosures affecting the Schmitz administration. Ward, however, prevailed on Worth to hold on for a while. Now that Ward has deserted the fast sinking Schmitz administration ship, Worth believes the time is ripe for him to follow suit.

It is said that Ward contemplates a trip to Europe, as he fears that he may be asked rather pertinent questions as to what he might know regarding certain irregularities in the health department.

It was learned upon good authority that Ward would not be appointed a member of the State Board of Health, as previously reported. It is not likely that Governor Gillett will attach any former member of the Schmitz administration to an office under his control.

Morton L. Cook asked for a permit to put up a building on the southwest corner of Second and Minna streets to cost $70,000.

Other applications for building permits were filed by the Peninsula Securities Company, each side of Third street, near Minna, $50,000; Bond Estate Company, south side of Mission street, near New Montgomery, $51,000; Belle M. FINAL APPROPRIATION FOR REHABILITATION
Final appropriations were made by the executive committee of the Relief Corporation yesterday for rehabilitation purposes. The funds will go to applicants who made their requests for such aid prior to February 15. The appropriations are as follows: $350,000 for housing; $150,000 for families; and $50,000 for business rehabilitation. The work of terminating the relief work is going along rapidly. Today a large number of employees will be discharged.

SUES FOR INSURANCE
The California Wine Association, through Attorney Alfred Sutro, filed thirty-one suits yesterday against the English insurance companies that pleaded the earthquake clause to defeat the payment of the policies held by members of the association. The claims amount to more than $200,000. More suits are to be begun and the makers and sellers of California wines will fight their demand to a finish.

SWEET TONED PIANOS
It is a pleasure to select a piano from the splendid stock assembled in our warehouses, because there is not an instrument in the house that does not possess a full, rich, sweet tone. This is true of the very best make and the very cheapest. Other differences make the difference in price.

If you want an exceptionally high grade instrument you will select an Everett or a Kranchik & Bach as a matter of course. If you want something a little more moderately priced you will select a Behning or a Kurtzmann. Still more moderately priced are the Schiller, Clark Wise & Co. and Bachmann. They are all good, all well made and capable of giving forth the richest melody when a capable performer takes them in hand.

Besides presenting the above-named instruments we are also California agents for the Behning Player Piano and the Kurtzmann Player Piano, either of which can be played either by hand or mechanically with equal facility. They are truly wonderful instruments and either one is a great advance over the player piano that you have heretofore known.

Any of these instruments may be bought by making a small first payment and a smaller payment monthly.
