WAITRESSES' UNION IS
MOVING TO NEW QUARTERS

Member Writes of Situation in This City for Eastern Journal

GIRLS WELL TREATED

Musicians Meet and Take Measures to Collect Assessments

The waitresses' union of this city has removed from its old quarters at 509 Golden Gate avenue to 925 in the same thoroughfare.

A waitress writing to an eastern journal of her experiences in New York, St. Louis, Spokane, Seattle, Los Angeles and San Francisco, says: "The girls of the very strict rules under which they have to work and the imposition of fines for neglect and break-downs in closing says: 'In San Francisco it is better than anywhere else; the employers are all as well satisfied as are the girls. The waitresses' local has an office where all who want waitresses must apply. The agreement existing between employers and employees is a very interesting one,' says the writer. The following is the agreement:

First—Employer means to employ only waitresses of good standing, local No. 48, except when at any time the union is unable to furnish a waitress, when the employer may hire any competent waitress, provided such a waitress makes application to become a member of the waitresses' union, local No. 48, within one week after engagement.

Second—All waitresses are to be engaged through the office of waitresses' union, local No. 48, as the union cannot assume the responsibility for any one engaged outside its office.

Third—The union shall constitute a week's work; each and every waitress shall have at least twenty-four (24) hours "consecutive" of rest.

Fourth—During any convention or other special occasion resulting in the arrival of a large number of waitresses to the city, the usual number of employees are required, a regular must substitute for herself on the seventh day of the week and shall be compensated therefor at the rate of "time and one-half."

Fifth—If a waitress is called away during the day, she shall receive the same wage as the waitress that she relieves, except in cases where the waitress is called away to be employed at a fixed salary.

Sixth—If a waitress is required to work over time, the employer or the failure of another waitress to relieve her at the rate of her regular wage, overtime shall be paid to her for the extra hours.

Seventh—All overtime to be paid for at the rate of "time and one-half."

Eighth—All wages shall be paid weekly.

Ninth—No waitress shall suffer a reduction of wages on account of an increase in hours of labor on account of the increase in the number of employees employed and see if they wear the "union" badge.

Tenth—A waitress working 10 hours a day should give the employer 10 hours notice; nine hours per day, eight hours notice; six hours per day, six hours notice; and a lunch girl should give three hours' notice before she quits; if not, she will be fined $2.00.

Eleventh—Restaurants or hotels desiring to obtain the union house card may procure the same from the local No. 48, at a cost of $1.00 per card, and the property of the card may be removed at any time, a duly authorized representative, who shall have the right to enter the premises of the restaurant or hotel, to see that the minimum wage scale shall be followed: Ten hours on duty within 14 hours, per week $1.00; nine hours on duty, per week, eight work, $1.10; any waitress working after 10 p. m. must receive the night scale, $1.10.

Steady waitress, three hours or less, 25 cents. Diner waitress, three hours or less, 35 cents. Steady lunch and diner waitress, five hours or less within 10 hours, six days per week, $1.00. Extra full time, per day $2; extra time, one hour or less, 25c.

For all special occasions, such as holidays and conventions, per day of 10 hours, with two half hours rest for meals, $1.25.

For banquets, parties and weddings, to serve only four (4) hours or less, $2.25.

To set up, serve and clear off, six hours, $3.00. Special uniform, white, extra 50 cents. All overtime for restaurants, 50 cents for one hour or less.

Sunday lunch or dinner, three hours or less, $1.25.

At the last meeting of the board of directors of local No. 6 of the musicians' union, at which President Cassin presided, G. W. Price, of local No. 189 of Stockton was admitted to membership on presentation of a transfer card and Mrs. I. Burnham tendered her resignation as treasurer of the union. Seven who had been suspended for nonpayment of pecuniary obligations were reinstated. During the current month the dues and death assessments amounted to $175 per capita and if this amount is not paid by the last day of the month a fine of 50 cents will be imposed on each delinquent. The board gave notice that information from arrangements have been completed for the picnic of the union at Fairfax park next Sunday. The union has secured a large number of prizes which are to be distributed as gate offerings and consolations to winners of games and races.

The headquarters of journeymen barbers' local No. 148 has been removed from Bush street near Fillmore to room 318 in the Muirhead building at 1278 Market street. This union has in the past 30 days lost nearly 40 members who, having become dissatisfied with conditions in this city, have taken withdrawal cards and left.

Local No. 6 of the electrical workers on the occasion of its last meeting received several members by card and obligated three applicants. Nothing has been done in the matter of restoring this local to its former standing. It is reported that notwithstanding this the members are all at work.

The team from the building trades council that won the tug of war at Shell Mound park on Labor day announces that it is ready to accept a challenge from any team that is willing to pull on the rope.

Monday being a legal holiday all meat markets and pork stores will be closed at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, says a business agent of the butchers' union.

William McCabe, who was chosen in 1874 and served three terms as president of the San Francisco Chronicle, and grand marshal of the first Labor day parade in New York 25 years ago, and who is well known to Californians, will prove interesting to many of the craft and to members of organized labor generally.

William McCabe, grand marshal of the first Labor day parade, in 1882 (also grand marshal of the parade of 1884), was born in New Zealand but the hour of which he was born is much in these days as the partner to California.

Monday, September 16th

At 1:30 p. m. we release a flock of carrier pigeons from our store. They will fly to their loft at Palo Alto, a distance of 36 miles. The exact time of flight of the swiftest bird will be recorded automatically.
