

PARIS RELIEVES
WATERS OF
SEINE RECENT

Crisis is Past and Gay Life of the French Capital Is Resumed

Apaches Chased in Boats and Hanged on Lampposts for Looting

PARIS, Jan. 31.—The improvement in the general situation continues and the spirits of the Parisians are rising as the waters fall. Street hawkers are selling postcard pictures of the flood and the boulevards are once more gay with rejoicing thousands.

With the crisis past the mercurial French temperament faces the subsidiary troubles with a light heart, but the papers already are warning the people that measures must be taken to avoid a worse disaster.

GUARD AGAINST PESTILENCE
The prefect of the department of the Seine has issued instructions to the owners of flooded houses to clean and disinfect their premises to the satisfaction of the municipal architects within 24 hours after the subsidence of the waters.

The government has ordered the tax collectors to show the greatest leniency to delinquents and the Mont de Piété is extending pawn tickets for three months.

Several steam trams today resumed the work of pumping out the subway.

Public and private benevolence continues to respond to the call of the sufferers. Theaters and societies are organizing benefits, while the various race courses are arranging a big meeting for the spring, the receipts of which will go to the poor. A resolution has been introduced in the chamber of deputies asking the government to award special crosses of the Legion of Honor to those who have been conspicuous in the present work.

Although the papers are printing columns of pitiful stories a hundredth part of the horror never will be known.
Many corpses have been swept down the river and occasionally a coffin is found in a boat broken away from some funeral procession.

SCORES ARE RESCUED Scores of half-famished families have been rescued from their homes and hundreds are still occupying their half-submerged houses waiting for the water to recede.

A source of danger has been the starving dogs roaming around Affort-ville and Ivry and many of these have been shot in the fear that they might bring rabies. In several instances they have made attacks upon human beings.

M. Millerand, minister of public works, says that as soon as normal conditions are restored the government will seriously consider the canal scheme. The government has arranged to loan money to the ruined house and owners to enable them to rebuild.
These loans may be refunded in indebtedness.

Some of the suburban towns, which have been deprived of light, were provided this evening with gas from the Paris mains. The work of disinfecting the streets has already begun.

The fluvial department estimates that it will be two weeks before the Seine has returned to its normal stage.
Exciting rowboat chases after criminals on the outskirts of the city occurred during the night. In several instances the Apaches were fired upon and their pursuers advised to rebuild.
Two others were hanged from lamp posts as examples of the fate in store for those detected in acts of pillage and violence.

Fund Rapidly Grows

Subscriptions for the Paris flood sufferers continue to come in and the list of contributing proprietors which shows that a considerable sum is to go from this city.

The banks of the different cities in California were authorized to accept subscriptions to the Paris relief fund, in a resolution adopted at a meeting of the executive and finance committee of the California branch of the American national Red Cross, held yesterday afternoon in the directors' room of the San Francisco savings union.

The meeting was held in response to a telegram received in this city Saturday night. The committee voted to proceed along the same lines as were adopted at the time of the Messina earthquake. Another resolution, asking the mayors and other officials of cities throughout the state to appoint committees to solicit subscriptions, was adopted.

Previous to the transaction of any business, Henri Merou, French consul, read a dispatch to the effect that his government would accept subscriptions.
Those in attendance at the meeting were:

John F. Merrill, Mrs. John F. Merrill, Mrs. Louis Sloss, Mrs. Thurlow McMullin, Mrs. I. Lowenberg, Samuel Knight, Horace Davis, Leon Sloss, Allen Knight, P. W. Dohmann, James

SPOTS REACH $728,000—New York, Jan. 31.— Seven gifts to church and philanthropy, reaching $728,000, were announced from New York pulpits yesterday. Among the larger gifts was one of $13,000 from Mrs. E. H. Harrison, who will donate the mortgage on a downtown club for boys.

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN
ENDEAVOR SOCIETY HERE

Rev. Francis E. Clark, who founded the Christian Endeavor society in Portland, Me., 29 years ago tomorrow, arrived here yesterday on liner Cleveland.

DR. CLARK ARRIVES
ON WORLD'S TOUR
PLANS MADE FOR $120,000 BUILDING

Has Addressed Branches of Association at Every Point Touched by Cleveland

Rev. Francis E. Clark, founder of the Christian Endeavor society, arrived here yesterday on the liner Cleveland and tomorrow in San Francisco will celebrate the twenty-ninth anniversary of the movement which had its inception in his church at Portland, Me., and has grown until its branches are to be found in every part of the world.
The trip from New York, via Europe and Asia, gave Doctor Clark an opportunity to realize how the Christian world had taken hold of his idea and developed it. Doctor Clark was accompanied on the voyage by his wife and will spend some time in California before going to his home, which is now in Boston.

