Such Intimated as Influencing Dr. Fraser in Giving Anderson Baby to Mrs. Slingsby

PAUL COLVIN TELLS OF DOCTOR'S BILL

Man Said to Be Father of Changeling Appears Before District Attorney

Intimation that it was financial emolument rather than "humanitarianism" that induced Dr. W. W. Fraser to give up the little Anderson baby to the "wealthy woman," whom he declares is Mrs. Slingsby, was received by the district attorney's office yesterday afternoon.

Paul Colvin, said to be the father of the Anderson child, appeared before Assistant District Attorney Louis Ferrari. He told of his knowledge of Miss Lillian Anderson's condition, of the birth of the child and its subsequent disposition to Doctor Fraser. Colvin asserted that the Anderson girl's father approached him a short time after the birth of the child, saying "Through my daughter you have cost me a couple of hundred of dollars." Anderson gave the intimation that he had been forced to pay this to Doctor Fraser and wanted Colvin to pay him. Colvin refused unless Anderson gave him a bill from the doctor, which Anderson failed to do. This information, says Ferrari, tends to break down Doctor Fraser's explanation and defense that he gave the child to Mrs. Fraser as a good home.

Colvin was located by A. J. Rocca, patrolman attached to the district attorney's office. Rocca also served a subpoena on F. W. Metzger, who photographed the original want advertisement to appear before Police Judge Shortall at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the opening of the Doctor Fraser case.

In the event that Mrs. Slingsby should come to San Francisco to be present before the superior court in the Fraser case, as intimated by her Victoria attorneys, Crease & Crease, it is probable no action will be filed against her. When the investigation opened the plans of the district attorney's office included a possible indictment against Mrs. Slingsby on a charge of falsification of records, but Ferrari gave the opinion yesterday that Doctor Fraser is accused of being the principal and that Mrs. Slingsby at the time was probably acting under hysteria.

Fraser to See Attorney
RICHMOND, Jan. 25.—Dr. W. W. Fraser is due here from Weaverville. He will meet D. J. Hall, his attorney, to prepare for his hearing in the San Francisco police court Monday on a charge of falsely making the birth record in the Anderson-Slingsby case.

GIRL TRAMP GONE AGAIN

Los Angeles Parents Fear Wanderlust Has Once More Embezzled Lass

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—Sixteen year old Lucile Murphy, whose craving for the open has twice induced her to abandon her home and wander about in the disguise of a man, disappeared yesterday and she is believed by her parents to have again been seized by the wanderlust. The girl was recently brought back from El Centro, where she was found working in the fields as a ranch hand, having garbed herself in overalls and jumper.

CHANGES HER MIND BY WIRE TO GET DIVORCE

Mrs. W. O. Truax Writes to Have Decree Stopped, Then Telegraphs to Enter Proceedings

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—The tendency of woman to change her mind was exemplified here today by the receipt of a telegram from Mrs. Florence E. Truax of San Francisco, asking that a final decree of divorce obtained from her by William O. Truax be entered on the court records of Los Angeles county, despite a request by letter that it be canceled.

Harry J. Leland, county clerk, received a letter yesterday from Mrs. Truax, who gave her address as 1223 Forty-seventh avenue, Ocean Beach, San Francisco. The letter read:

"William O. Truax was granted a divorce from Florence E. Truax. The decree should become final in a day or two. We wish to notify all concerned that we have made up, so do not enter the final decree. Kindly forward us the necessary papers to show that I am still a legal wife."

He prepared to attend to Mrs. Truax's request, but stopped when he received the following telegram from Oakland, signed by Mrs. Truax:

"Mrs. Florence E. Truax wishes to notify all concerned that she has changed her mind. Let the final decree be entered."

It was.

Natural Laws in This Mercantile World

Few have thought of a great store as an efficient world governed by natural laws.

Seasons pass; Winter gives way to Spring. The tender shoots which appear in your garden tell you that their Spring is here.

So in this store. Department after department is putting forth its new foliage. Seed planted in Paris, London, New York—wherever true style develops—daily is giving evidence of vigorous life.

A Cablegram About Millinery

This is of interest to all who wish to choose carefully. The latest cable from our Paris millinery buyer says: Hats are small. The colors receiving greatest popular approval are Madonna blue, coque de roche, parrot green, caviare, Nell rose, black and white.

So here is now displayed an advance showing of tailored models which most charmingly embody every point which is authentic and desirable. Of particular importance is the line specialized at $12.50. The most tasteful dressers—those used to paying much more—will be pleased with the offerings made at this price.

The New Tailored Suits

already permit a wide range of choice. The many Spring models we are showing embrace serges, checks and mixtures, also the new wool ratines. The prices range from $27.50.

In addition, those who favor such suits at all times, as well as those who are planning a visit to the Southern resorts, Hawaiian Islands or Panama Canal, will find a wide assortment of models in light colored and white fabrics—many of them washable.

Crepe de Chine Waists have first call for Spring, 1913. And our array of models in white and all desirable colors, on which the greatest skill has been exerted to devise novel trimming effects will arouse enthusiasm in purchasers.

The reputation of this store as a waist center is emphatically sustained by these advance Spring creations now shown. The prices range from $5.00, $7.50 and $12.50.

Jewelry Items

There are also many new hair ornaments of interest at this time. The novelties we show in combs, bands, pins and other accessories can not be neglected, are inexpensive but essential of course.
