CHRISTIANS ARE SLAIN BY TURKS; SHELL TOWNS

Constantinople Admits That Troops, Finding Villages Devastated by Bulgars, Wreak Vengeance on the Noncombatants Spared by the Slav Invaders—Thrace Districts Are Depopulated

VERITABLE HUMAN SLAUGHTER HOUSES

Government of Sultan Is Anxious to Keep Good Will of Europe—Had Ordered Officers to Prevent Reprisals, but Commanders Are Unable to Restrain the Moslem Army

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 27.—Trustworthy reports of appalling massacres and devastation by Turkish irregular troops come from districts in Thrace, which the Turks are reconquering. The country about Malagaria, northeast of Gallipoli, according to reports, has been converted into a human slaughterhouse. The Bulgarians pillaged and burned the Moslem villages and massacred their inhabitants, and now the Turks are wreaking dreadful vengeance on the Christian villages which the Bulgarians spared.

The Turkish troops who first advanced, committed only a few murders. The irregular Turkish troops and the Kurdish regulars, who followed, however, worked their will on the Christians of Malagaria and 18 villages in the neighborhood.

The Turkish government, recognizing the need of the good opinion of Europe just now, issued strict orders to the officers to avoid reprisals by the troops, but they have been unable to restrain the men, who were inflamed by the stories of Bulgarian savagery upon Muslims.

Greeks Reject Peace Move

LONDON, July 27.—The Balkan peace conference is expected to open in Bucharest Wednesday. Meantime serious fighting continues.

The Greeks refused Bulgaria's request for a three days' truce, and after heavy fighting have scaled Kresna pass, inflicting a defeat on the Bulgarians in Simkile, capturing three siege guns and driving the Bulgarians back on Djuma.

The Greeks say they annihilated the whole left of the Bulgarian army, and that they have forced the Bulgarians back along the Struma valley. Unless peace speedily is negotiated another great battle may occur in Struma.

No news was received today of fighting on the Serbian frontier, but the large numbers of wounded men arriving in Belgrade indicate that severe actions are taking place.

The concert of the powers seems as powerless as before to adopt any united action against Turkey. The Porte, however, has disavowed the action of its troops in penetrating old Bulgaria, and no further advance of Turkish troops has been reported. The Turks assert their spoils in Adrianople consisted of 150 guns, 20,000 rifles and 1,000,000 sacks of corn.

There are frequent reports of atrocities and massacres by Bulgarians and Turks. Izet Pasha, the Turkish commander in chief, reports that Bulgarians murdered 200 Ottoman soldiers who had been taken prisoners near Kizily Enidje.

RESULT OF STRIKE VOTE WITHHELD

Conference With Southern Pacific Officials Will Take Place In Few Days

Thirty-eight committeemen of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors, who as exclusively told in The Call have been canvassing the 5,000 or more employees of the entire Southern Pacific lines to ascertain whether the railroad employees were agreed to strike in case the deadlock between the railroad officials and its men regarding the status of employees on the electrified lines could not be amicably settled, arrived in San Francisco last night. They established headquarters at the Argonaut. The result of the vote will not be given out, according to T. A. Gregg, vice president of the Order of Railway Conductors, until a conference has been held with Southern Pacific officials. This will take place within two or three days.

RABER HALF CONFESSES TO SACRAMENTO MURDER

Says Robbery of Jewels, but Not Killing, Was Purpose of Strangling Cherry de St. Maurice (Special Dispatch to The Call) SAN DIEGO, July 27.—Sam J. Raber, arrested here yesterday with Jack Drumgoole for the murder of Cherry de St. Maurice at Sacramento, made a partial confession to Captain of Detectives Myers today.

Raber admitted that he was "in on the deal," but denied that he personally killed the woman.

He said it was not intended to cause her death, and that he did not know until the following morning that she had succumbed. Raber's guarded statements left the impression that an accomplice, whom he did not name, strangled the woman with the purpose of merely rendering her unconscious while the place was ransacked for the jewelry of which she often made great display.

