Picking the winner of today's game between California and Stanford is harder than forecasting the weather. The weather bureau predicts rain today and if this eventuates Stanford will have a greater chance of pulling off the event than the preliminary games and performances indicate.

Last year I was practically the only rugby critic about the bay to predict a California victory, all of my contemporaries declaring for Stanford. This year the usual flow of predictions has been missing, due, no doubt, to the great fall the prophets experienced last year.

This year all rugby critics look for a California victory, but they have not enough confidence in their convictions to say so publicly. After the game there will be a lot of "I told you so's," no matter which team wins.

With the ground firm and in fair condition, I predict a California victory. Should the ground be sloppy, muddy, or soft, it will be any body's game and there is no telling whether it will result in a tie decision, a win for California or a victory for the cardinal.

Under perfect conditions the California team should win, and the difference in the scores should be about eight points, perhaps more, but not much less.

Everything is in readiness for the game of games. Both teams rested yesterday and retired early. The California varsity men rambled round the hills of Berkeley in the afternoon, but otherwise no work was done.

California field is causing everyone to ask questions about the probable state of the gridiron for the game. If the sun shines this morning there is every probability that the surface will dry out enough to insure a good game.

The players on both teams will have numbers on their backs for identification. This is the first year that this simple method has been used here and it will be of great assistance to the public in picking out the players. Amos Elliott will probably be in the California lineup today. His injured foot is coming round nicely and everything points to his being in the game.

The gates will be thrown open to the public a little after 10 o'clock, and by 2 o'clock the vast stadium will be filled with nearly 20,000 spectators. The tickets are sold with the exception of a very few stray seats which will be on sale at the gates.

The program for the game is a neat edition of some 50 pages giving the photos and history of the players of both teams, as well as interesting notes on the managers, coaches and trainers. A resume of the four of the All-American football team through Australasia is also included in the book. An interesting table showing the results and scores of all previous interspersed games will receive particular attention from the spectators.

The students at California are confident of a victory tomorrow. At Stanford there is an air of confidence in the ability of the team, though there is not the same assurance displayed among the men that is so noticeable at California. There is determination

JOHN SWETT TEAM FAVORITE IN MEET

First District Public Schools' Field Day to Be Held This Morning

Several days and slight rain fell in the morning and held till after the second half had started. The game played in 1904 was played on a dull, threatening day, but no rain fell. The field was in good condition, though the night before there was a heavy rain.

The state of the field at California today will have a lot to do with the outcome of the game. The field itself is being protected as much as possible from the elements, but despite all precautions the top surface is bound to be unsatisfactory if the rain reaches it.

Assistant Coach Cerf of California is nothing is not a fatalist. One of the enthusiastic California supporters yesterday asked the assistant coach what he thought about the weather. "Well," said Cerf, "if it rains, it rains; that's all."

James Lanagan will not be able to act as touch judge in today's game owing to some business that demands his presence elsewhere. His place will be taken by Leup Laumister of the Olympic club fifteen and a former Stanford varsity man.

Hundreds of former students at California have flocked to the campus in the last two days from all over the coast. All the frat houses are filled with guests and every home in Berkeley has visitors for the game.

Special arrangements have been made for automobile parties and the machines will be looked after by special caretakers. Mounted police will also be used to guard the hundreds of machines that are expected. Instead of fencing in the old baseball field for an automobile park, as in previous years, it has been decided to use the streets adjacent to the campus for that purpose.

Two extra substitutes in David D. Brant and Charles S. Wheeler Jr. were added to the varsity squad yesterday by Coach Schaeffer. Brant can be used either as a forward or back.

President Wheeler addressed the students at the giant rally the other night and predicted a serpentine by the blue and gold forces.

Last night was devoted to reunion dinners of the different classes of both California and Stanford students. At the Bismarck cafe over 500 graduates of the classes of 1903 to 1910 sat down to dinner. This was the largest gathering of any. At the Carlton hotel in Berkeley the 1908 class held a dinner. The University club and the University of California club held open house last night and enthusiasm at both places reigned supreme.

The "anti-knock-out society" has just been formed on the Berkeley campus. The membership requirement is that the candidate wear one of the new toboggan caps that are to be worn at the football show tonight. The caps are of either blue or gold with the big "C" in front.

If California field is not dried up sufficiently early this morning it is probable that oil will be placed on the surface and set on fire. This will take out most of the moisture and will cake the under surface. After this the top dressing will be spread again and a solid footing is expected to result.

