HOUSE COMPELS HEAD OF SUGAR TRUST TO TALK

Attempts to Acquire Pennsylvania Company Are Subject of Inquiry

Attorney Raises Vain Plea That Examination Will Prejudice Officers' Trial

WASHINGTON, June 12 .- The house committee of investigation into the socalled sugar trust affairs today required acting President Edwin F. Atkins of the American sugar refining ompany to answer questions regarding its attempts to acquire the Pennsylvania sugar refining company at sylvania sugar refining company at Philadelphia. Counsel James H. Beck for the company ineffectually appealed to the committee not to go into this matter on the ground that former officers of the company are awaiting trial in November on a charge of conspiracy to acquire the Pennsylvania property and that their interests would be prejudiced if the committee prejudged the case.

D. Havemeyer. He said he protested cars ago to Havemeyer against the policy of the company in acquiring beet sugar plants. The company officials point out that the company had undergone a thorough change of management and of policy since the Havemeyer resume.

Discussing the relations between the company and the beet sugar interests, atkins said:

Atkins said:

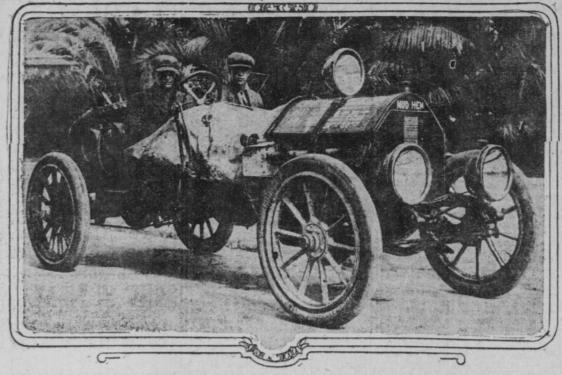

"I asked Havemeyer if it was to be his policy to build up the beet sugar industry at the expense of the cane sugar refining industry. His answer was evasive, and I told him that if that was to be his policy I would sell my stock in the American sugar refining to the callifornia road record, the hird within two weeks, has been low-stock in the American sugar refining to the callifornia road record to be sent a-glimmering was record to be sent a-glimmering was

Thus, if a contestant uses 385 pictures and coupons, and gets 75 pictures correct, while the one next to him gets 74 correct, and uses 300 pictures and coupons, the first contestant will win, of course.

If a contestant uses 320 pictures and coupons and gets 75 correct, while the one next to him uses 385 pictures and coupons, and gets 74 correct, the first contestant will win.

back pictures, get you sets of answers in apple pic order and send them in.

And The Call has made it easy for you to get these back pictures, too. The regular price is 5 cents each, and if you started today, the 66 back pictures at 5 cents each would cost $3.30. But here is the offer The Call makes:

Pay $1 only for a book of 10 certificates. Each certificate is good for 5 pictures and coupons, of any date or dates you want. Thus the 10 certificates are good for 50 pictures and coupons. If you bought 50 at 5 cents each, it would cost you $2.50.

The Call is giving you 30 pictures and coupons—saving you $1.50, which is the price of 30 pictures and coupons.

And the best of it is that you can use these certificates all at once, or use them from time to time, as you want extra pictures and coupons.

And you can buy as many of these certificate books as you feel like. The rules permit you to make as many as five answers to each picture, you know.

Those three magnificent Kohler & Chase player pianos, third, fifth and sixth prizes, may be seen and heard at the showrooms of Kohler & Chase, 26 O'Farrell street, San Francisco, and 1015 Broadway, Oakland.

JOSEPH CARRIGAN BECOMES BENEDICK

Leads Miss Jessie Foley to Altar of Corpus Christi Church, Chicago

[Special Dispatch to The Call] CHICAGO, June 12 .- The marriage of Miss Jessie Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Foley, 4635 Grand boulevard, to Joseph F. Carrigan of San Francisco took place this evening at 7 o'clock in Corpus Christi Roman Catholic church. Rev. F. A. Purcell of Holy Name cathedral, a cousin of the bride, officiated. Miss Bertha Foley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor Two other sisters, Misses Minnle and Florence Foley, were bridesmaids. William Carrigan of New York attended his brother as best man, and Walter Goodwillie and Charles Nash acted as ushers. Edwin Goodwillie, nephew of the bride, bore the ring. The bride wore a gown of white satin made with a square court train, The bodice and tunic were of Irish The bodice and tunic were of Irish point lace studded with pearls. A lace cap and clusters of orange blossoms held her tulle veil in place and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and liftles of the valley. The maid of honor was gowned in a lace robe over pale pink satin, with a white lace hat trimmed in pink rosebuds and she carried Killarney roses. The bridesmalds were dressed alike in costumes of Flemish lace combined with embroidered white mull and carried old fashioned bouquets of pink roses and forget-me-nots. They were white lingerle hats trimmed in pink roses and ribbon.

Owing to the illness of the bride's

Owing to the illness of the bride's brother a small reception for relatives and young friends of the bride followed the church service at the residence of the bride's parents.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Moynihan and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reynolds of New York, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ribolin of Cincinnati, John Alvord of Connecticut and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carrigan and family and Mr. and Mrs. Sellar Bullard of San Francisco.

Carrigan and his bride will pass their honeymoon in the Canadian Rockles. They will live, after July 15, in San Francisco.