STOCKTON MOTORCYCLIST SUFFERS SKULL FRACTURE

George J. Schumm Thrown From Machine In Pleasanton While Going 65 Miles Per Hour

(Special Dispatch to The Call) STOCKTON, July 27.—George J. Schumm, residing at 611 East Jackson street in this city, was fatally injured at 1 o'clock this afternoon at the race track in Pleasanton while his Indian racer was traveling 65 miles an hour.

Schumm was trying out his motorcycle when the front tire came off. He was hurled several feet and suffered a fractured skull and badly cut face and head. Frank Dophna of San Jose brought the injured man in his automobile to Stockton, where he was attended at the emergency hospital here.

Schumm has been unconscious since the accident and physicians state that he has little chance for recovery.

POLICE SAVE PREMIER FROM SUFFRAGETTES

Militants' Attempt to March to Asquith's House Frustrated by Mounted Officers and Barricade

MISS PANKHURST IS LEADER OF MOB

Addresses Meeting in Trafalgar Square and Is Locked Up

LONDON, July 27.—Sylvia Pankhurst, the militant suffragette, who was out on license under the "cat and mouse" law, was the leader of a suffragette demonstration today which surpassed all previous Sunday afternoon affairs of the sort. In the rising which followed, Miss Pankhurst was rearrested and taken to Holloway jail.

The meeting, held in Trafalgar square by the Men's Federation for Women's Suffrage and the East end branch of the Women's Social and Political Union, had been announced in advance, and this fact, and also a rumor that a charge upon Premier Asquith's residence with resolutions was planned, brought enormous crowds into the square.

"On to Downing Street" proved to be the watchword, and but for vigorous work by the mobilized police, who arrested Miss Pankhurst and 20 men and women supporters, there would have been window smashing and perhaps worse damage at the premier's house. The procession of men and women marched from Whitechapel to Trafalgar square, followed by constantly growing crowds.

Miss Pankhurst made a dramatic appearance from among the crowd and was dragged to the plinth of the Nelson column amid great cheering.

"The time for speaking is over," she said. "Deeds, not words, are wanted. Let us go to Downing street."

She concluded by saying she would defy the authorities and carry resolutions to the premier's residence herself. In an instant Miss Pankhurst, with a bundle of papers in her hand, was swept off the plinth by the mob, and the square was a mass of excited and struggling people.

The huge crowd, Miss Pankhurst leading it, then moved down Whitehall toward Downing street. A platoon of police formed a cordon across the road, aided by a blockade of wheeled conveyances. Mounted police then rode into the crowd, scattering it and driving the people down side streets, while officers in plain clothes got possession of Miss Pankhurst after a fist fight with her bodyguard of East End youths.

Miss Pankhurst was driven to Holloway jail to serve the remainder of her sentence or to stay until she is again released through a hunger strike. In the station house she struggled desperately with the officers and then smashed a window with a ruler, which is used to measure prisoners.

Two women were arrested for throwing stones at Mr. Asquith's windows. Several policemen were badly injured by kicks and blows.

TRANSFUSION SAVES LIFE Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, is rapidly improving as the result of an operation for the transfusion of blood to her from a healthy young suffragette. The operation was made necessary by the weakened condition of Mrs. Pankhurst, following her hunger strikes in Holloway jail, from which she was released last week. Many suffragettes volunteered themselves for the operation.

Fire started this afternoon in an outbuilding of the King's College hospital, which King George formally opened yesterday. After a hard fight the firemen succeeded in subduing the flames. The police are of the opinion that the fire was started by suffragettes.

YUAN BREAKS BULWARK OF REVOLUTION

Federals Capture Hukow Forts and Control Yangtse River Clear to Nanking

DECISIVE BATTLE LIKELY IN CITY

Joint Land and Naval Attack Forces Surrender of Rebels

PEKING, China, July 27.—The capture of the Hukow forts from the rebels by a joint land and naval attack Friday night became known in Peking today.

By the capture of the forts the rebels lost their hold on the Yangtse river in Kiangsi province, and the river now is clear for the northerners to Nanking, where the forts held by the rebels prevent the fleet passing.

