Mayor Mott Arranging Plans for Reception to the President

OAKLAND, Aug. 30 .- Mayor Frank K. Mott received word today from Congressman Julius Kahn of San Francisco that President W. H. Taft will arrive in Oakland at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October 10, and will remain two hours, leaving at 3 o'clock for San Francisco. The president will be present at the laying of the cornerstone of the new $1,300,000 city hall, the everying for which probably will the exercises for which probably will be held at 2 o'clock.

Congressman Kahn has been in di-rect communication with the presi-dent's secretary and has received the distinguished visitor's itinerary. President Taft will visit only four California cities—Oakland, San Francisco Los Angeles and Sacramento.

According to a tentative program, President Taft will make an address in Oakland at the exercises. Mayor Mott stated today that he had not yet decided upon a committee which will escort the president to Oakland, but would name the members in a short

"It is possible that time will not permit a banquet being given in honor of the president in Oakland. The details of the reception will be perfected by the committee later on.

"President Taft graciously consented to be the guest of the city at the earnest solicitation of the Chamber of Commerce and myself, and in response to the urging of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland and other friends of this city who worked for our benefit in Washington. It is a matter of con-gratulation that Oakland stands in a position to be accorded this signal mark of recognition from the president of the United States."

> OAKLAND, Aug. 30 .- Charles H. Picard was found guilty today by a eral weeks ago, thereby seriously injuring Constable Al Kihn, who was there for the purpose of seizing Picard's furniture for his divorced wife.

Picard refused to pay alimony to his wife, Rosalia, and Kihn, with three of Sheriff Barnet's deputies, went to the house with Attorney Harry Encell. Kihn opened a closet door, setting off an infernal machine that Picard had placed there. The contrivance consisted of a can with powder, which was exploded when a pistol, operated by turning the door knob, was discharged. The house was wrecked and Kihn, who was blown across the room, sustained injuries to his eyes.

Picard, on the witness stand, admitted that he had prepared the infernal machine, but said that he had placed it in the closet to frighten his wife and with no murderous intent.
