The labor council, through its secretary, is sending to the shape of an injunction for its pro-tection.

as possible, to be published for the in-formation of organized labor.

Assistant City Attorney Thomas E. Haven opened for the city, but confined himself to the demurrer, as he is to be given an opportunity to reply to Redding's argument Monday afternoon.

The railroad attorney argued that under the civil code the city could not grant to two persons or corporations permission to operate strecter lines in the same street for more than five consecutive blocks, but Havens' reply to this was that the city of the city could not grant to two persons or corporations permission to operate strecter lines in the same street for more than five consecutive blocks, but Havens' reply to this was that the city could not grant to two persons or corporations permission to operate strecter lines in the same street for more than five consecutive blocks, but Havens' reply to the charged by legislation, and the charter which went into effect equently did change the section. P. Flynn, J. Clark and Richard Cronin. Further nominations will be made. A resolution was presented to raise the burial benefit from $75 to $100. This matter will be taken up at the next three meetings and finally disposed of. There was a long debate on the revision of the bylaws and constitution. Under the head of "good of the union" it was proposed to devise ways and nothing to show that an injunction should be issued to protect the rail-road's property. Finally, Van Fleet means to benefit those members who become crippled in the pursuit of their calling. A donation of $50 was made to the Los Angeles strikers. The membership now numbers about 2,500.

Preparations are being made to celebrate in a fitting manner the tenth anniversary of the carpet and shade workers' union No. 1 October 15. The committee having charge of the enter-tainment consists of Frank Ryan, William J. Flynn, James H. Smithson, John