The southern troops on the Tientsin-Pukow line are retreating southward from Hulho, evidently fearing that General Hsun at the juncture of the Grand canal and the Yangtse will participate with the northern forces and cut their communications. Hsun's has been denominated an outlaw band, but both sides are now willing to accept his assistance.

It is thought the decisive combat of the rebellion will be fought in Nanking.

It is believed the rebels will only fight a rear guard action and retreat to Nanking, where recruiting to their cause is brisk, chiefly among the coolies. There seems to be no lack of rifles there.

The recent fighting around Su Chow Fu apparently was heavy. Two hundred and fifty wounded men have been taken into Nanking, and it is believed many others were abandoned in the retreat of the southerners.

The United States cruiser Rainbow's bluejackets, who were landed in Shanghai Saturday for a demonstration, are surrounding the foreign settlement. The Rainbow was struck three times in the fighting last Friday.

The whereabouts of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, one of the leaders of the revolt, is unknown.

The Standard Oil company's houseboat was commandeered near Stow Chow. Much of the money on board was taken. Afterward the boat was released.

Armistice Is Reported

LONDON, July 27.—Dispatches from Shanghai say the foreign naval detachments have disarmed the Shanghai rebels and that Chinese bluejackets are patrolling the borders to prevent looting.

According to a dispatch to the Daily Telegraph from Shanghai, dated midnight Sunday, an armistice has been announced to permit negotiations between leaders of the rebels and the government forces. The dispatch said there was no fighting Saturday or Sunday and that the southerners are leaving Shanghai disheartened.

"It now is admitted generally," says the Daily Telegraph's Peking correspondent, "that the situation can not be solved by force of arms. Peking already has dispatched all her available troops and unless Mongolia and Manchuria are abandoned further reinforcements are impossible."

Washington Upholds Nicholson

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Officials here approve the course of Rear Admiral Nicholson, commander of the Asiatic fleet, who refused to send a guard of marines to Kuling, the central China summer resort where Americans had become apprehensive because of the disorders in the Chinese republic.

Officials here point out that if Admiral Nicholson had sent any of her small complement of marines to Kuling, the vessel might have become an easy prey of the warring factions.

Her brother and sister and other relatives here are joyous at the news.

MOTORCYCLIST KILLS BICYCLE RIDER; 2 HURT

(Special Dispatch to The Call) STOCKTON, July 27.—Samuel Cloyd, agent for the Metropolitan Insurance company, was instantly killed, his six year old daughter, Bonnie Bell, was seriously injured, and Roy Carviglia suffered several severe contusions about the head and body and possible internal injuries here this evening when Cloyd on his motorcycle collided with Carviglia and his child on a bicycle.

Cloyd resides at 1523 South California street, and took his young child out riding on the handle bars of his bicycle this evening. As he started to cross the intersection of Anderson and Center streets, his daughter warned him of the approach of a motorcycle. Before Cloyd could get out of the way, Carviglia crossed the intersection going north on Center street and struck Cloyd, throwing him and his daughter to the pavement.

Cloyd was killed instantly. Carviglia ran into the gutter and was thrown off, sustaining severe injuries. The child suffered a deep cut across her forehead.

Witnesses state that Carviglia was traveling more than 40 miles an hour when he struck Cloyd with his child on the bicycle. Carviglia can not speak English. Cloyd was 38 years of age and survived by three small children and a widow. When his child regained consciousness at the hospital she cried piteously for her father.

Two weeks ago Cloyd secured $10,000 life insurance in his wife's name. The city motorcycle officer was trying to catch up with Carviglia and arrest him for speeding when the accident occurred.

TRAIN ROBBERS TRACED TO BOTTLE BY PURSUING POSSE

(Special Dispatch to The Call) ST. PAULS, Mont., July 27.—The three men who last night attempted to hold up the eastbound North Coast limited on the Northern Pacific near Homestead, Mont., had been traced to Butte, Mont., tonight by a sheriff's posse, according to W. J. McFetridge, chief special agent of the Northern Pacific railroad.