"I made the trip on the Cleveland," said Doctor Clark, "largely for the purpose of attending Christian Endeavor conventions in different parts of the world. At times it has been hard work, but it is my work and I have enjoyed it.
Our first convention was at Madeira and to name the others would be to give you a detailed itinerary of the voyage. We attended the world's convention at Agra, where more than 4,000 delegates speaking 30 different languages were gathered together. We attended conventions at Madeira and Cairo, Rangoon, Manila, Canton, Nagasaki, Kobe, Kyoto, Tokyo and Honolulu."

"There are 1,400 Christian Endeavor societies in India, 400 in China, 150 in Japan and 150 in the territory of Hawaii."

Doctor Clark will spend several days in California, but they will not be days of rest, as he has promised to deliver addresses in this city, in Berkeley, Stockton, Fowler, Fresno, Santa Ana, Pomona, Redlands, Pasadena, Chico and Sacramento. General Secretary Shaw of the Christian Endeavor society, who was also a passenger on the Cleveland, will also address meetings in different parts of the state.

On board the Cleveland were more than 100 Christian Endeavorers.
During the time the steamer has been at sea Doctor Clark has been busy writing for various publications to which he is a regular contributor.

GRAND JURY TO RESUME INQUIRY
San Mateo Inquisitors to Continue Investigation

[Special Dispatch to The Call] REDWOOD CITY, Jan. 31.—After a week of inactivity the San Mateo county grand jury will meet tomorrow to continue its investigation into public affairs. The board of supervisors will also meet tomorrow and chairman P. H.
McEvoy is expected to be present, having recovered sufficiently from his recent illness to be about again.

Foreman George A. Kertell of the in-quisitorial body intends to press his charges against Maud E. Earl, proprietor of the County Line saloon, at the supervisors' meeting tomorrow.

It is believed here that the Earl license will be revoked by the supervisors after the evidence has been produced by Kertell. The latter has two affidavits of persons who allege that they have been forced out of considerable money in "the County Line," and evidence will be given in an attempt to prove that the resort was a rendezvous for confidence men.

The application of Sid Hender, manager of the Mission athletic club, for a permit to conduct the Nelson-Wolfgang boxing contest in San Mateo county, will come up tomorrow. It is commonly rumored that McEvoy, Blackburn and Francis will vote for the granting of the permit and that Casey and Colman will oppose it.

GRAFTING POLICE OFFICERS SENTENCED— Chicago, Jan. 31.—Edward McCann, former police inspector, who was convicted of accepting bribes, was sentenced to from one to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Barnes in the criminal court today.

JUSTICE MOODY IS IMPROVING—Boston, Jan.
31.—Associate Justice William H. Moody of the supreme court of the United States has shown marked improvement, it was said today. He probably will return to Washington within a few weeks.

GREAT STEAMER

Hamburg-American Liner Cleveland Arrives From Orient With 700 Travelers

Brings Largest Passenger List Ever Carried to This City on One Vessel

Enormous Quantity of Supplies Bought Here

The Cleveland will leave here Saturday for the return circle of the globe. Between now and then the liner's stores will be replenished. Among the items that will be placed on board at this port are:

- 350,000 eggs.
- 53,000 pounds butter.
- 180,000 pounds fresh meats.
- 20,000 pounds poultry.
- 8,500 pounds fish.
- 750 barrels flour.
- 900 boxes and barrels of groceries.
- 1,400 boxes of fruit.
- 3 carloads of California oranges.
- 4 carloads California grape fruit.
- 1 carload lemons.
- 2 carloads apples.
- 1 carload pears and grapes.
- 3 carloads potatoes.
- 8 tons of sugar.
- 15,000 quarts fresh milk.
- 11,000 quart bricks ice cream.
- 14,000 pounds dried fruit.
- 43,400 quarts California canned fruits.

- 15,000 pounds crackers and 70 cases of pickles.
- While the ship is in port 550,000 pieces of linen will be sent to the laundry.
- The liner started out with 400,000 bottles of wine and champagne. Most of this is still on board.

The Hamburg-American liner Cleveland, Captain Christian Demppow, arrived here yesterday from New York via Europe and Asia, with nearly 700 tourists on board. The liner was off the large office at sunrise, and was given prompt dispatch through quarantine and was allowed to proceed to Union street wharf a few minutes after the customs officials had gone on board.

The passengers were, however, held on board the more than an hour after the ship had docked to enable two inspectors, all that were on duty, to finish their work. At luncheon time, however, when the passengers had all been landed, the foreign officers were on hand for the midday feast.