DAWSON IN MARMON WINS AT SAVANNAH

Falling Post Fatally Injures Boy Spectator at Southern Auto Races

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 11.—Neither death nor injury of driver or mechanic marred the first day of the races of the Savannah automobile club, held under the auspices of the Automobile Club of America. The day did not pass, however, without leaving its possible toll of life, but the casualty was incidental. William Nyan, 12 years old, watching the races, had his skull crushed by a falling signpost. He is reported dying.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the six starters in the Savannah challenge race and the eight in the Tiedemann trophy race were called to the mark by Starter Fred Wagner at the same time.

The start Dawson got in the first lap was never lost, maintaining his advantage to the end of the race. The ninth lap saw the elimination of Gelnow. His steering gear went bad on a turn, he lost control and his car went at tremendous speed on the soft ground at the edge of the road, plowing through one bank, leaping another and came to a stop only when it had been battered almost to pieces. He and his mechanic escaped injury.

Gelnow's mishap left Roebing as Dawson's chief competitor. Roebing led nearly a minute by a stop for fuel and was going strong until the last lap, when his car skidded, crashed into a tree and damaged the gear and control. Undaunted, he sent the crippled car on, finishing second, after being reported out of the race.

When Hughes finished third, Helmeinn was on the backstretch of the fifteenth lap. The race was then declared finished.

Another contestant, W. H. Pearce, in a Falcar, had broken an axle in the ninth lap, after some spectacular speeding.

Nearly an hour before Knipper had finished in front of his competitors in the Tiedemann race. From the first lap he had kept a lead, and without stopping once for trouble of any kind finishing with a margin he might have made much wider had he cared.

The grand prize race is to start promptly at 3 o'clock. The distance is 41.2 miles.

Today's results:

Savannah challenge trophy, 16 laps of 17.33 miles, 27.84 seconds.

First—Joseph Dawson (Marmont), 4 hours 23 minutes 30.08 seconds.

Second—W. Roebing Jr. (Mercoer), 4 hours 35 minutes 25 seconds.

Third—Hughes Hughes (Falcar), 4 hours 36 minutes 11.8 seconds.

Tiedemann trophy, 11 laps, 190.5 miles:

First—Bill Knipper (Lancia), 3 hours 15 minutes 22.07 seconds.

Second—F. A. Witt (E-M-P), 3 hours 26 minutes 34.22 seconds.

Third—Thomas Costello (Maxwell), 3 hours 39 minutes 19.06 seconds.

IDAHO BEATS WHITMAN

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 11.—Time was called in the game between the University of Idaho and Whitman college here this forenoon with a Whitman player lying across the Idaho goal line with the ball under him and the score 5 to 0 in favor of Idaho. Field Judge Resor held the Whitman boys entitled to a touchdown and gave the game to the visitors. The game was very rough and the football being used extensively. Lewis, right end for Whitman, went out with a dislocated shoulder, while Perkins, quarterback for Idaho, was injured about the head, and Edmondson, right end for Idaho, was disabled by an injury to his shoulder. Idaho scored in the third quarter, but failed to kick goal.

NEWSBOYS TO PLAY BALL

OAKLAND, Nov. 11.—The Oakland newsboys' baseball nine will play the Pittsburgh nine Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lockwood grounds, Elitchburg. The newsboys' lineup: Catcher, W. Annamond; pitcher, E. Annamond; first base, Scotty; second base, H. Annamond; third base, Harris; shortstop, Tuff; right field, Frisco; center field, Harris; left field, Stevens.

RIVAL VARSITYITES GIVE FORECAST OF THE GAME

By GEORGE PRESLEY, Coach of the Stanford Team. We are not underestimating Berkeley. We expect the hardest fight we have ever had. We have an even break, and that's all we ask.

By KENNETH DOLE, Captain of the Stanford Team. Our team expects a hard fight, and we are ready for it.

By "JIMMY" SCHAEFFER, Coach of the California Team. If weather conditions are good we hope to win and thus bring to a climax a most successful season. The loyalty of the men who did not make the varsity, but who sacrificed match, makes it possible for us to hope for the best. The enthusiastic support of the student body and the faculty shows what California spirit really is.

By WALTER CHRISTIE, California Trainer. The California team is in first class condition and fit for a fast game. The season has been remarkably free from injuries, and this in measure helped the team to gain its fine condition. We expect a hard fight and know we will get it. May the best team win, and I hope it is California.

