LUCK GAVE GAME TO TOSSERS FROM OVER THE POND

SEALS DEFEATED, BUT NO DISGRACE IN THE LOSING

Fans Were Given Something to Enthuse Over, but Luck Was With the Oaks

By WILLIAM J. SLATTERY

There was no disgrace attached to the defeat which the men from Oakland inflicted upon our own brave baseball warriors 'yesterday afternoon. The finish was 6 to 5, and those tossers from over the pond had the break in the luck. Otherwise they never would have won, for the Seals were full of fight and every man among them died with his shoes laced up.

and tied it up, only to see the Oak-landers march another man over in the

Whenever a team makes an uphill battle and exerts every effort at its command the fans are satisfied, no matter what the ultimate outcome may be. This is the way it went yesterday. The boys were fighting and scrapping and trying all the time. They had no control over the luck which always goes with the national pastine, so they lost by a single tally. ALL MAKE MISTAKES

Manager Del Heward thought that it would be a great stant to send Willie McCorry out on the firing line, but he realized his mistake a few minutes after Willie had anyound a few. But they all make mistakes oc-and he soaked the ball to left and got a two sacker. Leard was the second batter up and he hammered it to center for one of the same brand, sending Schirm over. Zacher refused to be cheated out of his wallep and he, too, responded, driving the ball into left. It was good for a couple of stations and it allowed Leard to spike the pan.

as the others, but he came through a well placed single to right. Howard done all but sign the papers which saw that McCorry was not there, so he requested the little fallow to take the least this is the way it looks now. beuch and make room for Hughes,

"Howling Harry" got rid of Coy be-cause Mundorff pulled one of his famous stunts by throwing the batter out at first of a clean hit. But Zacher beat it over with the third tally on this play. Hetling drove a single to center and in came Ness from second. and in came Ness from second.

Cook was not to be denied either, for he biffed the pill to righ, advancing the runners. He was a bit too frisky on the paths and they nailed him off first. Hughes was a bit nervous and passed Rohrer, and Gregory polished it off with a bingler to on which Hetling made the

FUN FOR THE FANS . .

During the next inning the San Francisco rooters hardly murmured. But they had a chance to tear loose with everything at their command in round three and none of them overooked the opportunity, for the score as deadlocked then.
Schmidt was the leadoff man and he got a single to right. Hughes faded on an infield chance when little Mundorff came right along with a home run smash over the center field fence. The entire Oakland team was on the one of its members going south. MoArdle slapped a soft grounder down to Leard and the latter, kicked it around. Johnston grabbed off a hit into the right garden and Hogan waited for a pass. Zimmerman had plenty of time to spare and he watched Gregory put four bad ones over, which forced McArdle peross:

Olystead orced McArdle across.
Olmstead was Mitze's choice, for he aw that Gregory was through. Cart-wright was the first Seal to face the new slabster, and his contribution was a corking single over second. This al-lowed Johnston and McArdle to make the trip, and the score was tied up and the whole crewd was in a frenzy. The old fighting blood of everybody was aroused.

PATAL FIFTH

Had Hughes held the Oaks down in the fifth, they might still be at it. But alas, they tumbled Harry up in that spasm. Zacher landed for a single to left. Cov picked off one to right and Hetling did the rest in the form of a double cushion drive to left. That wallop decided the game.
The Oakland fans ought to give Do

Cook a handsome purse for his heroic work in the sixth. With Corhan at second and only one down, Schmidt shot the ball for what looked like a clean single to center. But it failed, for Cook picked up the ball and winged Corhan out at third on a wonderful chance. Then a hit by Johnston came along and this certainly would have won for San Francisco but for that 'miracle, which 'Cook performed.