Once on the wharf the passengers were disposed of quickly by the customers' chief. Boarding Officer Charles Stephens was in charge with a large army of inspectors, weighers and laborers.

The cruise of the Cleveland was uneventful except for the experience of the passengers at Canton, where the procurator took for their safety thoroughly alarmed many of the tourists.

They were accompanied by the river by a fleet of Chinese gunboats and when they landed they were divided into small parties. From six to a dozen Sikh policemen were placed in charge of each party. On every street corner was posted a notice warning the Cantonese that any Chinese who interfered with the foreigners would be instantly beheaded. To show the visitors that this was no idle warning they were led to the place of execution, where a score of freshly chopped off heads were lying on the ground.

The tourists came away with the idea that this had been done for their protection and was equivalent to the action of the police authorities in an American city looking up the thieves and buncomen during a big convention.

DOCTOR WEEPS WHEN LOST Dr. H. L. Ambler of Cleveland, O., was the only member of the party who had anything like an adventure in Canton.
He had some financial dispute with his chair carriers, who set him down in the middle of the street and left him. He was found there at dusk by another party from the ship. The doctor was weeping bitterly, as he had come to the conclusion that he was lost in Canton and in grave danger of assassination. His friends found new bearers who carried the doctor to his hotel, where he arrived hungry, but whole.

Manila took hospitable care of the visitors from home and treated them to the best in the archipelago. Martin Egan played host to as many as he could crowd around the biggest table in his club, and the army and navy banded to play host.

Dr. Don M. Waggoner of Lewiston, Ill., one of the passengers, died while the Cleveland was at Nagasaki, a victim of cancer. The body was brought home on the liner.

H. F. Behrens of Wheeling, West Va., was stricken with paralysis during the voyage. His son, H. F. Behrens Jr., who met the ship here and will take his father home, said that his mother died at sea three years ago while on a cruise to the Mediterranean.

Answering numerous objections to postal savings banks, Senator Carter said that they would not be a menace to the present banking system of the country; that the present system of banking, even if they were sufficiently numerous, could not reach the people in the rural and sparsely settled districts whom the postal banks are designed to benefit.

Any Woman Can
Have Beautiful Hair

(From French Beauty Monthly.)
"No woman should use water upon her hair oftener than once in two months," says M. Fournier, the noted French scientist. "Dry powder only should be used. Moisture causes the hair to lose its color and in time become thin."

"Any woman desiring abundant, lustrous hair should use a dry shampoo every two or three days. Mix four ounces of powdered orris root with four ounces of ether. Sprinkle about a tablespoonful of this mixture upon the head, then brush the powder thoroughly through the hair. This will keep it light and fluffy and beautifully lustrous. You will soon see new hair starting to grow. This treatment is the only thing that I am surely will produce a growth of hair."

"While plain orris root is used as a dry shampoo by many women, still, no such results can be obtained as by using the formula I have given."

BERONG MAN DIES—Santa Cruz, Jan. 31.— Louis Lemieux, strongest man in this county, died today. He was a French Canadian. He was 26 years old and had lived in California for 35 years.

RECONCILIATION
NOT DESIRED BY SOCIETY WOMEN

Wives of Millionaires of Smoky City Content to Paddle

Rumors False, Glad Date Set
Says Mrs. Phipps Says Mrs. Hartje

Special Dispatch
PITTSBURG, Pa.,
Jan. 31.—Mrs.
Genevieve Chandler Phipps, whose sensational divorce suit from her husband, Lawrence Phipps, one of the famous steel family of this city stirred the country
three years ago, does not seek a reconciliation with her former husband. She said so in as many words here tonight before leaving for New York, where she expects to take up a permanent residence.

When seen at the Schenely hotel this evening Mrs.
Phipps was asked:
"Are you here for the purpose of effecting a reconciliation with your divorced husband?"

"Why, most certainly not. Such a thing has never even entered my mind. Why, even if such were the case, why should I come to Pittsburg for such a proceeding? It is simply ridiculous,
and another thing it would not be any of the public's business if such were the case."

It was suggested to Mrs. Phipps that such rumors of a reconciliation had been spread broadcast and that it was the opinion of the Pittsburg colony of society people that she was here on such a mission.

"Nothing could be further from the truth," she added. "I have never thought of such a thing, and if my former husband had it is nothing to me."

It has been frequently rumored of late that Hartje was attempting a settlement in order to prevent the sensational marriage at the time

Mrs. Hartje. "I have been vilified and demand complete vindication and a legal separation."

"A legal separation," she answered emphatically. "Absolutely nothing else satisfies me. That is what I demanded years ago, and that is what I intend to fight for to the end."