By JAY DWIGGINS, Captain of the California Team. It is going to be a hard fight and California has an even chance to win. I am sorry to see so much overconfidence in the bleachers, for it will be an uphill struggle for the blue and gold.

By CEDRIC CERF, Assistant Coach of the California Team. If the men play the best game they have ever played they ought to win; if not, they'll lose. It will be a very close game.

By "JACK" JENKINSON, Referee of the Big Game. As I have not seen the two varsity teams in action I have no idea of the ability of the teams, but judging by past games I have believed for us to hope for the best. The enthusiastic support of the men on the Australian tour, there is no doubt in my mind that the game will be far superior to any of its predecessors. The new five yard "throw in" rule will make the game particularly well worth seeing from a spectator's point of view, as the rule tends to open up the game far more than any rule ever devised for the Rugby code. It is the best rule ever brought into the game. Given a fine day and the field in good condition, the game ought to be a fast one.

Jockey McCarthy Will Lick Must Play Alameda Or Be Under Ban

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Former Jockey James McCarthy, who has been worrying owners of selling platters at Linton for the last week by running up and claiming their horses out of selling races, shipped his horses today to San Francisco, where they will take ship for Chile.

McCarthy will take with him Medallion, Hals, Starport, Alice A Dale, Dictator, Stolybin, Olive Ely, Queen City and Oneida. He will reach Chile about Christmas when the racing season is at its height in that country. It will soon be summer in Chile, and racing is the national sport there.

McCarthy took a cheaper bunch of horses from California to South America a year or two ago and made money. He says he likes the country and, with a better string of racers, he hopes to have a more profitable season.

Jockey Eddie Duran is anxious to become an aviator, and he has partly arranged to accompany "Bud" Mars from Jamestown to Los Angeles, where he will be instructed to fly a Curtis biplane.

The officials of the Academic athletic league up to a late hour yesterday were in a quandary as to whether or not the Lick school football team would play Alameda high school this morning. When Lick and Cogswell played a tie two weeks ago they were both notified that there would have to be a semifinal game today, so on last Saturday both teams turned in their blue blanks to Secretary Sidney Tibbets.

Now Lick claims not to have had sufficient time in which to prepare for the game. Alameda claims that the local eleven is afraid it will be defeated.

Alameda has been forced to go without games as a majority of the schools playing the American game did not care to buck against such a strong team. In case Lick fails to contest this morning the team will undoubtedly be disqualified by the league officials. The Belmont military academy would like to be on hand at the Presidio grounds to take Lick's place in case the latter refuses to play. A game between Alameda and Belmont should prove an interesting contest.

Colleges to Race Cross Country Today

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 11.—To familiarize themselves with the course, the cross country squads of Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard, Cornell and Pennsylvania today walked over the three miles of country they will have to traverse in the twelfth annual cross country run of the intercollegiate association of America, which starts tomorrow. The remaining teams entered—Columbia, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, College of City of New York and Michigan—are expected to arrive tomorrow. Each team will enter seven men, of which the first five will score the number of points for the place he wins. The distance, 6 1/2 miles, will take the runners twice around the course.

Officers Elected by the Central League

The Central California baseball league held its annual meeting and election of officers last evening, and the following were chosen:

President, Judge E. P. Shortall; vice president, Charles T. Wieland; secretary and treasurer, W. W. Brackett; board of directors, E. T. Walton, W. H. McMenomy, L. Schwartz, S. Jacobs, W. E. Luce, J. O. Bracken, R. J. Bracken. Brackett was elected to represent the league at the annual meeting of the National association and he will leave for Chicago this morning. The pennant was officially awarded to the Alameda club.

BLOOD DISEASES CONTAGIOUS TROUBLES

Contagious Blood Poison more thoroughly permeates the system than any other disease. Its infectious virus contaminates every corpuscle and tissue of the circulation, and for this reason its symptoms are of a varied nature. When it enters the blood it is but a short time until the mouth and throat begin to ulcerate, the skin becomes spotted, rashes and eruptions appear on the body, sores and ulcers break out, the hair falls, and frequently nails on hands and feet thicken and come off. Mineral medicines which simply shut the poison up in the system should be avoided, for when such treatment is left off the old disease will break out again, often worse than before. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison permanently, and it does so because it thoroughly purifies the blood. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and drives out the last trace of the destructive germs, adds richness and vigor to the circulation, and allows it to nourish the diseased portions of the body back to health. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, without a particle of mineral, and its vegetable ingredients always hasten the cure by toning up the stomach and digestive members. Home Treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.