According to details of the attempted holdup received by Mr. McFetridge, nothing was secured by the bandits, and very few of the messengers knew what was delaying the train.

A posse headed by the sheriff, today took up the trail of the three bandits, who, the officials here stated, were reported to be quite young and seemed under the influence of liquor. Their tracks led to a wagon road, where evidences of the recent passing of an automobile traveling toward Butte convinced the authorities that the bandits had gone to that place.

INJURED GUARDSMAN DIES

Sergeant Who Shot Private Will Be Held for Court Martial

(Special Dispatch to The Call) INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 27.—Walter Dowell, private in the Indianapolis national guard, who was shot by Sergeant Ball Wednesday night at Thirtieth street and Cornell avenue, when he attempted to escape from the officers, died at St. Vincent's hospital without making a deathbed statement regarding the shooting. Sergeant Ball is in the custody of officials of the national guard and regular army and will be held for court martial.

SHOOTING OF AMERICAN IN JUAREZ STIRS U.S. TO ACTION

Washington, in Most Drastic Note Ever Sent to the Huerta Government, Demands Soldiers Who Fired on Yankee Inspector Be Courtmartialled and That Mining Managers Facing Execution in Chihuahua Be Given Liberty at Once

BORDER INCIDENT AROUSES CAPITAL

Events Regarded Serious in Official Circles—Ambassador Wilson Dictates Telegrams to Mexico and Bryan Approves Tenor of Messages—Rebels Are Expected to Take Advantage of the Opening and a Renewed Attack Opposite El Paso Likely to Be Made

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Strong representations, the most drastic in phraseology made since the present American administration came into power, were made to the Huerta government in Mexico today.

The United States government demanded not only the prompt arrest, courtmartial and punishment of the Mexican federal soldiers who yesterday shot Charles B. Dixon, an American immigration official in Juarez, but the immediate release of Charles Bissell and Bernard McDonald, mining managers, imprisoned by federal soldiers in Chihuahua and threatened with execution.

So serious were these incidents regarded in official circles that they overshadowed largely the policy which the visit of Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson had brought to a climax.

WILSON WIRES ORDERS

The ambassador was so exercised over the developments in Mexico that he dictated two strong telegrams, one to the embassy in Mexico City and the other to the American consul in Juarez, and while Secretary Bryan slightly modified their tone, they were approved and promptly dispatched.

Ambassador Wilson declined to discuss the affair, but he probably will explain his views on such happenings when he meets President Wilson tomorrow afternoon for a general explanation of affairs in Mexico.

The president had Ambassador Wilson's long report in hand today, studied it carefully, and after an early conference tomorrow with Mr. Bryan will be prepared to inquire of the ambassador what remedies he would suggest. In the meantime, the ambassador would give no inkling of the recommendation he had in mind beyond the general statement that his plan would conserve the friendly relations between Mexico and the United States and protect likewise the interests of Americans in the southern republic.

DEMAND NOT REQUEST

The ambassador's long experience with such outbursts against American citizens will make him an important factor in whatever policy is adopted toward the Huerta government on account of the developments in Juarez and Chihuahua.

The demand that the Juarez soldiers be courtmartialled and that the guilty be punished is a much more pointed request than has been hitherto voiced by the American government. Although McDonald, who is Bissell's fellow prisoner, is reported to be an English subject, the demands for protection covered both men, and the American consul in Chihuahua was ordered to go to the extreme of precaution to prevent harm from befalling them.

Secretary Bryan was at the state department for a short time today conferring with subordinate officials in the Latin-American division. He stated later that the telegrams ordering an investigation constituted the only action that would be taken for the present, but that the American government intended to pursue its inquiries, vigorously.

REFUGEES WARN OF FATE

Telegrams corroborating the reports of the Juarez shooting were received at the state department.

There is little information about the status of McDonald and Bissell. It appears that they were on their way to Parral in an automobile to bring out refugees when arrested. The machine was confiscated and the men taken to the city of Chihuahua, where news of their pending fate was carried to the border by Americans.

While the demands today were directed toward the Huerta government, the constitutionalists, according to reports, are making every effort there to gain favor with the United States by
