LANGFORD ISSUES
SECOND DEFY TO KETCHEL
Will Give Champion Early Purse If He Fails to Knock Him Out
By William J. Slattery
Hartford, Conn., December 30—Langford, in his second appearance since his loss to Ketchel, will fight the latter in a bout for the championship of the world at Hartford on Tuesday, January 7.

FAVORITES FAIL IN FOUR ARCADIA
EVENTS
Glorioso and Ben Trouxato Only
Chances to Reward
Hoffers
[Special Dispatch to The Call]
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29—Ben Trouxato and Glorioso were the only ones of the five favorites to win their respective races in the Arcadia races here today.

Olympics Prepare for New Year's Briny Dip
Over Two Hundred Members Sign List for Club's Annual Run to the Beach
By J. R. Jeffery
PARIS, Dec. 29—The swimmers who take part in the Olympic winter sports at Grindelwald, Switzerland, will have the chance to swim in the briny waters of the Channel while on their winter vacation. The members of the club will be escorted into France by a steam launch from Calais.

Three Oddson Favorites Are Listed With the Nonwinners
By J. R. Jeffery
PARIS, Dec. 29—Three American athletes, each a favorite with the oddson fraternity, are listed among the ten first winners in the Arcadia races here today.

Kaufman Picks to Win Fight in 15 Rounds
Barry Seems Confident of Victory and Both Say So on Himself
[Special Dispatch to The Call]
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29—Through the efforts of Barry's stable the referee for the Kaufman—Barry match has been moved to a distant ring so that the round
of cheers and ovations
would not interfere with his work. Barry was asked to behave himself, but he said he would not.

Yeats Picked to Win Fight in
15 Rounds
Barry Seems Confident of
Victory and Both Say So on
Himself
[Special Dispatch to The Call]
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29—Through
the efforts of Barry's stable
the referee for the Kaufman—Barry
match has been moved to a
distant ring so that the round
of cheers and ovations
would not interfere with his
work. Barry was asked to
behave himself, but he said
he would not.

Schroek—Hart Winner May Go for Johnson
[Special Dispatch to The Call]
CHICAGO, Dec. 29—The Schroek-Hart race was run today and the winner was Schroek. Johnson, who lost to Hart in the same race last year, may now go for Johnson.

CARDINALS WIN KEITH RUGBY TROPHY FROM VANCOUVER VANCOUVER, B.C., Dec. 29—Stanfield today administered the second defeat to Vancouver on the rugby field, winning the game and the Keith cup with 60 points to 3.
Comparatively the Stanfields had all the better of the game, being able to put it over their tough playing opponents at all times. The showing made by Stanfield was remarkable in view of the short time the Californians had been playing the game. The ground was in the condition and the game was attended by a big crowd. Last night the victors were entertained at a large ball.

Kaufman Picks to Win Fight in
15 Rounds
Barry Seems Confident of
Victory and Both Say So on
Himself
[Special Dispatch to The Call]
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29—Through
the efforts of Barry's stable
the referee for the Kaufman—Barry
match has been moved to a
distant ring so that the round
of cheers and ovations
would not interfere with his
work. Barry was asked to
behave himself, but he said
he would not.